MOTION FOR ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) EXTENDING
DEBTORS' EXCLUSIVE PERIODS WITHIN WHICH TO FILE AND SOLICIT ACCEPTANCES OF REORGANIZATION PLAN

("1121(d) EXCLUSIVITY SECOND EXTENSION MOTION")

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (the "Affiliate Debtors"), debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submit this motion (the "Motion") for an order under 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) extending the Debtors' exclusive periods within which to file and solicit acceptances of a plan of reorganization. In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Background

A. The Chapter 11 Filings

1. On October 8 and 14, 2005, Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtor's chapter 11 cases.

2. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' cases. On April 28, 2006, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of equity holders.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 6006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

B. Current Business Operations Of The Debtors

5. Delphi and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company") had global 2005 net sales of approximately $26.9 billion, and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion.¹ At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not chapter 11 debtors and continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court.

6. The Company is a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines, and is one of the largest global suppliers of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. The Company supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer.

7. Delphi was incorporated in Delaware in 1998 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of GM. Prior to January 1, 1999, GM conducted the Company's business through various divisions and subsidiaries. Effective January 1, 1999, the assets and liabilities of these divisions and subsidiaries were transferred to the Company in accordance with the terms of a Master Separation Agreement between Delphi and GM. In connection with these transactions, Delphi accelerated its evolution from a North American-based, captive automotive supplier to a global supplier of components, integrated systems, and modules for a wide range of customers and applications. Although GM is still the Company's single largest customer, today more than half of Delphi's revenue is generated from non-GM sources.

C. Events Leading To The Chapter 11 Filing

8. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, the Company generated approximately $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, the Company has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, the Company reported a net loss of approximately $4.8 billion on $28.6 billion in net sales.² Reflective of a continued downturn in the marketplace, in 2005 Delphi incurred net losses of approximately $2.8 billion on net sales of $26.9 billion.

9. The Debtors believe that the Company's financial performance has deteriorated because of: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-profitable, non-core operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs, (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures, and (c) increasing commodity prices.

10. In light of these factors, the Company determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward-looking revenue requirements. Because discussions with its major unions and GM had not progressed sufficiently by the end of the third quarter of 2005, the Company commenced these chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value for its stakeholders.

D. The Debtors' Transformation Plan

11. On March 31, 2006, the Company outlined the key tenets of its transformation plan. The Company believes that this plan will enable it to return to stable, profitable business operations and allow the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases in the first half of 2007. To complete their restructuring process, the Debtors must focus on five key areas. First, Delphi must modify its labor agreements to create a competitive arena in which to conduct business. Second, the Debtors must conclude their negotiations with GM to finalize GM's financial support for the Debtors' legacy and labor costs and to ascertain GM's business commitment to the Company. Third, the Debtors must streamline their product portfolio to capitalize on their world-class technology and market strengths and make the necessary manufacturing alignment with their new focus. Fourth, the Debtors must transform their salaried workforce to ensure that the Company's organizational and cost structure is competitive and aligned with its product portfolio and manufacturing footprint. Finally, the Debtors must devise a workable solution to their current pension situation.

12. In connection with the first two elements of the Company's transformation plan, Delphi continues to participate in discussions with its unions and GM. Throughout those discussions, Delphi has consistently communicated a clear message to both its hourly workforce and GM: Delphi is committed to finding a consensual resolution to its issues and intends to continue to discuss with its unions and GM ways to become competitive in the Debtors' U.S. operations. To that end, Delphi, GM and the UAW recently received this Court's approval of a tripartite agreement providing for a special hourly attrition program for Delphi's UAW-represented employees. This special hourly attrition program could provide as many as 18,000 of Delphi's 23,000 existing UAW-represented long-term hourly employees with "soft landings" through retirement attrition programs and GM flowbacks. Delphi also hopes to reach agreement on similar hourly attrition programs with its other unions, which could provide as many as 4,500 additional hourly employees with retirement programs or incentives.

13. These hourly attrition programs constitute an important first step in implementing the Debtors' transformation plan, but will not resolve all of the issues related to Delphi's uncompetitive labor agreements. Moreover, Delphi has not yet reached comprehensive agreements with its unions and GM. Therefore, on March 31, 2006, Delphi moved under sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code for authority to reject its U.S. labor agreements and to modify retiree benefits.³ Contemporaneously therewith, the ³ Motion For Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 1113(c) Authorizing Rejection Of Collective Bargaining Agreements And Under 11 U.S.C. § 1114(g) Authorizing Modification of Retiree Welfare Benefits (Docket No. 3035).

Debtors also moved to reject unprofitable supply contracts with GM.⁴ Among the reasons for the GM contract rejection motion was the Debtors' belief that GM must cover a greater portion of the costs of manufacturing products for GM at plants that bear the burden of the Debtors' legacy costs. This initial motion covers approximately half of the Debtors' North American annual purchase volume revenue from GM but only 10% of the Debtors' total contracts with GM. Although the filing of these motions was a necessary procedural step, the Debtors remain focused on reaching a consensual resolution with all of Delphi's unions and GM before a hearing on the motions is necessary.

14. To implement the third element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company announced plans to focus its product portfolio on those core technologies for which the Company has significant competitive and technological advantages and expects the greatest opportunities for increased growth. To that end, the Company will concentrate the organization around the following core strategic product lines: (a) Controls & Security (Body Security, Mechatronics, Power Products, and Displays), (b) Electrical/Electronic Architecture (Electrical/Electronic Distribution Systems, Connection Systems, and Electrical Centers), (c) Entertainment & Communications (Audio, Navigation, and Telematics), (d) Powertrain (Diesel and Gas Engine Management Systems), (e) Safety (Occupant Protection and Safety Electronics), and (f) Thermal (Climate Control & Powertrain Cooling).⁵

⁴ Motion For Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 365 And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6006 Authorizing Rejection Of Certain Executory Contracts With General Motors Corporation (Docket No. 3033).

15. In contrast, the Company similarly identified certain non-core product lines that do not fit into its future strategic framework, including Brake & Chassis Systems, Catalysts, Cockpits and Instrument Panels, Door Modules and Latches, Ride Dynamics, Steering, and Wheel Bearings. The Company will seek to sell or wind down these non-core product lines (which will include approximately one-third of its global manufacturing sites) and will consult with its customers, unions, and other stakeholders to carefully manage the transition of such affected product lines. The Company intends to sell or wind down the non-core product lines and manufacturing sites by January 1, 2008.

16. As part of its organizational restructuring, the fourth element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company expects to reduce its global salaried workforce by as many as 8,500 employees as a result of portfolio and product rationalizations and initiatives adopted following an analysis of the Company's selling, general, and administration ("SG&A") cost saving opportunities. The Company believes that once its SG&A plan is fully implemented, the Company should realize savings of approximately $450 million per year in addition to savings realized from competitive measures planned for its core businesses and the disposition of non-core assets.

17. As noted above, the final key tenet of the transformation plan is to devise a workable solution to the Debtors' current pension situation. The Debtors' goal is to retain the benefits accrued under the existing defined benefit U.S. pension plans for both the Debtors' hourly and salaried workforce. To do so, however, it will be necessary to freeze the current hourly U.S. pension plan as of October 1, 2006 and to freeze the current salaried U.S. pension plan as of January 1, 2007. Despite the freeze, because of the size of the funding deficit, it will also be necessary for the Debtors to obtain relief from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor, and potentially Congress, to amortize funding contributions over a long-term period. The Company intends to replace the hourly plan (for certain employees) and the salaried plan with defined contribution plans.

18. Upon the conclusion of the reorganization process, the Debtors expect to emerge as a stronger, more financially sound business with viable U.S. operations that are well-positioned to advance global enterprise objectives. In the meantime, Delphi will marshal all of its resources to continue to deliver high-quality products to its customers globally. Additionally, the Company will preserve and continue the strategic growth of its non-U.S. operations and maintain its prominence as the world's premier auto supplier.

Relief Requested

19. As set forth in the Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) Extending the Debtors' Exclusive Periods Within Which to File and Solicit Acceptances of a Plan of Reorganization (Docket No. 1749) entered by this Court on January 6, 2006 (the "Exclusivity Order"), the Debtors have the exclusive right to file one or more reorganization plans through and including August 5, 2006 (the "Plan Proposal Period") and the exclusive right to solicit and obtain acceptances for such plan through and including October 4, 2006 (the "Solicitation Period," and together with the Plan Proposal Period, the "Exclusive Periods").

20. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order further extending (i) the Plan Proposal Period through and including February 1, 2007 and (ii) the Solicitation Period through and including April 2, 2007, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek further extensions of the Exclusive Periods.

Basis For Relief

21. The Exclusive Periods are intended to afford chapter 11 debtors a full and fair opportunity to rehabilitate their business and to negotiate and propose a reorganization plan without the deterioration and disruption of their business that might be caused by the filing of competing reorganization plans by nondebtor parties.

22. The sheer size and complexity of the Debtors' cases alone justifies an extension of the Exclusive Periods. A review of certain basic statistics make the foregoing conclusion self-evident:

- (a) As noted above, at the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets;
- (b) the Debtors' global 2004 revenues were approximately $28.62 billion, and its global assets as of May 1, 2006 for the period ending December 31, 2004 were approximately $16.59 billion;
- (c) as of the filing, the Debtors employed approximately 50,600 people in the technical centers. Ninety-six percent of the Debtors' 34,750 hourly employees were represented by approximately 49 different international and local unions under various collective bargaining agreements. The Debtors' foreign entities employed more than 134,000 people supporting 120 manufacturing sites and 20 technical centers across nearly 40 countries worldwide;
- (d) on January 20, 2006, the Debtors filed their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (Schedules or SOALs) and Statements of Financial Affairs (Statements or SOFAs). In the aggregate, the Schedules and Statements for the 42 Debtors include more than 20,000 scheduled liabilities and nearly 347,000 scheduled executory contracts and unexpired leases, which collectively comprise roughly 22,000 pages of information;

- (e) on April 20, 2006, the Debtors provided more than 580,000 parties with notice of the order establishing bar dates for filing proofs of claim; and
- (f) in the eight months since the Debtors' chapter 11 filings more than 4,100 entries have been filed on the docket, an average of approximately 25 entries per business day.

23. The Debtors' cases are further complicated by other factors including their long history with GM, their former parent and still their largest customer, and the disadvantageous labor contracts the Debtors inherited from GM upon separation in 1999. Before the Debtors may propose a plan of reorganization, the Debtors must address numerous issues including the re-pricing of parts supplied to GM and the current litigation and negotiations with the various labor unions to reduce the increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and to eliminate operational restrictions imposed by collectively bargained agreements that prevent the Debtors from exiting non-strategic, non-profitable operations.

24. To ensure that realizing these objectives is possible, the Debtors require more time than the current Exclusive Periods, to position their businesses to execute the transformation plan and formulate, promulgate, and build consensus for a plan of reorganization. This request should come as no surprise to any party in interest because the Debtors publicly announced in their October 8, 2005 press release at the commencement of their chapter 11 cases that the Debtors hoped to emerge from bankruptcy in early to mid-2007, which telegraphed the Debtors' need to extend the Exclusive Periods. Consistent with this statement, the Debtors stated, on the record at the January 5, 2006 hearing in connection with the Debtors' initial request for an exclusivity extension that a further extension of time would be sought. The requested extension will not prejudice other parties, but will allow the Debtors to concentrate their efforts on systematically working towards a viable business and reorganization plan. The Debtors submit that under these circumstances the Debtors' requested extension of the Plan Proposal Period through February 1, 2007 and the Solicitation Period through April 2, 2007 is justified.

Applicable Authority

25. Section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the court to extend a debtor's exclusive periods upon a demonstration of cause:

On request of a party in interest made within the respective periods specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this section and after notice and a hearing, the court may for cause reduce or increase the 120-day period or the 180-day period referred to in this section.

11 U.S.C. § 1121(d). Although the term "cause" is not defined in the statute, the legislative history states that it is intended to be a flexible standard to balance the competing interests of a debtor and its creditors. See H.R. Rep. No. 95-595 at 232 (1977), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5963, 6191 (bankruptcy courts are given flexibility to increase the 120-day period depending on the circumstances of the case). Moreover, whether "cause" exists to extend a debtors' exclusive periods to file and solicit acceptances of a plan is a decision committed to the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court based upon the facts and circumstances of each particular case. See In re Texaco, Inc., 76 B.R. 322, 325 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987). In determining whether a debtor has had an adequate opportunity to negotiate a plan of reorganization and solicit acceptances thereof, a court should consider a variety of factors to assess the totality of circumstances. See In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 1991 WL 259036, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 25, 1991); In re McLean Indus., Inc., 87 B.R. 830, 833-34 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987).

26. The court in McLean Indus. identified the following factors as relevant to the determination of "cause" to extend a debtor's Exclusive Periods:

- (a) the size and complexity of the debtor's case;
- (b) the existence of good faith progress towards reorganization;
- (c) a finding that the debtor is not seeking to extend exclusivity to pressure creditors "to accede to [the Debtor's] reorganization demands";
- (d) existence of an unresolved contingency; and
- (e) the fact that the debtor is paying its bills as they come due.

In re McLean Indus., 87 B.R. at 834; accord In re Hoffinger Indus., Inc., 292 B.R. 639, 644 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003) (stating that not all factors "are relevant in every case" and court has discretion to "decide which factors are relevant and give the appropriate weight to each").

When evaluating these factors, the goal is to determine whether a debtor has had a reasonable opportunity to negotiate an acceptable plan with various interested parties and to prepare adequate financial and non-financial information concerning the ramifications of any proposed plan for disclosure to creditors. See, e.g., In re McLean, 87 B.R. at 833-34; In re Texaco, 76 B.R. at 326.

27. In other cases of similar size and complexity to the Debtors' cases, courts have extended the debtors' exclusivity rights to propose a plan of reorganization for periods similar to those requested by the Debtors. See, e.g., In re Delaco Co., Case No. 04-

10899 (PCB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004) (granting initial extension of five months and total extensions of approximately 16 months); In re Enron, Case. No. 01-16034 (AJG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001) (granting initial extension of six months and total extensions of approximately 15 months); In re Bethlehem Steel, Case No. 01-15288 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001) (granting initial extension of five and a half months and total extensions of more than 17 months); In re Kmart Corporation, Case No. 02-02474 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2002) (granting initial extension of nine months and aggregate exclusivity for more than 17 months); In re Kaiser Aluminum Corp., Case No. 02-10429 (Bankr. D. Del. 2002) (granting initial extension of six months and total extensions of approximately 43 months). In this case, based upon the preceding factors and in line with other cases of similar size and complexity, sufficient cause exists for a six month extension of the Exclusive Periods.

A. These Cases Are Large And Complex

28. The size and complexity of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases alone constitutes sufficient cause to extend the Exclusive Periods. See, e.g., In re Texaco Inc., 76 B.R. 322, 326 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987); see also H.R. Rep. No. 595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 231, 232, 406 (1978), reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787, 6191, 6362 ("[I]f an unusually large company were to seek reorganization under Chapter 11, the Court would probably need to extend the time in order to allow the debtor to reach an agreement."); In re Express One Int'l, Inc., 194 B.R. 98, 100 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1996) ("The traditional ground for cause is the large size of the debtor and the concomitant difficulty in formulating a plan of reorganization"). These and other authorities show that in large, complex chapter 11 cases courts consistently extend the debtor's exclusive periods to afford the debtor time to stabilize its business, analyze reliable information to diagnose problems, and formulate a long-term business plan before commencing the plan of reorganization process.

29. As stated above, the Debtors' cases are certainly large and complex. A debtor's chapter 11 case need not even approach the size of these cases to justify an extension of the exclusive periods based on size and complexity. See, e.g., In re United Press Int'l, 60 B.R. 265, 270 (Bankr. D.D.C. 1986) ($40 million company granted extension of exclusive periods based on size and complexity of case; "In many much smaller cases, involving far less complications, two or three years go by before the debtor is in a position to file a plan"). Thus, by any measure, the Debtors' chapter 11 cases are sufficiently large and complex to warrant an extension of the Exclusive Periods under the foregoing authorities. Moreover, in addition to the typical issues that can be anticipated to arise in a large chapter 11 case, the Debtors face numerous significant issues that are unique to the automobile industry (an industry which, as a whole, is in distress) affecting the Debtors' ability to formulate and execute a viable business plan.

B. The Debtors Have Made Good Faith Progress Toward Reorganization

30. An extension of a debtor's exclusive periods also is justified by a debtor's progress in resolving issues facing its creditors and estates. In re Amko Plastics, Inc., 197 B.R. 74, 77 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1996). The Debtors' progress in these cases thus far is significant and compels an extension of the Exclusive Periods.

31. The Debtors have made great strides in reaching its goal of completing the restructuring process. As announced on March 31, 2006 and described above, the Debtors have focused on the following five key areas and have made significant progress on each front.

- (a) Key area: Modifications to labor contracts to create a competitive arena in which to conduct business going forward.

Progress: Litigation has commenced in connection with the Debtors' motions under sections 1113/1114 of the Bankruptcy Code seeking authority to reject U.S. labor agreements and to modify retiree benefits. On a parallel track, the Debtors continue to negotiate with their unions in an attempt to reach a consensual resolution.

- (b) Key area: Attempting to conclude negotiations with GM to finalize GM's financial support and to ascertain GM's business commitment to Delphi going forward.

Progress: On March 31, 2006, the Debtors filed their initial motion to reject unprofitable supply contracts with GM. On June 5, 2006, GM filed its supplemental objection to the Debtors' motion. Discussions surrounding the Debtors' motion have been ongoing. In addition, negotiations regarding forward looking revenue commitments are also in process.

- (c) Key area: Streamlining Delphi's product portfolio to capitalize on Delphi's world class technology and market strengths, and make the necessary manufacturing alignment with this new focus.

Progress: Delphi announced which of its product lines have been deemed "core" and "non-core," which will be sold or wound-down.

- (d) Key area: Transforming Delphi's salaried workforce to ensure that Delphi's organizational and cost structure is competitive and aligned with its product portfolio and manufacturing footprint.

Progress: Delphi announced reductions it will be making in the size of its salaried workforce and benefits provided to these employees.

- (e) Key area: Devising a workable solution to Delphi's current pension situation.

Progress: Among other things, the Debtors intend to freeze the current hourly U.S. pension plan as of October 1, 2006 and the current U.S. salaried pension plan as of January 1, 2007. The Debtors anticipate that both plans will be replaced with defined contribution plans.

32. As mentioned above, a key area of progress in these chapter 11 cases is the Debtors' efforts to modify their labor agreements. The motion for authority to reject the Debtors' collective bargaining agreements is an essential procedural step to enable the Debtors to take necessary action in the absence of a consensual resolution. On May 9, 2006 the hearing under sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code commenced. During the weeks leading up to this hearing the Debtors were immersed in negotiations with their unions and preparation for the hearing. The Debtors presented twelve witnesses in support of their motion and the unions intend to present more than a dozen witnesses. Currently, the parties have designated 327 exhibits. Hearings were held on May 9, 10, 12, 24 and 26, 2006, and June 2, 2006. It is anticipated that the court will schedule additional hearing dates.

33. With respect to the Debtors' current unprofitable supply contracts with GM, Delphi has discussed the necessity of GM covering a greater portion of the costs of manufacturing products for GM at plants that bear the burden of their legacy costs. In an effort to address this need, on March 31, 2006, the Debtors delivered a letter to GM initiating a process to reset the terms and conditions for more than 425 commercial agreements that expired between October 1, 2005, and March 31, 2006. Contemporaneously, the Debtors filed a motion to reject certain executory contracts between Delphi and GM. As a result of this motion the Debtors and GM have been involved in extensive discovery over the last several weeks. Additionally, the Debtors and GM continue negotiations related to this matter.

34. In addition to the foregoing, since the Debtors last sought an extension of the initial Exclusivity Periods, the Debtors have also:

- (a) reached an agreement with the UAW and GM on a special hourly attrition plan, which included the opportunity for UAW-represented Delphi employees to retire from GM;⁶
- (b) continued to manage and preserve the Debtors' relationship with suppliers pursuant to the authority granted by this Court under the essential supplier order, foreign vendor order, and supplier assumption agreement procedures order;
- (c) negotiated with suppliers pursuant to the supplier agreement assumption procedures order and successfully extended approximately 99.5% of all expiring supply agreements which were necessary to the Debtors' on-going operation; and
- (d) received approval for the annual incentive portion of their Key Employee Compensation Program (with modifications) for the period ending June 30, 2006.

35. Thus, the Debtors are clearly making good faith progress towards their reorganization. Nevertheless there is still significant progress to be made.

C. Unresolved Contingencies Still Exist

36. Courts have also cited the need to resolve an important contingency as justification for extending a debtor's exclusivity periods. In this case, as described in detail above, in addition to all the other matters that the Debtors are managing in these cases, the ⁶ On May 18, 2006 Wilmington Trust Company ("WTC"), as indenture trustee to the Debtors' senior notes and debentures, filed a notice of appeal regarding the order approving this plan (Docket No. 3813). In its statement of issues to be presented on appeal (Docket No. 3961) and on May 30, 2006 WTC filed its designation of items to be included in the record on appeal and statement of issues. In addition, on May 31, 2006, Appaloosa Management L.P., Wexford Capital LLC, and Lampe Conway and Company LLC filed an untimely notice of appeal regarding the Court approved attrition plan (Docket No. 3974).

Debtors' current 1113/1114 litigation, their prosecution of the GM contract rejection, and their execution and implementation of the Transformation Plane alone should all satisfy the existence of an unresolved contingency as described in the multi-factor test set forth in the McLean Industries case.

D. The Debtors Are Using Exclusivity For A Proper Purpose

37. Courts have denied extensions of exclusive periods when plan negotiations among parties in interest have broken down and the continuation of exclusivity would but merely give the debtor unfair bargaining leverage over the other parties in interest. See In re Lake in the Woods, 10 B.R. 338, 345 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1981). Here, the Debtors' request for an extension of the Exclusive Periods is not a negotiation tactic merely a reflection of the fact that these cases still are not yet ripe for the formulation and confirmation of a viable plan of reorganization. Indeed, as mentioned above, even upon the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors announced in a press release on October 8, 2005 that they hoped to emerge in early to mid-2007. This Motion is entirely consistent with the Debtors' initial projections.

38. Furthermore, the Debtors and their professionals have consistently conferred with their constituencies on all major substantive and administrative matters in these cases, often incorporating other positions in deference to the views of the official committee of unsecured creditors ("Creditors' Committee"), the prepetition and postpetition lenders, their largest shareholders and the U.S. Trustee. Moreover, the Debtors have begun to meet with the newly-appointed official committee of equity holders and their counsel in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors will, of course, continue to meet with each of these constituencies to facilitate constructive and consensual negotiations going forward.

E. The Debtors Are Paying Their Bills As They Come Due

39. Courts considering an extension of exclusivity may also assess a debtor's liquidity and solvency. See In re Ravenna Indus., 20 B.R. 886, 890 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1982). This court has approved for use by the Debtors a $4.5 billion financing package. In addition, the Debtors are paying their bills as they come due.

40. As described above, cause exists to extend the Exclusive Periods without prejudice to the Debtors' rights to seek a further extension. There is no harm in granting the requested extensions now because they will be without prejudice to the right of any party to request a termination of exclusivity for cause at any time under section 1121(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and other parties-in-interest.

Notice

41. Notice of this Motion has been provided in accordance with the Seventh Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) And 105 And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(m), 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing Omnibus Hearing Dates And Certain Notice, Case Management, And Administrative Procedures, entered by this Court on May 19, 2006 (Docket No. 3824) ("Supplemental Case Management Order"). In addition, the Debtors have complied with the Supplemental Case Management Order with respect to the filing of this Motion and the need for expedited relief.⁷ In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is necessary.

Memorandum Of Law

42. Because the legal points and authorities upon which this Motion relies are incorporated herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the requirement of the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law under Local Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York be deemed satisfied.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order (i) extending the Debtors' exclusive periods to file and solicit acceptance of a plan of reorganization through and including February 1, 2007 and April 2, 2007, respectively, and (ii) granting the Debtors such other further relief as is just.

MOTION FOR ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. §§ 363, 502, AND 503 AND FED. R. BANKR. P.
9019(b) AUTHORIZING DEBTORS TO COMPROMISE OR SETTLE CERTAIN CLASSES OF CONTROVERSY AND ALLOW CLAIMS WITHOUT FURTHER COURT APPROVAL

("SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES MOTION")

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (the "Affiliate Debtors"), debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submit this motion (the "Motion") for an order under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363, 502, and 503 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(b) authorizing the Debtors to compromise or settle certain classes of controversy in these chapter 11 cases, including, but not limited to, the settlement of disputes in certain commercial transactions that are not in the ordinary course of business and the allowance of both prepetition claims and administrative expense claims within those classes, pursuant to guidelines and notice procedures, without further court approval. In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Background

A. The Chapter 11 Filings

1. On October 8 and 14, 2005, Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtor's chapter 11 cases.

2. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). On April 28, 2006, the U.S. Trustee appointed an official committee of equity security holders (the "Equity Committee"). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' cases.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 363, 502, and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

B. Current Business Operations Of The Debtors

5. Delphi and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company") had global 2005 net sales of approximately $26.9 billion, and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion.¹ At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not chapter 11 debtors and continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court.

6. The Company is a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines, and is one of the largest global suppliers of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. The Company supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer.

7. Delphi was incorporated in Delaware in 1998 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of General Motors Corporation ("GM"). Prior to January 1, 1999, GM conducted the Company's business through various divisions and subsidiaries. Effective January 1, 1999, the assets and liabilities of these divisions and subsidiaries were transferred to the Company in accordance with the terms of a Master Separation Agreement between Delphi and GM. In connection with these transactions, Delphi accelerated its evolution from a North American-based, captive automotive supplier to a global supplier of components, integrated systems, and modules for a wide range of customers and applications. Although GM is still the Company's single largest customer, today more than half of Delphi's revenue is generated from non-GM sources.

C. Events Leading To The Chapter 11 Filing

8. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, the Company generated approximately $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, the Company has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, the Company reported a net loss of approximately $4.8 billion on $28.6 billion in net sales.² Reflective of a continued downturn in the marketplace, in 2005 Delphi incurred net losses of approximately $2.8 billion on net sales of $26.9 billion.

9. The Debtors believe that the Company's financial performance has deteriorated because of: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-profitable, non-core operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs, (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures, and (c) increasing commodity prices.

10. In light of these factors, the Company determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward-looking revenue requirements. Because discussions with its major unions and GM had not progressed sufficiently by the end of the third quarter of 2005, the Company commenced these chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value for its stakeholders.

D. The Debtors' Transformation Plan

11. On March 31, 2006, the Company outlined the key tenets of its transformation plan. The Company believes that this plan will enable it to return to stable, profitable business operations and allow the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases in the first half of 2007. To complete their restructuring process, the Debtors must focus on five key areas. First, Delphi must modify its labor agreements to create a competitive arena in which to conduct business. Second, the Debtors must conclude their negotiations with GM to finalize GM's financial support for the Debtors' legacy and labor costs and to ascertain GM's business commitment to the Company. Third, the Debtors must streamline their product portfolio to capitalize on their world-class technology and market strengths and make the necessary manufacturing alignment with their new focus. Fourth, the Debtors must transform their salaried workforce to ensure that the Company's organizational and cost structure is competitive and aligned with its product portfolio and manufacturing footprint. Finally, the Debtors must devise a workable solution to their current pension situation.

12. In connection with the first two elements of the Company's transformation plan, Delphi continues to participate in discussions with its unions and GM. Throughout those discussions, Delphi has consistently communicated a clear message to both its hourly workforce and GM: Delphi is committed to finding a consensual resolution to its issues and intends to continue to discuss with its unions and GM ways to become competitive in the Debtors' U.S. operations. To that end, Delphi, GM and the UAW recently received this Court's approval of a tripartite agreement providing for a special hourly attrition program for Delphi's UAW-represented employees (the "Hourly Attrition Program"). This special hourly attrition program could provide as many as 18,000 of Delphi's 23,000 existing UAW-represented long-term hourly employees with "soft landings" through retirement attrition programs and GM flowbacks. Delphi also hopes to reach agreement on similar hourly attrition programs with its other unions, which could provide as many as 4,500 additional hourly employees with retirement programs or incentives.

13. These hourly attrition programs constitute an important first step in implementing the Debtors' transformation plan, but will not resolve all of the issues related to Delphi's uncompetitive labor agreements. Moreover, Delphi has not yet reached comprehensive agreements with its unions and GM. Therefore, on March 31, 2006, Delphi moved under sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code for authority to reject its U.S. labor agreements and to modify retiree benefits.³ Contemporaneously therewith, the Debtors also moved to reject unprofitable supply contracts with GM.⁴ Among the reasons for the GM contract rejection motion was the Debtors' belief that GM must cover a greater portion of the costs of manufacturing products for GM at plants that bear the burden of the Debtors' legacy costs. This initial motion covers approximately half of the Debtors' North American annual purchase volume revenue from GM but only 10% of the Debtors' total contracts with GM. Although the filing of these motions was a necessary procedural step, the Debtors remain focused on reaching a consensual resolution with all of Delphi's unions and GM.

14. To implement the third element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company announced plans to focus its product portfolio on those core technologies for which the Company has significant competitive and technological advantages and expects the greatest opportunities for increased growth. To that end, the Company will concentrate the organization around the following core strategic product lines: (a) Controls & Security (Body Security, Mechatronics, Power Products, and Displays), (b) Electrical/Electronic Architecture (Electrical/Electronic Distribution Systems, Connection Systems, and Electrical Centers), (c) Entertainment & Communications (Audio, Navigation, and Telematics), (d) Powertrain (Diesel and Gas Engine Management Systems), (e) Safety (Occupant Protection and Safety Electronics), and (f) Thermal (Climate Control & Powertrain Cooling).⁵

15. In contrast, the Company similarly identified certain non-core product lines that do not fit into its future strategic framework, including Brake & Chassis Systems, Catalysts, Cockpits and Instrument Panels, Door Modules and Latches, Ride Dynamics, Steering, and Wheel Bearings. The Company will seek to sell or wind down these non-core product lines (which will include approximately one-third of its global manufacturing sites) and will consult with its customers, unions, and other stakeholders to carefully manage the transition of such affected product lines. The Company intends to sell or wind down the non-core product lines and manufacturing sites by January 1, 2008.

16. As part of its organizational restructuring, the fourth element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company expects to reduce its global salaried workforce by as many as 8,500 employees as a result of portfolio and product rationalizations and initiatives adopted following an analysis of the Company's selling, general, and administration ("SG&A") cost saving opportunities. The Company believes that once its SG&A plan is fully implemented, the Company should realize savings of approximately $450 million per year in addition to savings realized from competitive measures planned for its core businesses and the disposition of non-core assets.

17. As noted above, the final key tenet of the transformation plan is to devise a workable solution to the Debtors' current pension situation. The Debtors' goal is to retain the benefits accrued under the existing defined benefit U.S. pension plans for both the Debtors' hourly and salaried workforce. To do so, however, it will be necessary to freeze the current hourly U.S. pension plan as of October 1, 2006 and to freeze the current salaried U.S. pension plan as of January 1, 2007. Despite the freeze, because of the size of the funding deficit, it will also be necessary for the Debtors to obtain relief from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor, and potentially Congress, to amortize funding contributions over a long-term period. The Company intends to replace the hourly plan (for certain employees) and the salaried plan with defined contribution plans.

18. Upon the conclusion of the reorganization process, the Debtors expect to emerge as a stronger, more financially sound business with viable U.S. operations that are well-positioned to advance global enterprise objectives. In the meantime, Delphi will marshal all of its resources to continue to deliver high-quality products to its customers globally. Additionally, the Company will preserve and continue the strategic growth of its non-U.S. operations and maintain its prominence as the world's premier auto supplier.

Relief Requested

19. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authority to compromise or settle certain classes of controversy in these chapter 11 cases, including, but not limited to, the settlement of disputes in certain commercial transactions that are not in the ordinary course of business and the allowance of both prepetition claims and postpetition claims within those classes, pursuant to guidelines and notice procedures (as set forth below, the "Settlement Procedures"), without further court approval.

Basis For Relief

20. In the course of operating a Fortune 100 business, disputes regularly arise between the Debtors and other parties concerning a host of matters. These disputes include claims of governmental agencies regarding environmental, health, safety, and other regulations; terms and conditions of a contract; and disputes regarding accounts receivable and payable between the Debtors and businesses with which the Debtors interact.

21. Such disputes will inevitably arise in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors seek authority from this Court pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(b) to resolve certain classes of controversy that are outside the Debtors' ordinary course of business without further hearing and notice, except as provided by the procedures outlined below. These procedures would not apply to settlements that (a) resolve any controversy arising or that arose in the ordinary course of business as the Debtors are already permitted to settle these claims in any event under section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) are already authorized under another order entered by this Court, or (c) compromise or settle a dispute that arose outside the ordinary course of business where the final amount of the compromise or settlement is greater than (a) $20 million for general unsecured prepetition controversies or (b) $10 million for prepetition secured, prepetition priority, or postpetition controversies.

22. Given the large number of disputes the Debtors anticipate resolving during the course of these cases, the costs associated with an individualized approach to obtaining court approval of those settlements would not be economical. Indeed, by way of example, five of the 17 matters heard at the May omnibus hearing were motions brought by the Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 seeking authority to enter into various settlements. This piecemeal process increases the administrative burden on the Court in these cases. This Court has already granted the Debtors authority to settle certain types of disputes, including reclamation claims and, under the final debtor-in-possession financing order, certain setoff claims. These settlement procedures have saved the Debtors considerable time and resources, thereby preserving value for the benefit of the estates, and the Debtors anticipate that the Settlement Procedures proposed in this Motion will similarly benefit the Debtors' estates, creditors, and other parties-in-interest by streamlining the process of settling claims and controversies.

A. Classes Of Controversies

23. The Debtors seek authority to resolve both prepetition and postpetition controversies without further Court approval, provided that the final amount of the compromise or settlement is a sum that is less than or equal to $20 million for general unsecured prepetition controversies and $10 million for prepetition secured, prepetition priority, and postpetition controversies. Specifically, the Debtors expect that such controversies would include: (a) disputes regarding any obligations owed by third parties to the Debtors, or other claims of the Debtors against third parties, (b) disputes with regulatory or other governmental or quasi-governmental agencies, and (c) other claims or controversies which, in the Debtors' business judgment, affect the ability of the Debtors to operate, manage, or otherwise conduct their businesses.

24. The Debtors propose that all prepetition controversies resulting in monetary claims against the Debtors be resolved by the determination and allowance of a claim that would be treated in accordance with a confirmed plan of reorganization. The Debtors do not seek to make payment on any prepetition claims at this time. Moreover, the Debtors do not, by this Motion, seek to institute a large-scale prepetition claims reconciliation process of the thousands of prepetition claims the Debtors anticipate will be filed against these estates. That process will be undertaken at a later date. Instead, the Debtors anticipate that, from time to time, the best terms for settling certain prepetition claims may arise prior to establishment of the claims reconciliation process. In those instances, the Debtors believe that it would be in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest to settle such claims pursuant to the Settlement Procedures. All postpetition claims settled in accordance with the Settlement Procedures would be paid by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business.

25. Prompt settlement of claims that the Debtors have that are outside the ordinary course of business is an essential element of preserving and enhancing the Debtors' cash flow. A cost-effective resolution of these claims enhances the Debtors' estates. In the case of the various regulatory claims, frequent administrative or judicial proceedings and ongoing oversight by regulatory agencies demand the time and resources of the Debtors' personnel and professionals, distracting them from the Debtors' restructuring efforts and depleting the estates' assets. In many instances, these disputes also involve the relevant agency's police or regulatory power, and therefore are not stayed by the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. In other cases, the agency may allege a continuing violation if no action is taken, making the dispute one with potentially both prepetition and postpetition elements.

26. Many of these controversies are ripe for settlement. The Debtors therefore seek to establish these Settlement Procedures to facilitate the recovery of money or other assets of or obligations to the estates, timely resolve pre- or postpetition claims on the most advantageous terms available to the Debtors, or resolve any regulatory or other operating issues of the Debtors without the need to return to this Court for approval of each of these settlements. These Procedures will promote judicial economy and will maximize value for the benefit of the estates.

A. Settlement Procedures

27. Under the proposed procedures, negotiations would be primarily handled by the employees, agents, and other business persons of the Debtors who would normally handle such disputes in the absence of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors would maintain internal approval procedures, however, to monitor the dispute resolution process and to provide notice to specified parties in interest as set forth below.

28. Subject to the reporting requirements set forth in paragraphs 31 and 32 below, the settlement process would be subject to the following simple parameters:

- (a) For disputes related to general unsecured prepetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in the exercise of their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such general unsecured prepetition claims is the allowance of a general unsecured prepetition claim in a sum of $1 million or less, the compromise or settlement could be agreed upon and consummated without the need for further Court approval or further notice.
- (b) For disputes related to general unsecured prepetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such general unsecured prepetition claims is the allowance of a general unsecured prepetition claim in a sum greater than $1 million but less than or equal to $20 million, the Debtors would give notice of the terms of the proposed settlement (the "Proposed Settlement Notice") to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee"), (ii) counsel for the Creditors' Committee, (iii) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, and (iv) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' postpetition credit facility (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Proposed Settlement Notice would be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.

- (c) For disputes related to prepetition secured or priority claims, administrative expense priority claims, or other postpetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in the exercise of their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims is in a sum of $500,000 or less, the compromise or settlement would be agreed upon and consummated without the need for further Court approval or further notice.⁶
- (d) For disputes related to prepetition secured or priority claims, administrative expense priority claims, or other postpetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims is in a sum greater than $500,000 but less than or equal to $10 million, the Debtors would serve the Proposed Settlement Notice to the Notice Parties. The Proposed Settlement Notice would be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.
- (e) For any disputes referenced in subparagraphs (a) and (c) above with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims affects any claim asserted by the Debtors against a third party in excess of $1 million, the Debtors would serve the Proposed Settlement Notice to the Notice Parties. The Proposed Settlement Notice would be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.
- (f) The Notice Parties would have ten business days following initial receipt of the Proposed Settlement Notice to object to or request additional time to evaluate the proposed settlement. If counsel to the Debtors received no written objection or written request for additional time prior to the expiration of such ten business day period, the Debtors would be authorized to accept and consummate the proposed settlement.
- (g) If a Notice Party objected to the proposed settlement within ten business days after the Proposed Settlement Notice was received, the Debtors and such objecting Notice Party would meet and confer in an attempt to negotiate a consensual resolution. If either party were to determine that court intervention was necessary, then the Debtors would not be authorized to consummate the proposed settlement without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

29. The foregoing procedures for resolving disputes would not apply to settlements which involve an "insider" as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such settlements would require individual hearings as prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a).

30. The Debtors request that the Settlement Procedures order, if granted, not be deemed in any manner to affect, impair, impede, or otherwise alter the right of the Debtors to resolve any controversy arising in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business or resolve any controversy pursuant to any other order of the Court.

31. Following entry of the proposed order, the Debtors would provide periodic summary reporting to counsel for the Creditors' Committee of all settlements consummated pursuant to this Order. This periodic reporting would include, with respect to each settlement consummated since the prior report to the Creditors' Committee, (i) the names of parties with whom the Debtors have reached settlement, (ii) the asserted amount of the settling party's claim, (iii) the amounts of and other consideration for such consummated settlement, and (iv) the particulars of each such consummated settlement that were considered by the Debtors in arriving at the decision to enter into such settlement. From and after the last day of the first full month after the date of entry of the proposed order, this periodic reporting would be provided quarterly, until confirmation of a plan of reorganization.

32. In addition, with respect to claims that the Debtors are in the process of negotiating, where compromise or settlement of such claims would fall within the scope of this Motion, the financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee would be entitled to receive periodic reports containing aggregate summary information without any individual creditor data. The periodic reporting described in this paragraph would be in the format currently being shared between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and would take place not less frequently than monthly until further order of this Court.

33. The Debtors believe that the proposed Settlement Procedures would maximize efficiency and value in the Debtors' settlement of disputes and would better enable the Debtors to administer their estates. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the implementation of the Settlement Procedure is in the best interests of the estate, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest.

Applicable Authority

34. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(b) empowers the Court to approve procedures for the settlement of classes of controversy by a debtor-in-possession: "[a]fter a hearing . . . the court may fix a class or classes of controversies and authorize the trustee to compromise or settle controversies within such class or classes without further hearing or notice." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(b). The only requirement of the rule is that the proposed procedure be reasonable. In re Check Reporting Service, Inc., 137 B.R. 653 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 1992).

35. The Settlement Procedures are reasonable and appropriate based on the size of the Debtors' operations and the classes and amounts of disputes the Debtors seek authority to resolve. In addition, to ensure the protection of all parties, the Debtors will seek Court authority, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), to settle any claim of insiders and to settle any non-ordinary course claim with respect to which settlement is in a sum greater than $20 million and $10 million for prepetition and postpetition claims, respectively. "[S]ome transactions either by their size, nature or both are not within the day-to-day operations of a business and are therefore extraordinary." In re Dant & Russell, 853 F.2d 700, 705 (9th Cir. 1988) (quoting In re Waterfront Companies, 56 B.R. 31, 35 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1985)).

36. These streamlined Settlement Procedures will encourage resolution of these classes of controversy, thereby eliminating unnecessary expenditures of time and money with respect to these disputes. Courts in this circuit have recognized the general rule in bankruptcy cases and other litigation that settlement is the more appropriate method of resolving claims, because it preserves the resources of the judiciary. In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Purofied Down Products, 150 B.R. 519, 522 (S.D.N.Y. 1993); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 130 B.R. 910, 926 (S.D.N.Y. 1991); see also Thomas v. Fallon (In re Chicago Rapid Transit Co.), 196 F.2d 484, 490 (7th Cir. 1952) ("We fully realize the desirability of settling claims without resort to litigation in bankruptcy matters ... where any reasonable basis for compromise settlements appears they should be encouraged."). Similar procedures have been approved in this district. See In re WorldCom, Inc. et al., jointly administered under Case No. 02-13533 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 8, 2002).

37. To seek Court approval to resolve numerous discrete disputes that may arise in these classes of controversy would be unduly burdensome on the Court and an unnecessary drain on the time and other resources of the Debtors and their counsel. In a case of this size and complexity, the expense of seeking Court approval for every settlement might significantly reduce the benefits otherwise incident to many of these settlements. Thus, for the sake of both judicial efficiency and maximizing the Debtors' estates, implementation of the Settlement Procedures should be permitted.

Notice Of Motion

38. Notice of this Motion has been provided in accordance with the Seventh Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) And 105 And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(m), 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing Omnibus Hearing Dates And Certain Notice, Case Management, And Administrative Procedures, entered by this Court on May 19, 2006 (Docket No. 3824) ("Supplemental Case Management Order"). In addition, the Debtors have complied with the Supplemental Case Management Order with respect to the filing of this Motion and the need for expedited relief.⁷ In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is necessary.

Memorandum Of Law

39. Because the legal points and authorities upon which this Motion relies are incorporated herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the requirement of the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law under Local Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York be deemed satisfied.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order (i) authorizing the Debtors to compromise or settle certain classes of controversy and allow certain claims within those classes pursuant to the Settlement Procedures set forth in this Motion and (ii) grant the Debtors such other and further relief as is just.

ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. §§ 363, 502, AND 503 AND FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(b)
AUTHORIZING DEBTORS TO COMPROMISE OR SETTLE CERTAIN CLASSES OF CONTROVERSY AND ALLOW CLAIMS WITHOUT FURTHER COURT APPROVAL

("SETTLEMENT PROCEDURES ORDER")

Upon the motion, dated June 6, 2006 (Docket No. •) (the "Motion"), of Delphi Corporation and certain of its domestic subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), for an order (the "Settlement Procedures Order") authorizing the Debtors to compromise or settle certain classes of controversy, including, but not limited to, the allowance of claims within those classes, in these chapter 11 cases without further court approval; and upon the record of the hearing held on the Motion; and this Court having determined that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest; and it appearing that proper and adequate notice of the Motion has been given and that no other or further notice is necessary; and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Debtors are hereby authorized to utilize the Settlement Procedures (as defined below) to compromise or settle certain classes of controversy and allow certain claims within those classes.

2. The Debtors are hereby authorized, but not directed, to resolve non-ordinary course controversies, both prepetition and postpetition, without further court approval, provided that the final amount of the compromise or settlement of (a) (i) a prepetition secured or priority claim, (ii) an administrative expense priority claim, or (iii) other postpetition claim is equal to or less than $10,000,000, and (b) a general unsecured prepetition claim is equal to or less than $20,000,000, with respect to each such matter or related series of matters.

3. Resolution of the disputes within such classes shall subject to the following parameters:

- (a) For disputes related to general unsecured prepetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such general unsecured prepetition claims is the allowance of a general unsecured prepetition claim in a sum of $1 million or less, the compromise or settlement may be agreed upon and consummated without the need for further Court approval or further notice.
- (b) For disputes related to general unsecured prepetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such general unsecured prepetition claims is the allowance of a general unsecured prepetition claim in a sum greater than $1 million but less than or equal to $20 million, the Debtors shall give notice of the terms of the proposed settlement (the "Proposed Settlement Notice") to (i) the U.S. Trustee, (ii) counsel for the Creditors' Committee, (iii) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, and (iv) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' postpetition credit facility (collectively, the "Notice Parties").¹ The Proposed Settlement Notice shall be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.

- (c) For disputes related to either prepetition secured or priority claims, administrative expense priority claims, or other postpetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims is in a sum of $500,000 or less, the compromise or settlement may be agreed and consummated without need for further Court approval or further notice.
- (d) For disputes related to either prepetition secured or priority claims, administrative expense priority claims, or other postpetition claims with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims is in a sum greater than $500,000 but less than or equal to $10 million, the Debtors shall serve the Proposed Settlement Notice to the Notice Parties. The Proposed Settlement Notice shall be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.
- (e) For any disputes referenced in subparagraphs (a) and (c) above with respect to which the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that a reasonable compromise or settlement of such claims affects any claim asserted by the Debtors against a third party in excess of $1 million, the Debtors shall serve the Proposed Settlement Notice to the Notice Parties. The Proposed Settlement Notice shall be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery.
- (f) The Notice Parties shall have ten business days following initial receipt of the Proposed Settlement Notice to object to or request additional time to evaluate the proposed settlement. If counsel to the Debtors receive no written objection or written request for additional time prior to the expiration of such ten business day period, the Debtors shall be authorized to accept and consummate the proposed settlement.
- (g) If a Notice Party objects to the proposed settlement within ten business days after the Proposed Settlement Notice is received, the Debtors and such objecting Notice Party shall meet and confer in an attempt to negotiate a consensual resolution. Should either party determine that an impasse exists, then the Debtors shall not be authorized to consummate the proposed settlement without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

4. Settlement of any prepetition controversies in these categories resulting in monetary claims against the Debtors shall be resolved solely by the determination and allowance of a claim. The Debtors shall not pay any prepetition claims without a separate Court order.

5. Settlement of any postpetition controversies in these categories resulting in monetary claims against the Debtors may be resolved, where applicable, by the Debtors' payment of an administrative expense claim related to such settlement.

6. The Debtors shall provide periodic summary reporting to counsel for the Creditors' Committee of all settlements consummated pursuant to this Order. This periodic reporting shall include, with respect to each settlement consummated since the prior report to the Creditors' Committee, (i) the names of parties with whom the Debtors have reached settlement, (ii) the asserted amount of the settling party's claim, (iii) the amounts of and other consideration for such consummated settlement, and (iv) the particulars of each such consummated settlement that were considered by the Debtors in arriving at the decision to enter into such settlement. From and after the last day of the first full month after the date of entry of the proposed order, this periodic reporting shall take place quarterly, until confirmation of a plan of reorganization in these cases.

7. In addition, with respect to claims that the Debtors are in the process of negotiating, where compromise or settlement of such claims would fall within the scope of this Order, the financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee shall be entitled to receive periodic reports containing aggregate summary information without any individual creditor data. The periodic reporting described in this paragraph shall be in the format currently being shared between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and shall take place not less frequently than monthly until further order of this Court.

8. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, any settlement that involves an "insider," as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be effected only in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a).

9. This Order shall in no manner affect, impair, impede, or otherwise alter the right of the Debtors to resolve any controversy arising in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business or under any other order of the Court.

10. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation and performance of this Order.

11. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Motion.

MOTION FOR ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 362 AND FED. R. BANKR. P.
7016 AND 9019 APPROVING PROCEDURES FOR MODIFYING THE AUTOMATIC STAY TO ALLOW FOR (I) LIQUIDATING AND SETTLING AND/OR
(II) MEDIATING CERTAIN PREPETITION LITIGATION CLAIMS

("LIFT STAY PROCEDURES MOTION")

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (the "Affiliate Debtors"), debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submit this motion (the "Motion") for an order under 11 U.S.C. § 362 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7016 and 9019 establishing procedures for modifying the automatic stay applicable in these cases (the "Lift Stay Procedures"), to the extent necessary, for (i) liquidating and settling and/or (ii) mediating certain prepetition litigation claims. In support of the Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Background

A. The Chapter 11 Filings

1. On October 8 and 14, 2005, Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtor's chapter 11 cases.

2. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). On April 28, 2006, the U.S. Trustee appointed an official committee of equity security holders. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' cases.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 7016 and 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

B. Current Business Operations Of The Debtors

5. Delphi and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company") had global 2005 net sales of approximately $26.9 billion, and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion.¹ At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not chapter 11 debtors and continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court.

6. The Company is a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines, and is one of the largest global suppliers of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. The Company supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer.

7. Delphi was incorporated in Delaware in 1998 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of General Motors Corporation ("GM"). Prior to January 1, 1999, GM conducted the Company's business through various divisions and subsidiaries. Effective January 1, 1999, the assets and liabilities of these divisions and subsidiaries were transferred to the Company in accordance with the terms of a Master Separation Agreement between Delphi and GM. In connection with these transactions, Delphi accelerated its evolution from a North American-based, captive automotive supplier to a global supplier of components, integrated systems, and modules for a wide range of customers and applications. Although GM is still the Company's single largest customer, today more than half of Delphi's revenue is generated from non-GM sources.

C. Events Leading To The Chapter 11 Filing

8. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, the Company generated approximately $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, the Company has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, the Company reported a net loss of approximately $4.8 billion on $28.6 billion in net sales.² Reflective of a continued downturn in the marketplace, in 2005 Delphi incurred net losses of approximately $2.8 billion on net sales of $26.9 billion.

9. The Debtors believe that the Company's financial performance has deteriorated because of: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-profitable, non-core operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs, (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures, and (c) increasing commodity prices.

10. In light of these factors, the Company determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward-looking revenue requirements. Because discussions with its major unions and GM had not progressed sufficiently by the end of the third quarter of 2005, the Company commenced these chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value for its stakeholders.

D. The Debtors' Transformation Plan

11. On March 31, 2006, the Company outlined the key tenets of its transformation plan. The Company believes that this plan will enable it to return to stable, profitable business operations and allow the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases in the first half of 2007. To complete their restructuring process, the Debtors must focus on five key areas. First, Delphi must modify its labor agreements to create a competitive arena in which to conduct business. Second, the Debtors must conclude their negotiations with GM to finalize GM's financial support for the Debtors' legacy and labor costs and to ascertain GM's business commitment to the Company. Third, the Debtors must streamline their product portfolio to capitalize on their world-class technology and market strengths and make the necessary manufacturing alignment with their new focus. Fourth, the Debtors must transform their salaried workforce to ensure that the Company's organizational and cost structure is competitive and aligned with its product portfolio and manufacturing footprint. Finally, the Debtors must devise a workable solution to their current pension situation.

12. In connection with the first two elements of the Company's transformation plan, Delphi continues to participate in discussions with its unions and GM. Throughout those discussions, Delphi has consistently communicated a clear message to both its hourly workforce and GM: Delphi is committed to finding a consensual resolution to its issues and intends to continue to discuss with its unions and GM ways to become competitive in the Debtors' U.S. operations. To that end, Delphi, GM and the UAW recently received this Court's approval of a tripartite agreement providing for a special hourly attrition program for Delphi's UAW-represented employees (the "Hourly Attrition Program"). This special hourly attrition program could provide as many as 18,000 of Delphi's 23,000 existing UAW-represented long-term hourly employees with "soft landings" through retirement attrition programs and GM flowbacks. Delphi also hopes to reach agreement on similar hourly attrition programs with its other unions, which could provide as many as 4,500 additional hourly employees with retirement programs or incentives.

13. These hourly attrition programs constitute an important first step in implementing the Debtors' transformation plan, but will not resolve all of the issues related to Delphi's uncompetitive labor agreements. Moreover, Delphi has not yet reached comprehensive agreements with its unions and GM. Therefore, on March 31, 2006, Delphi moved under sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code for authority to reject its U.S. labor agreements and to modify retiree benefits.³ Contemporaneously therewith, the Debtors also moved to reject unprofitable supply contracts with GM.⁴ Among the reasons for the GM contract rejection motion was the Debtors' belief that GM must cover a greater portion of the costs of manufacturing products for GM at plants that bear the burden of the Debtors' legacy costs. This initial motion covers approximately half of the Debtors' North American annual purchase volume revenue from GM but only 10% of the Debtors' total contracts with GM. Although the filing of these motions was a necessary procedural step, the Debtors remain focused on reaching a consensual resolution with all of Delphi's unions and GM.

14. To implement the third element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company announced plans to focus its product portfolio on those core technologies for which the Company has significant competitive and technological advantages and expects the greatest opportunities for increased growth. To that end, the Company will concentrate the organization around the following core strategic product lines: (a) Controls & Security (Body Security, Mechatronics, Power Products, and Displays), (b) Electrical/Electronic Architecture (Electrical/Electronic Distribution Systems, Connection Systems, and Electrical Centers), (c) Entertainment & Communications (Audio, Navigation, and Telematics), (d) Powertrain (Diesel and Gas Engine Management Systems), (e) Safety (Occupant Protection and Safety Electronics), and (f) Thermal (Climate Control & Powertrain Cooling).⁵

15. In contrast, the Company similarly identified certain non-core product lines that do not fit into its future strategic framework, including Brake & Chassis Systems, Catalysts, Cockpits and Instrument Panels, Door Modules and Latches, Ride Dynamics, Steering, and Wheel Bearings. The Company will seek to sell or wind down these non-core product lines (which will include approximately one-third of its global manufacturing sites) and will consult with its customers, unions, and other stakeholders to carefully manage the transition of such affected product lines. The Company intends to sell or wind down the non-core product lines and manufacturing sites by January 1, 2008.

16. As part of its organizational restructuring, the fourth element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company expects to reduce its global salaried workforce by as many as 8,500 employees as a result of portfolio and product rationalizations and initiatives adopted following an analysis of the Company's selling, general, and administration ("SG&A") cost saving opportunities. The Company believes that once its SG&A plan is fully implemented, the Company should realize savings of approximately $450 million per year in addition to savings realized from competitive measures planned for its core businesses and the disposition of non-core assets.

17. As noted above, the final key tenet of the transformation plan is to devise a workable solution to the Debtors' current pension situation. The Debtors' goal is to retain the benefits accrued under the existing defined benefit U.S. pension plans for both the Debtors' hourly and salaried workforce. To do so, however, it will be necessary to freeze the current hourly U.S. pension plan as of October 1, 2006 and to freeze the current salaried U.S. pension plan as of January 1, 2007. Despite the freeze, because of the size of the funding deficit, it will also be necessary for the Debtors to obtain relief from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor, and potentially Congress, to amortize funding contributions over a long-term period. The Company intends to replace the hourly plan (for certain employees) and the salaried plan with defined contribution plans.

18. Upon the conclusion of the reorganization process, the Debtors expect to emerge as a stronger, more financially sound business with viable U.S. operations that are well-positioned to advance global enterprise objectives. In the meantime, Delphi will marshal all of its resources to continue to deliver high-quality products to its customers globally. Additionally, the Company will preserve and continue the strategic growth of its non-U.S. operations and maintain its prominence as the world's premier auto supplier.

Relief Requested

19. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order approving certain Lift Stay Procedures. The Lift Stay Procedures, as set forth below, are intended to promote cost-effective and timely liquidation and settlement of certain prepetition litigation claims. The Debtors submit that the Lift Stay Procedures are in the best interests of the certain prepetition litigation claimants, the Debtors, their estates, and all parties-in-interest.

Basis For Relief

A. The Claims Under The Insurance Program

20. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors maintained an insurance program for general liability, product, liability, and automobile liability claims (the "Insurance Program") with ACE American Insurance Company and its affiliates (collectively, the "Insurers").⁶ As of the Petition Date, approximately 101 claimants in 76 open files (the "Claimants") had asserted liability claims against the Debtors that fall within the scope of the Insurance Program (the "Claims"). The Claims can be broken into four general categories: automobile liability (25%), general liability (28%), product liability (39%), and emissions (8%). The Debtors anticipate that the aggregate amount of the Claims could exceed $6.3 million. There are only four claims, however, for which the Debtors have reserved $1 million or more.

21. Before the Debtors sought reorganization relief, approximately 52 of these Claimants had already commenced litigation asserting liability for the Claims against the Debtors. Upon the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, however, all lawsuits and any other efforts or actions by the Claimants to collect or recover on the Claims vis-a-vis the Debtors were stayed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Thus, dozens of asserted Claims remain contingent, disputed, and/or unliquidated. In many cases, the Debtors believe that they have no liability on these claims or dispute the asserted amounts of such claims. Consequently, the Debtors expect to file objections to a majority of the Claims to contest the validity and/or amount of such claims. Additionally, most of the Claimants seek relatively small amounts. The Debtors estimate that approximately 91% of all Claims will be allowed in amounts less than $100,000.

⁶ Although the Insurance Program also covers workers' compensation claims, the Debtors do not seek to apply the Lift Stay Procedures to workers' compensation claims because the Debtors continue to respond to those claims in the ordinary course of business and pursuant to the authority granted by this Court in the order authorizing the Debtors to pay prepetition benefits and continue maintenance of human capital benefit programs in the ordinary course (Docket No. 198).

22. One of the agreements in the Insurance Program is a Multi-Line Deductible Program Agreement, effective as of October 1, 2000, by and between an Insurer and Delphi (formerly known as Delphi Automotive Systems Corporation) and all amendments and addenda thereto (collectively, the "Multi-Line Deductible Program Agreement"). As previously disclosed in other filings before this Court, Article I of the Multi-Line Deductible Program Agreement requires the Debtors to pay the Insurers "all amounts the Insured is or may be obligated to pay to other parties but which are paid by the [Insurers]." (A copy of the Multi-Line Deductible Program Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A.) Under the various liability policies in the Insurance Program, the Debtors have deductible limits, depending on the date and nature of the claim, ranging from $1 million to $5 million. Therefore, the Debtors are obligated to pay any portion of a claim that falls within the applicable deductible limit.

23. On January 9, 2006, this Court authorized the Debtors to assume the various insurance agreements under which this obligation arises. Subsequently, the Debtors assumed these agreements. Thus, if the Debtors' Insurers make any payments directly to the Claimants, the Debtors' Insurers would have administrative expense priority claims for any such payments that are within the applicable deductible amount.⁷ Accordingly, despite the existence of insurance coverage, the Claimants' prosecution of the Claims could directly and significantly affect the Debtors' estate.

⁷ It should be noted that even if the Debtors did not assume these insurance agreements, the insurers, after paying the Claimants amounts within the applicable deductible, would have the right under the insurance agreements to draw down on the letter of credit that was issued under the Debtors' prepetition security facility. This would in turn increase the amount of funded debt owed to prepetition lenders. Thus, even if the Debtors did not assume the insurance agreements, any Claim paid by the Debtors' insurers would affect the Debtors' estate.

B. Third-Party Indemnity

24. The Debtors do not believe that the relief requested in this Motion violates the terms of any insurance policies under the Insurance Program. Moreover, the Debtors have given to the Insurers notice of this Motion and an opportunity to comment or object to the procedures requested herein.

25. In some instances, the Debtors may also be entitled under certain agreements or applicable non-bankruptcy law to be indemnified from other third parties (collectively with the Insurers, the "Third Party Indemnitors"). To the extent that the Debtors are or may be entitled to indemnity for a particular Claim from a Third Party Indemnitor, the Debtors seek authority to invite such Third Party Indemnitor to participate in the liquidation of the Claim. The Debtors seek confirmation that they have no obligation vis a vis the Claimants to take any such action, however.

C. Proposed Lift Stay Procedures

26. The underlying rationale for the Lift Stay Procedures is the practical fact that most Claims are settled prior to trial, but only after each side has had an opportunity to analyze the merits of its and its opponent's case. Each Claimant which chooses to participate in the Lift Stay Procedures will be permitted to analyze, present, and document the alleged Claim in an informal, inexpensive way that could result in a large percentage of such Claims being resolved without the need of further litigation.

27. The Lift Stay Procedures may thus lead to cost-effective settlement and liquidation of many Claims, without the administrative expense of multi-forum, full trial litigation. For those Claimants who still want to present their claims before a jury, this Procedure would not infringe on any right to a trial by jury.

28. The proposed terms of the Lift Stay Procedures are as follows:

(a) Eligibility. Only Claimants who file timely proofs of claim by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on July 31, 2006 (the "Bar Date"), and in accordance with the order establishing bar dates for filing proofs of claim (Docket No. 3206) would be eligible to participate in the Lift Stay Procedures. Nothing in the Lift Stay Procedures is intended to obviate the need for any Claimant to file a proof of claim prior to the Bar Date.

(b) Informal Negotiations. Following the Bar Date, the Debtors (or an agent of the Debtors) would begin to contact certain Claimants by telephone in an effort to settle such Claims informally, in each case after appropriate consultation and consent by the Third Party Indemnitor, if applicable. If the Debtors do not have sufficient information to evaluate certain Claims, the Debtors might informally request additional information from the Claimants. Although the Claimants would be under no obligation to provide such information, the Debtors would not seek to resolve claims for which they have insufficient information. If the Claimants would like to provide additional information to the Debtors, the Claimants could do so at any time. Unless otherwise requested by the Debtors, the Lift Stay Procedures would provide that any additional information related to a Claimant's Claim should be sent to both:

(c) Mediation. If a settlement were not reached through informal negotiations, the parties could seek to mediate the Claims. Neither the Debtors nor any Claimant would be obligated to mediate the Claims. The apportionment of cost of the mediations and the location of any such mediations would be determined by the parties to the mediation on a case-by-case basis. The Debtors request that this Court authorize, but not direct, the Debtors to lift the automatic stay to mediate certain Claims.

(d) Release Of Insurers. As a condition precedent to settling any Claims, the Debtors would require that the Claimant release the Debtors' Insurers from all amounts the Debtors are or might be obligated to pay to other parties under the Multi-Line Deductible Program Agreement. By executing such a release, the Claimants would be precluded from seeking payment from the Debtors' Insurers for the portion of their Claims that fall within the applicable deductible. Instead, if a settlement were reached in accordance with the Lift Stay Procedures, then the Claimant would hold an allowed prepetition general unsecured non-priority claim against the applicable Debtor in an amount equal to the settlement and would receive a distribution in respect thereof in accordance with a confirmed plan of reorganization.

(e) Insurers. Nothing in the Lift Stay Procedures would be construed to alter the rights or obligations or any Insurer of the Debtors, except to the extent that a Claimant releases the Insurer from certain liability as described in subparagraph (d) above. In all instances in which an Insurer has a right to receive notice, participate in the resolution of a Claim, or decide upon or approve the resolution of a Claim, that right would be preserved. Nothing in the Lift Stay Procedures would be construed to authorize the Debtors to act on behalf of or as an agent for any Insurer of the Debtors.

D. The Proposed Lift Stay Procedures Are Fair To Claimants

29. The Lift Stay Procedures will treat the Claimants fairly. The Lift Stay Procedures are a non-judicial procedure for liquidating Claims more quickly than full trial litigation in state, federal, or bankruptcy court. The parties will have sufficient opportunity to reach a consensual settlement through direct negotiation and/or alternative dispute resolution.

The implementation of the Lift Stay Procedures does not abridge a Claimant's substantive rights in any way.

30. Further, there is no requirement that a Claimant settle its Claim pursuant to the Lift Stay Procedures. From the Debtors' perspective, the Lift Stay Procedures provide the Debtors with an opportunity to reduce the impact that the Claims may have on the Debtors' estate. Additionally, the Procedures minimize the time and expense that all relevant parties would otherwise take to resolve the Claims in the ordinary course of business.

31. As for the benefits to the Claimants, the Lift Stay Procedures provide the Claimants the opportunity to monetize their claims promptly. Because of the impact that the Claims can have on the Debtors' estate, except for rare circumstances, the Debtors intend to vigorously object to any Claimant's request to seek relief from the automatic stay to proceed with litigation in another forum. Given this posture, and unless this Court rules otherwise, the Claimants may not be permitted to proceed with litigation and liquidate their Claims until after the Debtors have successfully reorganized, which the Debtors currently anticipate occurring in mid-2007. The Debtors believe that the Lift Stay Procedures are attractive because they allow for the rapid liquidation of a Claimant's Claim.

32. Finally, the Lift Stay Procedures ultimately provide that the Claimants will retain whatever rights they have to liquidate their Claims through litigation in an alternative forum and tribunal if the parties cannot resolve the Claim by the less expensive and less time-consuming process of direct negotiation and/or alternative dispute resolution. Thus, the Lift Stay Procedures ultimately protect the Claimants' rights, if any, under section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(5) to have Claims involving personal injuries heard outside this Court.

E. Settlement Authority And Court Approval

33. At any time during the administration of the Lift Stay Procedures, even during litigation, the Debtors (and the Third Party Indemnitor, if applicable) would have the authority to agree to a settlement with an eligible Claimant, subject to the provisions in paragraph 34 below, if the Debtors deem it advisable to do so.

34. The Debtors request authority to settle Claims in accordance with the following terms:

(i) In settlement of a Claim, Bankruptcy Court approval would not be required for the allowance of any Claim as a prepetition general unsecured non-priority claim in an amount equal to or less than $500,000, and the Debtors (and the Third Party Indemnitor, if applicable) could settle and allow any such Claim without notice or hearing;

(ii) In settlement of a Claim in a sum greater than $500,000 but less than or equal to $20,000,000, the Debtors would give notice of the terms of the proposed settlement (the "Proposed Settlement Notice") to counsel to the Creditors' Committee, the agent for the Debtors' prepetition financing facility (the "Prepetition Lenders' Agent"), the agent for the Debtors' postpetition financing facility (the "DIP Facility Agent"), and the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Proposed Settlement Notice would be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery. The Notice Parties would have ten business days following initial receipt of the Proposed Settlement Notice to object to or request additional time to evaluate the proposed settlement. If counsel to the Debtors received no written objection or written request for additional time prior to the expiration of such ten business day period, the Debtors would be authorized to accept and consummate the proposed settlement.⁸

(iii) If a Notice Party were to object to the proposed settlement within ten business days after the Proposed Settlement Notice was received, the Debtors and such objecting Notice Party would meet and confer in an attempt to negotiate a consensual resolution. Should either party determine that court intervention was necessary, then the Debtors would seek authority to approve the proposed settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a).

The settling Claimant would be deemed to hold an allowed prepetition general unsecured non-priority claim against the applicable Debtor in the settled amount, to receive a distribution in accordance with the confirmed plan(s) of reorganization in these chapter 11 cases. The authority requested in this paragraph would streamline the Lift Stay Procedures and reduce the administrative burdens on the Debtors' estates as well as the Court when the sums at issue are not great enough to prejudice any parties-in-interest.

35. The Debtors would provide the Creditors' Committee periodic summary reporting, commencing 120 days after the Bar Date, and quarterly thereafter, until confirmation of a plan of reorganization. This periodic reporting would include, with respect to each Claim resolved since the prior report, (i) the names of the Claimants with whom the Debtors have reached settlement under the Lift Stay Procedures, (ii) the asserted amount of each Claimant's Claim, (iii) the amounts of and other consideration for such consummated settlement, and (iv) a general description of the particulars underlying the Claimant's Claim.

36. In addition, with respect to Claims that the Debtors are in the process of negotiating, where compromise or settlement of such Claims would fall within the scope of this Motion, the financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee would be entitled to receive periodic reports containing aggregate summary information without any individual Claimant data. The periodic reporting described in this paragraph would be in the format currently being shared between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and would take place not less frequently than monthly until further order of this Court.

F. Stay Relief

37. To implement a meaningful Lift Stay Procedures, the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code should remain in effect against commencement or continuation of all prepetition Claims asserted against the Debtors, except to the extent that the Claimants are required to comply with the Lift Stay Procedures. Nothing in the Lift Stay Procedures, however, is intended to alter the showing that a Claimant must establish to seek relief from the automatic stay for any purpose, including, but not limited to, the continued prosecution of the Claimant's Claim in an alternative forum. If a Claimant cannot resolve its Claim in the Lift Stay Procedures and wishes to proceed with litigation in an alternative forum, it would be required to move this Court for relief from the automatic stay.⁹ The goal of the Lift Stay Procedures is to provide Claimants with a cost-effective mechanism for liquidating their Claims. The Debtors are hopeful that many Claimants will seek to engage in the Lift Stay Procedures.

Applicable Authority

38. Authority for adopting the Lift Stay Procedures can be found in the Bankruptcy Rules and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Bankruptcy Rule 7016 incorporates Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 by reference. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7016. Furthermore, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014, "[t]he court may at any stage in a particular matter direct that one or more of the other rules in Part VII shall apply." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014(c). Accordingly, the court may and should direct that Bankruptcy Rule 7016 applies to this Motion.

39. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(a), among other things, gives the Court discretion to direct parties and their attorneys to appear at conferences to expedite disposition of the action and to facilitate settlement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(c)(12) authorizes the use of special procedures "for managing potentially difficult or protracted actions that may involve complex issues, multiple parties, difficult legal questions, or unusual proof problems." Lift Stay Procedures, or other similar settlement procedures, have been approved in other large, complex chapter 11 cases. See In re WorldCom, Inc., et al., jointly administered under Case No. 02-13533 (Bankr.

⁹ The Debtors reserve all rights to object to any motion for relief from the automatic stay filed by any Claimant, regardless of whether the Claimant participates in the Lift Stay Procedures.

Aug. 25, 1999); In re FPA Medical Management, Inc., et al., jointly administered under Case No. 98-1596 (PJW) (Bankr. D. Del. 1998).

40. The settlement authority requested herein is expressly authorized by Bankruptcy Rule 9019(b), which provides in pertinent part: "the court may fix a class or classes of controversies and authorize the trustee to compromise and settle controversies within such class or classes without further hearing or notice." The settlement parameters are reasonable and well within the Debtors' business judgment. The settlement authority requested herein in conjunction with the Lift Stay Procedures is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and should therefore be approved. See generally In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Purofied Down Products, 150 B.R. 519, 522 (S.D.N.Y. 1993); In re Marvel Entertainment Group, Inc., 222 B.R. 243 (D. Del. 1998); In re Energy Coop., Inc., 886 F.2d 921, 927-29 (7th Cir. 1989).

41. Indeed, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(b) precisely contemplates the relief requested herein. Compromises are tools for expediting the administration of the case and reducing administrative costs and are favored in bankruptcy. See In re Martin, 91 F.3d 389, 393 (3d Cir. 1996) ("To minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy case, '[c]ompromises are favored in bankruptcy.'" (quoting 9 Colliers, Bankruptcy ¶ 9019.03[1] (15th rev. ed. 1993))). Various courts have endorsed the use of Bankruptcy Rule 9019(b) in a similar manner. See, e.g., In re Check Reporting Service, Inc., 137 B.R. 653 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 1992); Bartel v. Bar Harbour Airways, Inc., 196 B.R. 268 (S.D.N.Y. 1996); In re Foundation for New Era Philanthropy, Case No. 95-13729B, 1996 Bankr. Lexis 1892 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. August 21, 1996).

42. The standards by which a court should evaluate a settlement are well established. In addition to considering the proposed terms of the settlement, the Court should consider the following factors:

- (a) the probability of success in litigation;
- (b) the difficulties, if any, in collection matters;
- (c) the complexity of the litigation and the attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; and
- (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views.

See Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-425 (1968).

43. The decision to approve a settlement is within the discretion of the Court and is warranted when the settlement is found to be reasonable and fair in light of the particular circumstances of the case. See TMT Trailer Ferry, 390 U.S. at 424-25. The settlement need not be the best that the debtor could have achieved, but need only fall "within the reasonable range of litigation possibilities." See id.; see also In re Penn Central Transp. Co., 596 F.2d 1102, 1114 (3d Cir. 1979). A proposed settlement will fail the test only if it falls beneath the lowest possible point in the range of reasonableness. See Energy Coop., 886 F.2d at 929; In re Trism, 286 B.R. 744, 748 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2002).

44. Providing the Debtors with authority to compromise and settle the Claims in accordance with the Lift Stay Procedures is reasonable. It will allow expedited and cost-efficient determination of the Claims of modest size in the context of this case. Moreover, the proposed settlement procedures will eliminate the unnecessary diversion of judicial and administrative resources that would occur were the Debtors required to separately seek approval of each settlement of a Claim.

45. The Debtors believe that the Lift Stay Procedures will assist them in reducing costs and maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates. Granting authority to settle Claims as set forth herein without further motion, notice, or order will likely significantly reduce associated administrative expenses and help the Debtors and the Claimants reduce the delay and uncertainty of the more traditional means of seeking relief from the automatic stay. Moreover, the authority requested provides incentive to the Claimants to work with the Debtors to reconcile, settle, or compromise the Claims. Accordingly, the proposed procedures are in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and should be approved.

by and between
Pacific Employers Insurance Company

(hereinafter the "Company")

and

Delphi Automotive Systems Corporation,
(hereinafter the "Insured")

WHEREAS, the Insured is the Named Insured under the policy(ies) of General Liability, Automobile Liability, and/or Workers' Compensation insurance listed on the respective Addenda hereto (including Addenda that may be added after the effective date hereof) issued by the Company (which together with all extensions thereof and endorsements thereto, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Policies" or as the "General Liability Policies," "Automobile Liability Policies," and "Workers' Compensation Policies," respectively), which Policies each include a Deductible Endorsement; and

WHEREAS, the Company is willing to issue such Policies only if the Insured provides collateral security to the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company has entered and may in the future enter into one or more contracts with the Insured's preferred claims administrator (hereinafter, the "Claims Adjusting Service") to provide claims adjusting and related services for claims arising under the Policies;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Policies, the Company and the Insured agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

INSURED'S PAYMENTS

The Insured agrees to pay or reimburse the Company for:

- a) all premiums payable to the Company under the Policies, including audit of the Policies and any recalculation of premium as provided therein, as described in greater detail in the respective Addenda hereto;
- b) Paid Loss Deposit Funds as provided in Article III of this Agreement;
- c) all other amounts the Insured is or may in the future be required to pay or reimburse to the Company in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Policies or this Agreement, including without limitation the Insured's share of Paid Losses and Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense;

and to provide collateral to the Company to secure the Insured's Obligation as provided herein.

The Company will bill the Insured monthly for Company Expenses and any amounts described above in b), c) or d), which are payable or reimbursable to the Company pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Policies. The Company will also bill the Insured for any amounts described above which are payable or reimbursable to the Company pursuant to the General Liability Policies and Automobile Liability Policies if and when such payment obligations arise. Insured's payment of each such bill shall be due and payable no later than the Required Payment Date. If the Insured does not pay an amount billed by the Required Payment Date,

- (i) the Company shall have the right to bill the Insured for, and to collect, the Interest Charge applied to any such unpaid amount; and
- (ii) the Company shall have the right to increase the amount of any Paid Loss Deposit Fund to an amount determined by the Company, which amount may exceed the required amount as specified in Article III of this Agreement.

All payments made by the Insured under this Agreement and the Policies shall be allocated first to collateral security, then to other amounts owed to the Company other than premiums, then finally to premiums for the Policies, regardless of the designation of the payment.

All terms and conditions of each Addendum hereto are a part of this Agreement and are here incorporated by reference in their entirety.

The Insured and the Company agree that this Agreement is not intended to, and does not, amend or alter any of the terms and conditions of any of the Policies. In the event of any inconsistencies between this Agreement and any Policy, the terms and conditions of the Policy shall control.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

"Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense" shall mean such claim expenses, costs and any interest incurred in connection with the investigation, administration, adjustment, settlement or defense of any claim or lawsuit that the Company, under its accounting practices, directly allocates to a particular claim, whether or not a payment indemnifying the claimant(s) is made. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, subrogation, all court costs, fees and expenses; fees for service of process; fees and expenses to attorneys for legal services; the cost of services of undercover operations and detectives; fees to obtain medical cost containment services; the cost of employing experts for the purpose of preparing maps, photographs, diagrams, and chemical or physical analysis, or for expert advice or opinion; the cost of obtaining copies of any public records; and the cost of depositions and court reporters or recorded statements, provided, however, that Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense shall not include the salaries and traveling expenses of the Company's employees (except for amounts allocated to a specific claim by any of the Company's Field Litigation Offices or Legal Services Offices), or the Company's overhead and adjusters' fees.

"Claim Administration Expense" shall mean the amounts the Company and the Claims Adjusting Service determine are needed to cover expenses of administering claims under the Policies.

"Company Expenses" shall mean that amount the Company determines it needs to cover its expenses to administer the Insured's casualty insurance program pursuant to the Policies, including but not limited to the following:

- a. general and administrative expense;
- b. insurance charges;
- c. premium taxes;
- d. variable expenses, including but not limited to residual market assessments, boards and bureaus, non-subject state surcharges and assessments and other related fees; and
- e. other services provided by the Company.

"Deductible Premium" shall mean the premium after the application of the deductible credit factor, as shown on the Workers' Compensation Deductible Policies.

"Insured's Obligation" shall mean all amounts the Insured is or may in the future be required to pay or to reimburse to the Company pursuant to this Agreement or the Policies. The amount of the Insured's Obligation shall be calculated by the Company based on Ultimate Losses.

"Interest Charge" shall mean the amount of interest for which the Insured is liable to the Company, payable at the monthly rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) (or, if such rate is impermissible under applicable law, the maximum lawful, non-usurious rate that may be charged) on any amount payable by the Insured to the Company under this Agreement, but not paid by the Insured by the Required Payment Date, said charge to commence on the day next following the Required Payment Date for any such unpaid amount.

"Paid Losses" shall mean all amounts paid for losses (exclusive of Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense) under the Policies; provided, however, that the amount payable or reimbursable by the Insured for each Paid Loss shall be subject to the amount of the deductible as provided in the respective Policies.

"Required Payment Date" shall mean a date not later than ten (10) calendar days after the date of the Company's invoice for any amount billed by the Company to the Insured under this Agreement.

"Ultimate Losses" shall mean losses incurred under the Policies within the respective deductibles plus future loss development and the amount of losses incurred but not reported, as estimated by the Company. Ultimate Losses may include Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense as estimated by the Company.

ARTICLE III

PAID LOSS DEPOSIT FUND

As of the effective date of this Agreement, and of each Addendum hereto, the Insured will be required to pay the Company, on or before the Required Payment Date therefor, the amount specified as "Initial Paid Loss Deposit Fund" in each respective Addendum. Such payments will establish and initially fund, for the Policies listed on each of the respective Addenda, a Paid Loss Deposit Fund. Each of such "Initial Paid Loss Deposit Fund" amounts shall represent the Company's estimate of the average amount the Company will pay under the Policies listed on the respective Addenda during a sixty (60) day period for the amount of the Insured's share of (a) Paid Losses (b) Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense, and (c) Claim Administration Expense.

In the event of any single payment of a large Paid Loss and/or Allocated Loss Adjustment Expense under any Policy in an amount equal to or greater than the amount specified as "Single Payment of Paid Loss and/or Allocated Loss Expense" on the Addendum on which such Policy is listed, the Company shall have the right to require the Insured to pay immediately the amount of such single payment into the Paid Loss Deposit Fund.

The Company may from time to time recalculate the required amount of any Paid Loss Deposit Fund, based upon the Company's revised estimate of the average of the amounts it will pay as described above, and require the Insured to adjust the amount of such Paid Loss Deposit Fund accordingly, provided, that the minimum required amount of each Paid Loss Deposit Fund shall be $1,000.

ARTICLE IV

SECURITY FOR INSURED'S OBLIGATION

As security for payment of the Insured's Obligation under this Agreement, the Insured will provide to the Company, as beneficiary thereof, a clean irrevocable evergreen letter of credit (hereinafter, the "LOC") issued by a bank or other financial institution, and in an amount and form, acceptable to the Company; and/or such other forms of collateral as the Insured and the Company may agree in writing from time to time.

The Insured will continue to provide the Company with an LOC (and/or other collateral) as security for payment of the Insured's Obligation, until the Company determines that there is no longer any need for security. If there shall be a material deterioration in the financial condition of the bank or other financial institution which has issued the LOC, the Company shall have the right to require the Insured to replace the LOC with a new LOC issued by a bank or other financial institution then acceptable to the Company.

The Company shall have the right to draw against the LOC and/or other collateral in each instance where the Insured's Obligation, or any portion thereof, for any reason is not fulfilled.

Not less than thirty days prior to any termination or expiration of the LOC, the Insured will deliver to the Company a replacement LOC in an amount and form acceptable to the Company, issued by a bank or other financial institution acceptable to the Company.

Annually, the Company shall review and redetermine the amount of the Insured's Obligation and the amount of collateral security required pursuant to this article. At such time, the Insured will provide audited financial statements, interim financial statements, and any other financial information requested by the Company for the purpose of evaluating the financial condition of the Insured. The Insured will provide any needed increases in the amount of the LOC (and/or other collateral if acceptable to the Company) within thirty days of the Company's request for any additional required amount of the LOC. The Company will effect any decreases in the amount of the LOC (and/or other collateral) promptly, provided that the Insured is not in breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement or any of the Policies.

If the Insured fails to provide the Company with a replacement LOC or to provide the Company with any additional required amount of the LOC (and/or other collateral if acceptable to the Company), the Company will have the right to draw the full amount of the existing LOC and/or other collateral. The Insured recognizes that the Company may continue to require collateral as security for the payment of the Insured's Obligation after any cancellation, non-renewal, conversion or replacement of the Policies.

The Insured agrees that the Company shall have no obligation to remit to the Insured or to apply in reduction of the Insured's Obligation any increase or profits (including without limitation any interest or money) received by the Company from the proceeds of any LOC or from any other collateral provided by the Insured.

The Insured and the Company agree that nothing in this Agreement will constitute or be construed as a waiver of any rights the Company may have in each instance in which the Insured's Obligation for any reason is not fulfilled.

ARTICLE V

CANCELLATION/TERMINATION OF THE POLICIES

Cancellation of the Policies or any Policy by either the Insured or the Company will not terminate this Agreement. The parties' rights, duties and obligations under this Agreement will continue after any cancellation, non-renewal or replacement of the Policies.

This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until the Company and the Insured mutually agree that it shall terminate.

DIVIDEND CONSIDERATION

The Board of Directors for one or more of the companies that are parties to this Agreement may declare dividends in accordance with the provisions for participating companies on some of the policies under this agreement. The applicability of any and all dividends will be described in greater detail in the respective Addendum hereto.

ARTICLE VI

1. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. No amendments or modification of this Agreement shall have any force or effect unless in writing and signed by the parties hereto.
2. Successors and Assigns. All the terms of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not; provided, however, that no party hereto shall assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto.
3. Severability. Any provision hereof which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or enforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions and without affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

4. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which together shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

5. Arbitration. Any controversy, dispute, claim or question arising out of or relating to this Agreement, including without limitation its interpretation, performance or non-performance by any party, or any breach thereof (hereinafter, collectively, "Controversy") shall be referred to and resolved exclusively by three arbitrators through private, confidential arbitration conducted in Philadelphia, PA. Such arbitrators shall be disinterested, neutral individuals who have experience and qualifications in the subject matter of the Controversy. One arbitrator shall be chosen by each party and the third by the two so chosen. If either party refuses or neglects to appoint an arbitrator within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the other party requesting it to do so, the requesting party may choose a total of two arbitrators who shall choose the third. If the arbitrators fail to select the third arbitrator within ten (10) days after both have been named, each arbitrator shall name three candidates, of whom the other shall decline two, and the decision shall be made by drawing lots. In the event of the death, disability or incapacity of any arbitrator, a replacement shall be named pursuant to the process, which resulted in the selection of the arbitrator to be replaced. The arbitrators may abstain from following the strict rules of law, and shall make their decision with regard to the custom and usage of the insurance business as at the effective date of this Agreement. The majority decision of the panel shall be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement. Judgment may be entered upon the award of the arbitrators in any court of competent jurisdiction. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this paragraph, the arbitration of any controversy shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Multi-Line Deductible Agreement has been executed by the parties hereto, to be effective on the date first written above.

ORDER APPROVING PROCEDURES FOR MODIFYING AUTOMATIC STAY
UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 362 TO ALLOW FOR (I) LIQUIDATION AND SETTling
AND/OR (II) MEDIATION OF CERTAIN PREPETITION LITIGATION CLAIMS

("LIFT STAY PROCEDURES ORDER")

Upon the motion, dated June 6, 2006 (Docket No. •), of Delphi Corporation and certain of its domestic subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), for an order under 11 U.S.C. § 362 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7016 and 9019 establishing procedures (the "Lift Stay Procedures") for modifying the automatic stay applicable in these cases (the "Motion"), to the extent necessary, for (i) liquidating and settling and/or (ii) mediating certain prepetition litigation claims; and upon the record of the hearing held on the Motion; and this Court having determined that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest; and it appearing that proper and adequate notice of the Motion has been given and that no other or further notice is necessary; and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Debtors are hereby authorized to utilize the Lift Stay Procedures to liquidate and settle the Claims.¹
2. The Lift Stay Procedures, as described in the Motion, are approved in all respects. The automatic stay applicable to these cases pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362 is hereby modified to the extent necessary for the Debtors to implement and administer the Lift Stay Procedures.
3. The Debtors, in their discretion, are authorized to settle Claims in the manner described and contemplated by the Motion. The Debtors are hereby authorized to settle Claims in accordance with the following terms:
 - (a) In settlement of a Claim, Bankruptcy Court approval shall not be required for the allowance of any Claim as a prepetition general unsecured non-priority claim in an amount equal to or less than $500,000, and the Debtors (and their insurer or other third party required to indemnify the Debtors (collectively, the "Third Party Indemnitors"), if applicable) may settle and allow any such Claim equal to or less than such amount without further notice or hearing;
 - (b) In settlement of a Claim in a sum greater than $500,000 but less than or equal to $20,000,000, the Debtors shall give notice of the terms of the proposed settlement (the "Proposed Settlement Notice") to counsel to the Creditors' Committee, the agent for the Debtors' prepetition financing facility (the "Prepetition Lenders' Agent"), the agent for the Debtors' postpetition financing facility (the "DIP Facility Agent"), and the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Proposed Settlement Notice may be served by e-mail (except the U.S. Trustee), facsimile, overnight delivery, or hand delivery. The Notice Parties shall have ten business days following initial receipt of the Proposed Settlement Notice to object to or request additional time to evaluate the proposed settlement. If counsel to the Debtors receive no written objection or written request for additional time prior to the expiration of such ten business day period, the Debtors shall be authorized to accept and consummate the proposed settlement. The Debtors shall seek court approval when they seek to settle any Claim for an amount in excess of $20,000,000.
 - (c) If a Notice Party objects to the proposed settlement within ten business days after the Proposed Settlement Notice is received, the Debtors and such objecting Notice Party shall meet and confer in an attempt to negotiate a consensual resolution. Should either party determine that court intervention is necessary, then the Debtors shall seek authority to approve the proposed settlement pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a).

4. The Debtors shall provide the Creditors' Committee periodic summary reporting, commencing 120 days after the Bar Date, and quarterly thereafter, until confirmation of a plan of reorganization in these cases. This periodic reporting shall include, with respect to each Claim resolved since the prior report, (i) the names of the Claimants with whom the Debtors have reached settlement under the Lift Stay Procedures, (ii) the asserted amount of each Claimant's Claim, (iii) the amounts of and other consideration for such consummated settlement, and (iv) a general description of the particulars underlying the Claimant's Claim.

5. In addition, with respect to Claims that the Debtors are in the process of negotiating, where compromise or settlement of such Claims would fall within the scope of this Order, the financial advisors to the Creditors' Committee shall be entitled to receive periodic reports containing aggregate summary information without any individual Claimant data. The periodic reporting described in this paragraph shall be in the format currently being shared between the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee and shall take place not less frequently than monthly until further order of this Court.

6. Nothing in this Order is intended to, nor shall this Order be deemed to, alter any requirements under the Insurance Program or to limit or otherwise prejudice any Third Party Indemnitor's rights or defenses, all of which are expressly reserved. Moreover, the implementation of the Lift Stay Procedures by the Debtors shall not be deemed a breach of any agreement under the Insurance Program or agreement with any Third Party Indemnitor. In accordance with the terms of the Insurance Program or the agreement with a Third Party Indemnitor, and if required with respect to any aspect of the Lift Stay Procedures, the Debtors shall not liquidate or settle any claim that involves a Third Party Indemnitor, without notice to the Third Party Indemnitor, without providing an opportunity for such Third Party Indemnitor to be involved in the settlement discussions and providing the Third Party Indemnitor an opportunity to approve such settlement.

7. Nothing in this Order is intended to, nor shall this Order be deemed to, obviate the need for any Claimant to file a proof of claim prior to the Bar Date.

8. This Order shall survive and remain in full force and effect notwithstanding any of the dismissal, conversion, appointment of a trustee, or confirmation of a plan of or in these chapter 11 cases.

9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation and performance of this Order.

10. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Motion.

Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (the "Affiliate Debtors"), debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby submit this motion (the "Motion") for orders under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and 365 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014 approving (i) the bidding procedures set forth herein and attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Bidding Procedures"), (ii) the granting of certain bid protections, (iii) the form and manner of sale notices (the "Notice Procedures"), and (iv) the setting of a sale hearing (the "Sale Hearing") and (b) authorizing and approving (i) the sale (the "Sale") of certain of the Debtors' assets (the "Acquired Assets") comprising substantially all of the assets of MobileAria, Inc. ("MobileAria") for $6.5 million and other consideration, free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances to Wireless Matrix USA, Inc. (the "Purchaser") pursuant to the Asset Sale and Purchase Agreement dated June 6, 2006 by and between MobileAria and the Purchaser (the "Agreement")¹ or to the Successful Bidder (as hereinafter defined) submitting a higher or otherwise better bid, (ii) the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumed Contracts") to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder, and (iii) the assumption of certain liabilities (the "Assumed Liabilities") by the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder. In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Background

A. The Chapter 11 Filings

1. On October 8 and 14, 2005, Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates, including MobileAria, filed voluntary petitions in this Court for reorganization relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Debtor's chapter 11 cases.

2. On October 17, 2005, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). On April 28, 2006, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of equity security holders (the "Equityholders' Committee"). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Debtors' cases.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

B. Current Business Operations Of The Debtors

5. Delphi and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Company") had global 2005 net sales of approximately $26.9 billion, and global assets as of August 31, 2005 of approximately $17.1 billion.² At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Delphi ranked as the fifth largest public company business reorganization in terms of revenues, and the thirteenth largest public company business reorganization in terms of assets. Delphi's non-U.S. subsidiaries are not chapter 11 debtors and continue their business operations without supervision from the Bankruptcy Court.

6. The Company is a leading global technology innovator with significant engineering resources and technical competencies in a variety of disciplines, and is one of the largest global suppliers of vehicle electronics, transportation components, integrated systems and modules, and other electronic technology. The Company supplies products to nearly every major global automotive original equipment manufacturer.

7. Delphi was incorporated in Delaware in 1998 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of GM. Prior to January 1, 1999, GM conducted the Company's business through various divisions and subsidiaries. Effective January 1, 1999, the assets and liabilities of these divisions and subsidiaries were transferred to the Company in accordance with the terms of a Master Separation Agreement between Delphi and GM. In connection with these transactions, Delphi accelerated its evolution from a North American-based, captive automotive supplier to a global supplier of components, integrated systems, and modules for a wide range of customers and applications. Although GM is still the Company's single largest customer, today more than half of Delphi's revenue is generated from non-GM sources.

C. Events Leading To The Chapter 11 Filing

8. In the first two years following Delphi's separation from GM, the Company generated approximately $2 billion in net income. Every year thereafter, however, with the exception of 2002, the Company has suffered losses. In calendar year 2004, the Company reported a net loss of approximately $4.8 billion on $28.6 billion in net sales.³

Reflective of a continued downturn in the marketplace, in 2005 Delphi incurred net losses of approximately $2.8 billion on net sales of $26.9 billion.

9. The Debtors believe that the Company's financial performance has deteriorated because of: (a) increasingly unsustainable U.S. legacy liabilities and operational restrictions driven by collectively bargained agreements, including restrictions preventing the Debtors from exiting non-profitable, non-core operations, all of which have the effect of creating largely fixed labor costs, (b) a competitive U.S. vehicle production environment for domestic OEMs resulting in the reduced number of motor vehicles that GM produces annually in the United States and related pricing pressures, and (c) increasing commodity prices.

10. In light of these factors, the Company determined that it would be imprudent and irresponsible to defer addressing and resolving its U.S. legacy liabilities, product portfolio, operational issues, and forward-looking revenue requirements. Because discussions with its major unions and GM had not progressed sufficiently by the end of the third quarter of 2005, the Company commenced these chapter 11 cases for its U.S. businesses to complete the Debtors' transformation plan and preserve value for its stakeholders.

D. The Debtors' Transformation Plan

11. On March 31, 2006, the Company outlined the key tenets of its transformation plan. The Company believes that this plan will enable it to return to stable, profitable business operations and allow the Debtors to emerge from these chapter 11 cases in the first half of 2007. To complete their restructuring process, the Debtors must focus on five key areas. First, Delphi must modify its labor agreements to create a competitive arena in which to conduct business. Second, the Debtors must conclude their negotiations with GM to finalize GM's financial support for the Debtors' legacy and labor costs and to ascertain GM's business commitment to the Company. Third, the Debtors must streamline their product portfolio to capitalize on their world-class technology and market strengths and make the necessary manufacturing alignment with their new focus. Fourth, the Debtors must transform their salaried workforce to ensure that the Company's organizational and cost structure is competitive and aligned with its product portfolio and manufacturing footprint. Finally, the Debtors must devise a workable solution to their current pension situation.

12. In connection with the first two elements of the Company's transformation plan, Delphi continues to participate in discussions with its unions and GM. Throughout those discussions, Delphi has consistently communicated a clear message to both its hourly workforce and GM: Delphi is committed to finding a consensual resolution to its issues and intends to continue to discuss with its unions and GM ways to become competitive in the Debtors' U.S. operations. To that end, Delphi, GM and the UAW recently received this Court's approval of a tripartite agreement providing for a special hourly attrition program for Delphi's UAW-represented employees. This special hourly attrition program could provide as many as 18,000 of Delphi's 23,000 existing UAW-represented long-term hourly employees with "soft landings" through retirement attrition programs and GM flowbacks. Delphi also hopes to reach agreement on similar hourly attrition programs with its other unions, which could provide as many as 4,500 additional hourly employees with retirement programs or incentives.

13. These hourly attrition programs constitute an important first step in implementing the Debtors' transformation plan, but will not resolve all of the issues related to Delphi's uncompetitive labor agreements. Moreover, Delphi has not yet reached comprehensive agreements with its unions and GM. Therefore, on March 31, 2006, Delphi moved under sections 1113 and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code for authority to reject its U.S. labor agreements and to modify retiree benefits.⁴ Contemporaneously therewith, the Debtors also moved to reject unprofitable supply contracts with GM.⁵ Among the reasons for the GM contract rejection motion was the Debtors' belief that GM must cover a greater portion of the costs of manufacturing products for GM at plants that bear the burden of the Debtors' legacy costs. This initial motion covers approximately half of the Debtors' North American annual purchase volume revenue from GM but only 10% of the Debtors' total contracts with GM. Although the filing of these motions was a necessary procedural step, the Debtors remain focused on reaching a consensual resolution with all of Delphi's unions and GM before a hearing on the motions is necessary.

14. To implement the third element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company announced plans to focus its product portfolio on those core technologies for which the Company has significant competitive and technological advantages and expects the greatest opportunities for increased growth. To that end, the Company will concentrate the organization around the following core strategic product lines: (a) Controls & Security (Body Security, Mechatronics, Power Products, and Displays), (b) Electrical/Electronic Architecture (Electrical/Electronic Distribution Systems, Connection Systems, and Electrical Centers), (c) Entertainment & Communications (Audio, Navigation, and Telematics), (d) Powertrain (Diesel and Gas Engine Management Systems), (e) Safety (Occupant Protection and Safety Electronics), and (f) Thermal (Climate Control & Powertrain Cooling).⁶

15. In contrast, the Company similarly identified certain non-core product lines that do not fit into its future strategic framework, including Brake & Chassis Systems, Catalysts, Cockpits and Instrument Panels, Door Modules and Latches, Ride Dynamics, Steering, and Wheel Bearings. The Company will seek to sell or wind down these non-core product lines (which will include approximately one-third of its global manufacturing sites) and will consult with its customers, unions, and other stakeholders to carefully manage the transition of such affected product lines. The Company intends to sell or wind down the non-core product lines and manufacturing sites by January 1, 2008.

16. As part of its organizational restructuring, the fourth element of the Debtors' transformation plan, the Company expects to reduce its global salaried workforce by as many as 8,500 employees as a result of portfolio and product rationalizations and initiatives adopted following an analysis of the Company's selling, general, and administration ("SG&A") cost saving opportunities. The Company believes that once its SG&A plan is fully implemented, the Company should realize savings of approximately $450 million per year in addition to savings realized from competitive measures planned for its core businesses and the disposition of non-core assets.

hourly and salaried workforce. To do so, however, it will be necessary to freeze the current hourly U.S. pension plan as of October 1, 2006 and to freeze the current salaried U.S. pension plan as of January 1, 2007. Despite the freeze, because of the size of the funding deficit, it will also be necessary for the Debtors to obtain relief from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor, and potentially Congress, to amortize funding contributions over a long-term period. The Company intends to replace the hourly plan (for certain employees) and the salaried plan with defined contribution plans.

18. Upon the conclusion of the reorganization process, the Debtors expect to emerge as a stronger, more financially sound business with viable U.S. operations that are well-positioned to advance global enterprise objectives. In the meantime, Delphi will marshal all of its resources to continue to deliver high-quality products to its customers globally. Additionally, the Company will preserve and continue the strategic growth of its non-U.S. operations and maintain its prominence as the world's premier auto supplier.

Relief Requested

19. On June 6, 2006, MobileAria and the Purchaser entered into the Agreement which provides for the Sale of the Acquired Assets, which comprise substantially all of the assets of MobileAria, to the Purchaser for $6.5 million and other consideration. The proposed Sale is subject to approval by this Court and additional competitive bidding pursuant to the proposed Bidding Procedures. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of two orders. First, at the omnibus hearing scheduled to be held on June 16, 2006, the Debtors request entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Bidding Procedures Order") approving the Bidding Procedures, Notice Procedures, and certain bid protections to be provided to the Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement and as described more fully herein. Second, subject to the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, at the omnibus hearing scheduled to be held on July 19, 2006, the Debtors request entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "Sale Order") authorizing and approving the Sale, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, and the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities.

20. As more fully set forth below, after a comprehensive strategic review, MobileAria believes that the Sale is its best opportunity under the circumstances to maximize the underlying core value of its business and that, therefore, the sale is in the best interests of its estate and its creditors.

Basis For Relief

A. MobileAria's Business

21. MobileAria is a technology leader in next generation mobile resource management (MRM) solutions designed to maximize mobile workforce productivity. By enabling a high-speed data connection between mobile resources and an enterprise's IT infrastructure, MobileAria's end-to-end solutions deliver unique dual functionality by (a) enabling real-time central monitoring and control of mobile assets through intelligent web applications and (b) providing field workers with real-time wireless access to corporate data networks and the internet while providing field services, both in and away from a vehicle.

22. Founded in 2000 to serve the long-haul trucking industry, in 2004 MobileAria identified escalating demand for customized telematics solutions among operators of the nation's largest fleets. Soon thereafter, MobileAria refocused its development efforts on designing a flexible and adaptable technology platform and positioning MobileAria as a provider of custom MRM and mobile workforce connectivity solutions. In 2005, MobileAria won a 20,000 unit, five-year service contract from Verizon Services Corp., one of the largest service fleet operators in the U.S., validating MobileAria's solutions approach and the superiority of its technology platform.

23. Although the Debtors believe that MobileAria is a fundamentally strong business in a emerging and rapidly growing market, MobileAria's business does not present a strong fit within the Debtors' anticipated product portfolio under their transformation plan. The Debtors and MobileAria have, therefore, determined that MobileAria's value will be maximized through the divestiture of its assets.

B. Factors Leading To The Sale

24. As a result of the Debtors' development of their transformation plan, the Debtors and MobileAria determined that MobileAria's business was not a good strategic fit with the Debtors' restructured product portfolio. Therefore, in March of this year, MobileAria engaged Pagemill Partners LLC ("Pagemill") to develop, solicit and assist MobileAria in analyzing potential transactions including a sale of MobileAria's assets or a merger with a strategic partner. Pagemill, as a technology-focused investment bank located in the Silicon Valley region of California (as is MobileAria's headquarters) with extensive transactional experience focusing on emerging and middle-market transactions, was uniquely qualified to provide such services to MobileAria.

25. In seeking potential acquirers of MobileAria's assets, Pagemill identified approximately 70 potential bidders based upon those companies' strategic fit and financial characteristics ("Potential Bidders"). Beginning in early April, Pagemill contacted each such potential bidders to gauge their interest in acquiring MobileAria's assets or otherwise entering into a strategic transaction with MobileAria. Of those targeted companies, 16 requested and were provided an information memorandum prepared by MobileAria and Pagemill.

26. Following receipt of the information memorandum, six of the potential acquirers submitted preliminary indications of interest to MobileAria. MobileAria, with the assistance of its retained advisors, assembled an electronic data room and prepared management presentations to provide for an organized and efficient transmission of significant amounts of data related to MobileAria's business. During the week of May 15, five in-person and one telephonic management presentations were made to the potential bidders.

27. Following this initial round of diligence, four of the potential bidders submitted proposals for the acquisition of MobileAria's assets on May 24, 2006. MobileAria, in conjunction with Pagemill and its other retained advisors, evaluated the terms and benefits of each proposal, as well as the benefits of other alternatives. MobileAria, in its business judgment, concluded that the proposal from the Purchaser, which formed the basis of the Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit D,⁷ offered the most advantageous terms and the greatest economic benefit to MobileAria.

C. The Need For An Expedited Sale Process

28. Although MobileAria is a technology leader in next generation MRM solutions and remains poised for significant growth, MobileAria's present growth requires current cash infusions. The Debtors' current financial condition has therefore put a strain on MobileAria's potential future growth. In light of MobileAria's current cash needs and the other Debtors' desire to focus their available free cash on investments in those business lines which are more likely to comprise their restructured product portfolio, there is a risk of value erosion if a sale is not effectuated promptly. While the proposed Sale of the Acquired Assets to a solid, financially-strong party will provide some stability to prevent business deterioration during this process, the overall value of MobileAria's assets will be maintained and maximized through an expedited sale process.

D. The Agreement

29. Pursuant to the Agreement, (a) MobileAria will (i) sell the Acquired Assets for $6.5 million and other consideration, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests and encumbrances and (ii) assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser and (b) the Purchaser will assume the Assumed Liabilities of MobileAria.

30. The significant terms of the Agreement are as follows:⁸

(a) General Terms. It is proposed that the Purchaser will acquire the Acquired Assets, which comprise substantially all of the assets of MobileAria. The transaction will be accomplished through an asset sale. Among others, certain bailed assets, personnel records, financial assets, contracts, tax refunds, benefits arising under insurance policies, and MobileAria's rights under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code are excluded from the Acquired Assets.

(b) Bankruptcy Approval. The Sale is subject to approval by the Court and competitive bidding pursuant to the Bidding Procedures.

(c) Documentation. The Sale will be effected pursuant to the Agreement and related documentation. At the closing, MobileAria and the Purchaser will enter into, among others, the following agreements: (i) certain agreements governing the transfer of intellectual property from MobileAria to the Purchaser, (ii) an escrow agreement by and among MobileAria, the Purchaser, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. for the purposes described below, and (iii) a software license agreement between Delphi Technologies, Inc. ("DTI") and the Purchaser providing for a license of certain proprietary software belonging to DTI used in conjunction with MobileAria's vehicle tracking and control unit product.

(d) Purchase Price. The purchase price to be paid by the Purchaser is $6.5 million.

(e) Escrow. $975,000.00 of the purchase price will be placed into an escrow account to satisfy MobileAria's indemnification obligations to the Purchaser. The remaining available funds from the escrow are to be released on the first anniversary of the date of closing; provided, however, that if the Purchaser has made an indemnification claim prior to such date, then the escrow agent will continue to hold in escrow an amount sufficient to satisfy such indemnification claim until such claim is fully and finally resolved.

⁸ In the event of any discrepancy between the Agreement and this summary of the Agreement, the provisions of the Agreement are controlling.

(f) Representations And Warranties. Pursuant to the Agreement, MobileAria will provide comprehensive representations and warranties relating to the Sale and the Acquired Assets. The representations and warranties of MobileAria will survive the closing of the Sale and expire on the first anniversary of the date of closing. Purchaser will also provide standard representations and warranties which will survive the closing of the Sale and expire on the first anniversary of the date of closing.

(g) Covenants. Between the date of signing the Agreement and the closing, MobileAria is required to, among other things: (i) carry on its business in substantially the same manner as it has heretofore and perform in all material respects all of its obligations under certain enumerated contracts, (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve relations with customers, suppliers, and employees, and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary, proper, or advisable to effectuate the Sale in accordance with the Agreement. For a period of three years after the closing, MobileAria is required not to take certain actions which would place it in competition with the Purchaser with respect to MobileAria's current business line.

(h) Indemnification. MobileAria has agreed to indemnify the Purchaser for damages related to the following items: (i) those liabilities and assets retained by MobileAria at closing, (ii) MobileAria's breach of any representation or warranty in the Agreement, and (iii) a breach of any agreement or covenant of MobileAria in the Agreement. The sole and exclusive recourse of the Purchaser with respect to breaches of representations and warranties described above is a claim against the $975,000.00 escrow account described above.

(i) Closing Conditions. In addition to certain other customary closing conditions relating to bankruptcy court approvals and regulatory matters, the obligation of the Purchaser to close the Sale is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions: (i) the performance in all respects by MobileAria of its covenants under the Agreement and (ii) the accuracy of MobileAria's representations and warranties in all material respects.

(j) Termination. The Agreement may be terminated in the following circumstances (but not by a party that is in breach of the Agreement): (i) upon mutual written consent of MobileAria and the Purchaser, (ii) by either MobileAria or the Purchaser if consummation of the Sale would violate any final non-appealable order of any regulatory governmental entity other than the Court, (iii) by either MobileAria or the Purchaser if MobileAria consummates an alternative transaction, (iv) by either MobileAria or the Purchaser if the closing shall not have occurred by July 31, 2006, (v) by either MobileAria or the Purchaser if the Sale Order is not entered by the Court by July 26, 2006 or if the Sale Order is subject to a stay or injunction, (vi) within ten business days of receiving written notice thereof, by the Purchaser if a material adverse effect has occurred and is continuing, (vii) by the Purchaser if Verizon Services Corp. has terminated, threatened to terminate, or otherwise evidenced an intent to terminate a certain agreement with MobileAria or materially reduce the amount of business conducted pursuant to such agreement, (viii) by the Purchaser if the Purchaser provides MobileAria with written notice by 6:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on June 9, 2006 (or such later date as the Purchaser and MobileAria may mutually agree) that the results of the Purchaser's further due diligence into certain matters specifically enumerated in the Agreement are not reasonably acceptable to the Purchaser, and MobileAria and the Purchaser are not able to agree upon a mutually-acceptable resolution to such concerns (provided that, in the event of a termination under (viii), the Purchaser's sole remedy will be the immediate return of the Purchaser's deposit and MobileAria will have no other liability to the Purchaser whatsoever, including, without limitation, for payment of the Break-Up Fee or the Expense Reimbursement), or (ix) by MobileAria if MobileAria accepts or is about to accept a qualified bid at the auction other than that of the Purchaser (provided that such termination under (ix) will be of no effect unless MobileAria enters into an agreement with respect to such qualified bid within two business days of termination and subsequently completes the Sale pursuant thereto).

(k) Break-up Fee. Subject to Court approval, MobileAria will be required to pay a Break-Up Fee to the Purchaser in the amount of 3.0% of the purchase price if (i) MobileAria sells, transfers, leases, or otherwise disposes of, directly or indirectly, including through an asset sale, stock sale, merger, or other similar transaction, all or substantially all or a material portion of the Acquired Assets in a transaction or a series of transactions with one or more parties other than the Purchaser or (ii) (A) MobileAria accepts a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids at the Auction other than that of the Purchaser, (B) the Purchaser does not submit a subsequent bid at the Auction, and (C) MobileAria does not provide written notice to the Purchaser and its counsel on or before 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on July 26, 2006 that, notwithstanding MobileAria's acceptance of a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids other than that of the Purchaser at the Auction, it intends to close the transactions contemplated by the Agreement on or before July 31, 2006. The Purchaser has agreed that, in the event that it is entitled to receive both the break-up fee and the expense reimbursement under the Agreement, the Purchaser shall only be entitled to receive the larger of the two and in no case shall be entitled to receive payment of both.

(l) Expense Reimbursement. Subject to Court approval, MobileAria will be required to reimburse the Purchaser's reasonable, actual out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreement in an amount not to exceed $120,000.00 to the Purchaser upon (i) a termination of the Agreement by reason of the failure of the Closing to occur by July 31, 2006 or (ii) a termination of the Agreement by reason of (A) the failure of the Sale Order to be entered on or before July 26, 2006 or (B) the Sale Order being subject to a stay or injunction, in any case provided that the Purchaser is not then in breach of the Agreement for which MobileAria had previously notified the Purchaser.

E. Bidding Procedures

31. The Sale of the Acquired Assets is subject to higher or otherwise better offers pursuant to the Bidding Procedures. Accordingly, MobileAria seeks approval of the Bidding Procedures for the Sale of the Acquired Assets. MobileAria has determined that the proposed structure of the Bidding Procedures is the one most likely to maximize the realizable value of the Acquired Assets for the benefit of MobileAria's estate, creditors, and other interested parties.

32. The Bidding Procedures describe, among other things, the assets available for sale, the manner in which bidders and bids become "qualified," the coordination of diligence efforts among bidders, the receipt and negotiation of bids received, the conduct of any subsequent Auction (as defined below), the ultimate selection of the Successful Bidder(s), and the Bankruptcy Court's approval thereof (collectively, the "Bidding Process").

33. The proposed Bidding Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit A provide, in relevant part, as follows:⁹

(a) Assets To Be Sold: The assets proposed to be sold are the Acquired Assets.

(b) "As Is, Where Is": The Bidding Procedures provide that the sale of the Acquired Assets shall be on an "as is, where is" basis and without representations or warranties of any kind, nature, or description except as set forth in the Agreement or the purchase agreement of a Successful Bidder.

(c) Free Of Any And All Claims And Interests: The Acquired Assets shall be sold free and clear of all pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options, and interests thereon (collectively, the "Claims and Interests") and the Claims and Interests shall attach to the net proceeds of the sale of such Acquired Assets.

(d) Participation Requirements: To ensure that only bidders with a serious interest in the purchase of the Acquired Assets participate in the Bidding Process, the Bidding Procedures provide for certain minimal requirements for a potential bidder to become a "Qualified Bidder." These requirements include (i) executing a confidentiality agreement substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures, (ii) providing MobileAria with certain financial assurances as to such bidders ability to close a transaction, and (iii) submitting a preliminary proposal reflecting any Acquired Assets expected to be excluded and the purchase price range.

(e) Due Diligence: The Bidding Procedures permit all Qualified Bidders an opportunity to participate in the diligence process. MobileAria will coordinate the diligence process and provide due diligence access and additional information as reasonably requested by any Qualified Bidders.

(f) Bid Deadline: The Bidding Procedures provide for a bid deadline of 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on June 29, 2006 (the "Bid Deadline"). As soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of each Qualified Bid, MobileAria will deliver to Purchaser and its counsel complete copies of all items and information set forth in section (g) below.

(g) Bid Requirements: All bids must include the following documents: (i) a letter stating that the bidder's offer is irrevocable for the period set forth in the Bidding Procedures, (ii) an executed copy of the Agreement marked to show amendments and modifications to the agreement, purchase price, and proposed schedules, (iii) a good faith deposit of $500,000.00, and (iv) satisfactory written evidence of a commitment for financing or other ability to consummate the proposed transaction.

(h) Qualified Bids: To be deemed a "Qualified Bid," a bid must be received by the Bid Deadline and, among other things, (i) must be on terms and conditions (other than the amount of the consideration and the particular liabilities being assumed) that are substantially similar to, and are not materially more burdensome or conditional to MobileAria than those contained in the Agreement, (ii) must not be contingent on obtaining financing or the outcome of unperformed due diligence, (iii) must have a value greater than the purchase price reflected in the Agreement plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee plus $400,000.00, (iv) must not be conditioned on bid protections, other than those contemplated in the Bidding Procedures, (v) must contain acknowledgements and representations as set forth in the Bidding Procedures, and (vi) includes a commitment to consummate the purchase or the Acquired Assets within not more than 15 days after entry of a Bankruptcy Court order approving such purchase. With certain limited exceptions, MobileAria retains the sole right to deem a bid a Qualified Bid, if such bid does not conform to one or more of the aforementioned requirements, provided however, that such bid must have a value greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus $400,000.00, taking into account all material terms of any such bid. Each Qualified Bid other than that of the Purchaser shall be called a "Subsequent Bid."

(i) Conduct Of Auction: If MobileAria receives at least one Qualified Bid in addition to the Agreement, MobileAria will conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Acquired Assets at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on or before July 10, 2006, in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Bidding Procedures which include: (i) attendance at the Auction will be limited to specified parties as outlined in the Bidding Procedures, (ii) at least two business days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder with a Qualified Bid must inform MobileAria whether it intends to participate in the Auction and at least one business day prior to the Auction, MobileAria will provide such bidders copies of the Qualified Bid which MobileAria believes is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, (iii) all Qualified Bidders will be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids, and (iv) bidding at the Auction will begin with the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid, continue in minimum increments of at least $100,000, and conclude after each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit one or more additional Subsequent Bids.

(j) Selection of Successful Bid: As soon as practicable after the conclusion of the Auction, MobileAria will, in consultation with its financial advisors, review each Qualified Bid and identify the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets (the "Successful Bid") and the bidder making such bid (the "Successful Bidder"). MobileAria will sell the Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid to the Successful Bidder upon the approval of such Qualified Bid by the Bankruptcy Court after the hearing (the "Sale Hearing").

(k) Sale Hearing: MobileAria requests that the Sale Hearing be scheduled for July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern time) and that the Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled by MobileAria without notice other than by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing. If no Qualified Bids other than that of the Purchaser are received, MobileAria will proceed with the sale of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the order approving the Sale. If MobileAria does receive additional Qualified Bids, then, at the Sale Hearing, MobileAria shall seek approval of the Successful Bid, as well as the second highest or best Qualified Bid (the "Alternate Bid" and such bidder, the "Alternate Bidder"). A bid will not be deemed accepted by MobileAria unless and until approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Following approval of the sale to the Successful Bidder, if the Successful Bidder fails to consummate the sale for specified reasons, then the Alternate Bid will be deemed to be the Successful Bid and MobileAria will effectuate a sale to the Alternate Bidder without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(l) Return Of Good Faith Deposits: The Bidding Procedures provide that good faith deposits of all Qualified Bidders (except for the Successful Bidder) shall be held in an interest-bearing escrow account and all Qualified Bids shall remain open until two business days following the closing of the Sale (the "Return Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the good faith deposit submitted by the Successful Bidder, together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the Purchase Price upon closing of the Sale to the Successful Bidder. If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale, MobileAria will not have any obligation to return such good faith deposit and it shall irrevocably become property of MobileAria. On the Return Date, MobileAria will return the good faith deposits of all other Qualified Bidders, together with the accrued interest thereon.

(m) Reservation of Rights: MobileAria, after consultation with the agent for the debtors' prepetition secured lenders and the Creditors' Committee: (i) may determine which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer, and (ii) may reject at any time, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) that is: (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale, or (c) contrary to the best interests of MobileAria, its estate and creditors as determined by MobileAria in its sole discretion.

F. Bid Protections

34. The Purchaser has expended, and likely will continue to expend, considerable time, money, and energy pursuing the Sale and has engaged in extended arms' length and good faith negotiations. The Agreement is the culmination of these efforts.

35. In recognition of this expenditure of time, energy, and resources, MobileAria has agreed to provide certain bid protections to the Purchaser (the "Bid Protections"). Specifically, the Agreement provides, and MobileAria respectfully requests that the Bidding Procedures Order approve, a break-up fee payable by MobileAria to the Purchaser in the amount of 3.0% of the purchase price if (a) MobileAria sells, transfers, leases or otherwise disposes of, directly or indirectly, including through an asset sale, stock sale, merger, or other similar transaction, all or substantially all or a material portion of the Acquired Assets in a transaction or a series of transactions with one or more parties other than the Purchaser, or (b) (i) MobileAria accepts a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids at the Auction other than that of the Purchaser (ii) the Purchaser does not submit a subsequent bid at the Auction, and (iii) MobileAria does not provide written notice to the Purchaser and its counsel on or before 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on July 26, 2006 that, notwithstanding MobileAria's acceptance of a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids other than that of the Purchaser at the Auction, it intends to close the transactions contemplated by the Agreement on or before July 31, 2006. MobileAria's obligation to pay the Bid Protections, as provided by the Agreement, shall survive termination of the Agreement and, until paid, shall constitute a superpriority administrative expense pursuant to section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

36. In addition, the Agreement provides, and MobileAria respectfully requests that the Bidding Procedures Order approve, reimbursement of the Purchaser's reasonable, actual out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreement not to exceed $120,000.00 will be payable to the Purchaser, subject to this Court's approval pursuant to the Bidding Procedures Order, upon (y) a termination of the Agreement by reason of the failure of the Closing to occur on or before July 31, 2006 or (z) a termination of the Agreement by reason of (1) the failure of the Sale Order to be entered on or before July 26, 2006 or (2) the Sale Order being subject to a stay or injunction, in any case provided that the Purchaser is not then in breach of the Agreement for which MobileAria had previously notified the Purchaser. The Purchaser has agreed that, in the event that it would otherwise be entitled to receive both the break-up fee and the expense reimbursement under the Agreement, the Purchaser shall only be entitled to receive the larger of the two and in no case shall be entitled to receive payment of both.

37. The Bid Protections were a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Purchaser's entry into the Agreement. MobileAria believes that the Bid Protections are fair and reasonable in view of (a) the intensive analysis, due diligence investigation, and negotiation undertaken by the Purchaser in connection with the Sale and (b) the fact that the Purchaser's efforts have increased the chances that MobileAria will receive the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, to the benefit of MobileAria, its estate, its creditors, and all other parties in interest.

38. The Purchaser is unwilling to commit to hold open its offer to purchase the Acquired Assets under the terms of the Agreement unless the Bidding Procedures Order authorized payment of the Bid Protections. Thus, absent entry of the Bidding Procedures Order and approval of the Bid Protections, MobileAria may lose the opportunity to obtain what it believes to be the highest and best offer for the Acquired Assets.

39. Payment of the Bid Protections will not diminish MobileAria's estate. MobileAria will not terminate the Agreement so as to incur the obligation to pay either of the Bid Protections unless to accept an alternative Successful Bid, which must exceed the price offered by the Purchaser by an amount sufficient to pay the applicable Bid Protections. MobileAria thus requests that the Court authorize payment of the Bid Protections pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

G. Notice Of Bid Procedures And Sale

40. Notice Of Sale Hearing. Within five days after entry of the Bidding Procedures Order (the "Mailing Date"), MobileAria (or its agent) proposes to serve the Motion, the Agreement, the proposed Sale Order, the Bidding Procedures, and a copy of the Bidding Procedures Order by first-class mail, postage prepaid, upon (a) all entities known to have expressed an interest in a transaction with respect to the Acquired Assets during the past six months,¹⁰ (b) all entities known to have asserted any lien, claim, interest, or encumbrance in or upon the Acquired Assets, (c) all federal, state, and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by the Motion, (d) all parties to the Assumed Contracts, (e) all parties to Post-Petition Contracts, (f) the United States Attorney's office, (g) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (h) the Internal Revenue Service, (i) all entities on the 2002 List, and (j) counsel to the Creditors' Committee and the Equityholders' Committee.

41. Sale Notice. On or before the Mailing Date, MobileAria (or its agent) proposes to serve by first-class mail, postage prepaid, a notice of the Sale (the "Sale Notice"), substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit E, upon all other known creditors of MobileAria.

H. Assumption And Assignment Of Contracts

42. In connection with the proposed Sale, MobileAria seeks authority to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder. With respect to the Assumed Contracts, MobileAria no later than ten days after the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order will file with the Court and serve on each party to an Assumed

Contract a cure notice substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F (the "Cure Notice"). The Cure Notice will state the cure amount that MobileAria believes is necessary to assume such contract or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Cure Amount") and notify each party that such party's lease or contract will be assumed and assigned to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder to be identified at the conclusion of the Auction. In addition, such Cure Amounts will be listed on a schedule to the Sale Order.

43. Any objection to the Cure Amount must be filed by within ten days of the date of the Cure Notice (the "Cure Objection Deadline"). Any objection to the Cure Amount must state with specificity what cure the party to the Assumed Contract believes is required with appropriate documentation thereof. If no objection is timely received, the Cure Amount set forth in the Cure Notice will be controlling notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Assumed Contract or other document and the nondebtor party to the Assumed Contract will be forever barred from asserting any other claim arising prior to the assignment against MobileAria, the Debtors, or the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder (as appropriate) as to such Assumed Contract.

44. Within two business days of the conclusion of the Auction, MobileAria will send a notice (the "Assumption Notice"), in a form substantially similar to the form attached hereto as Exhibit G, to each nondebtor party to an Assumed Contract identifying the Successful Bidder. Any objection to the assumption and assignment of any Assumed Contract will be filed no later than two business days prior to the Sale Hearing, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Applicable Authority

A. Bidding Procedures

45. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Debtors, "after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b). To approve the use, sale, or lease of property outside the ordinary course of business, this Court need only determine that the Debtors' decision is supported by "some articulated business justification." See, e.g., Committee of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.) 722 F.2d 1063, 1070 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Chateaugay Corp., 973 F.2d 141, 143-145 (2d Cir. 1992) (affirming, based in part on Lionel, decision "authoriz[ing] the sale of an important asset of the bankrupt's estate, out of the ordinary course of business and prior to acceptance and outside of any plan of reorganization"); see also Fulton State Bank v. Schipper, 933 F.2d 513, 515 (7th Cir. 1991) ("Under Section 363, the debtor in possession can sell property of the estate outside the ordinary course of business if he has an articulated business justification.") (citations omitted); Stephens Indus. Inc. v. McClung, 789 F.2d 386, 389-90 (6th Cir. 1986) (adopting reasoning in Lionel and concluding "that a bankruptcy court can authorize a sale of all a Chapter 11 debtor's assets under § 363(b)(1) when a sound business purpose dictates such action"); In re Abbott Dairies of Pa., Inc., 788 F.2d 143, 1447-48 (3d Cir. 1986).

46. The Court should approve MobileAria's Sale of the Acquired Assets outside the ordinary course of business if MobileAria can demonstrate a sound business justification for the proposed transaction. See In re Lionel, 722 F.2d at 1070-71; In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 100 B.R. 670, 674-78 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (applying Lionel). Once MobileAria articulates a valid business justification, a presumption arises that "in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action was in the best interests of the company." In re Integrated Resources, Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (internal quotations omitted). MobileAria's business judgment "should be approved by the court unless it is shown to be so manifestly unreasonable that it could not be based upon sound business judgment, but only on bad faith, or whim or caprice." In re Aerovox, Inc., 269 B.R. 74, 80 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2001) (internal citations omitted).

47. The business judgment rule shields a debtor's management from judicial second-guessing. In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 615-616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) ("[T]he Code favors the continued operation of a business by a debtor and a presumption of reasonableness attaches to a debtor's management decisions.").

48. As set forth above, MobileAria has sound business justifications for pursuing a sale process at this time. Although the Debtors believe that MobileAria is a fundamentally strong business in a emerging and rapidly growing market, MobileAria does not present a strong fit within the Debtors' anticipated product portfolio under their transformation plan. Thus, the Debtors and MobileAria have determined that MobileAria's value will be maximized through the divestiture of its assets to an entity that is a better strategic fit and in a financial position to make the necessary cash infusions to support MobileAria's future growth. Moreover, delaying the sale of the Acquired Assets proposed by MobileAria pursuant to these procedures may result in the erosion of MobileAria's value. Accordingly, there is a sound business purpose for pursuing the sale process.

49. Moreover, a prospective purchaser of assets from a chapter 11 debtor may be reluctant to make an offer, because it knows that even if it reaches agreement with the debtor, its offer is subject to overbid. Pre-approved bidding procedures address these concerns, by assuring initial bidders that any auction procedure will be reasonable. Thus, MobileAria submits that the use of the Bidding Procedures also reflects sound business judgment.

B. Sale Of The Acquired Assets Free And Clear Of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, And Interests

50. Under section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor-in-possession may sell property free and clear of any lien, claim, or interest in such property if, among other things:

- (1) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- (2) such entity consents;
- (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is sold is great that the aggregate value of all liens on such property;
- (4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- (5) such entity could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f).

51. Therefore, section 363(f) permits MobileAria to sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, except the liabilities specifically assumed by a Successful Bidder. Each lien, claim or encumbrance that is not the result of an assumed liability satisfies at least one of the five conditions of 11 U.S.C. § 363(f), and MobileAria submits that any such lien, claim, or encumbrance will be adequately protected by attachment to the net proceeds of the Sale, subject to any claims and defenses MobileAria may possess with respect thereto. Accordingly, MobileAria requests that the Acquired Assets be transferred to the Successful Bidder(s) free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, except for the liens resulting from assumed liabilities, with such liens, claims, and encumbrances to attach to the proceeds of the Sale of the Acquired Assets.

C. The Purchase Is A Good Faith Purchaser Pursuant To Section 363(m) Of The Bankruptcy Code And The Transaction Contemplated By The Agreement Should Be Deemed Not Avoidable Pursuant To Section 363(n) Of The Bankruptcy Code

52. Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under subsection (b) or (c) of this section of a sale or lease of property does not affect the validity of a sale or lease under such authorization to an entity that purchased or leased such property in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and such sale or lease were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 363(m). Although the Bankruptcy Code does not define "good faith," the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in In re Gucci held that the good faith of a purchaser is shown by the integrity of his conduct during the course of the sale proceedings; where there is a lack of such integrity, a good faith finding may not be made. A purchaser's good faith is lost by 'fraud, collusion between the purchaser and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders.'

126 F.3d at 390 (quoting In re Rock Industries Machinery Corp., 572 F.2d 1195, 1198 (7th Cir. 1978) (interpreting Bankruptcy Rule 805, the precursor of section 363(m)); see also Evergreen Int'l Airlines Inc. v. Pan Am Corp. (In re Pam Am Corp.), Case Nos. 91 Civ. 8319 (LMM) to 91 Civ. 8324 (LMM), 1992 WL 154200 at *4 (S.D.N.Y. June 18, 1992); In re Sasson Jeans, Inc., 90 B.R. 608, 610 (S.D.N.Y. 1988).

53. Section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code further provides, in relevant part, that:

The trustee may avoid a sale under this section if the sale price was controlled by an agreement among potential bidders at such sale, or may recover from a party to such agreement any amount by which the value of the property sold exceeds the price at which such sale was consummated, and may recover any costs, attorneys' fees, or expenses incurred in avoiding such sale or recovering such amount.

54. MobileAria submits, and will present evidence at the Sale Hearing, that as set forth above, the Agreement is an intensely negotiated, arm's-length transaction, in which the Purchaser has at all times acted in good faith. MobileAria, therefore, requests that the Court make a finding that the Purchaser has purchased the Acquired Assets and assumed the Assumed Contracts and Assumed Liabilities in good faith within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, MobileAria submits that any asset purchase agreement reached as a result of the Bidding Procedures will be an arm's-length, intensely-negotiated transaction entitled to the protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and MobileAria will present evidence of the same at the Sale Hearing. As a key element of a good faith finding is that the Purchaser's successful bid is not the product of fraud, collusion between the purchaser and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders, MobileAria further requests that the Court make a finding that the transactions contemplated by the Agreement are not avoidable under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. The Assumption And Assignment Of The Assumed Contracts

55. Section 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

[t]he trustee may assign an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor only if –

(A) the trustee assumes such contract or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section; and

(B) adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract or lease is provided, whether or not there has been a default in such contract or lease.

11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(2).

56. Under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor."

11 U.S.C. § 365(a). Section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, in turn, codifies the requirements for assuming an unexpired lease or executory contract of a debtor. It provides:

(b)(1) If there has been a default in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, the trustee may not assume such contract or lease unless, at the time of the assumption of such contract or lease, the trustee –

(A) cures, or provides adequate assurance that the trustee will promptly cure, such default;

(B) compensates, or provides adequate assurances that the trustee will promptly compensate, a party other than the debtor to such contract or lease, for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from such default; and

(C) provides adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease.

11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1).

57. Courts give the phrase "adequate assurance of future performance" a "practical, pragmatic construction." See In re Sanshoe Worldwide Corp., 139 B.R. 585, 592 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (the presence of adequate assurance should be "determined under the facts of each particular case"); see also In re Fifth Avenue Originals, 32 B.R. 648, 652 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1983) (holding that adequate assurance was furnished on two separate grounds). Courts have consistently held that the phrase does not provide total assurances. In re Natco Industries, Inc., 54 B.R. 436, 440 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985) ("[I]t does not mean absolute insurance that the debtor will thrive and make a profit."); In re Prime Motor Inns Inc., 166 B.R. 993, 997 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 1994) ("[a]lthough no single solution will satisfy every case, the required assurance will fall considerably short of an absolute guarantee of performance."). In fact, adequate assurance has been provided by demonstrating the assignee's financial health and experience in managing the type of enterprise or property assigned. See In re Bygraph, Inc., 56 B.R. 596, 605-06 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (adequate assurance of future performance is present when prospective assignee of lease from debtor has financial resources and has expressed willingness to devote sufficient funding to business in order to give it strong likelihood of succeeding).

58. To the extent that any defaults exist under any executory contract or unexpired lease that is to be assumed and assigned in connection with the sale of the Acquired Assets or any portion thereof, MobileAria will cure any such default prior to such assumption and assignment. Moreover, the Debtors will adduce facts at the Sale Hearing demonstrating the financial wherewithal of any Successful Bidder, its experience in the industry, and its willingness and ability to perform under the contracts to be assumed and assigned to it.

59. The Sale Hearing therefore will provide this Court and other parties in interest ample opportunity to evaluate and, if necessary, challenge the ability of the Successful Bidder(s) to provide adequate assurance of future performance under the contracts to be assumed. This Court therefore should have a sufficient basis to authorize MobileAria to assume and assign contracts as set forth in the Agreement.

E. Approval Of The Bid Protections

60. Bidding incentives encourage potential purchasers to invest the requisite time, money, and effort to negotiate with a debtor and perform the necessary due diligence attendant to the acquisition of a debtor's assets, despite the inherent risks and uncertainties of the chapter 11 process. See, e.g., In re 995 Fifth Ave. Associates, L.P., 96 B.R. 24, 28 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (bidding incentives may "be legitimately necessary to convince a white knight to enter the bidding by providing some form of compensation for the risks it is undertaking") (citation omitted). Bankruptcy courts often approve bidding incentives under the business judgment rule. In re Global Crossing Ltd., 295 B.R. 726, 744 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) ("[N]o litigant has seriously argued the inapplicability of the business judgment test, and if any such argument had been made, the Court would be compelled . . . to reject it."); In re Bethlehem Steel Corp., Case No. 02 Civ. 2854 (MBM), 2003 WL 21738964 at *8 n.13 (S.D.N.Y. July 28, 2003) (the court should approve agreements providing bidding incentives "unless they are unreasonable or appear more likely to chill the bidding process than to enhance it"). One court, explaining the force of the business judgment rule in this context, stated "the business judgment rule does not become inapplicable simply because a court decides a break-up fee is too large." In re Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 660.

61. This district has established a three part test for determining when to permit bidding incentives. Id. at 657-58. The three factors are: "whether (1) relationship of parties who negotiated breakup fee is tainted by self-dealing or manipulation; (2) whether fee hampers, rather than encourages, bidding; and (3) amount of fee is unreasonable relative to purchase price." Id.

62. Here, MobileAria seeks authority to utilize the Bidding Process and Bid Protections in the event that the Purchaser is not ultimately the Successful Bidder or must increase the Purchaser's bid price to become the Successful Bidder. The Bid Protections are fair and reasonable in amount, particularly in view of the efforts to be made by the Purchaser and the risk to the Purchaser of being used as a stalking horse. Indeed, the maximum amount of the Break-Up Fee – 3.0% of the purchase price – not only constitutes a fair and reasonable percentage of a proposed purchase price, but also is customary for similar transactions of this type in the bankruptcy context. In addition, the payment of expenses and the indemnification and expense reimbursement provisions of the Agreement are reasonable given the significant investment in time and resources that the Purchaser will have contributed as the stalking horse bidder. Further, the Purchaser has agreed that the break-up fee and the expense reimbursement shall be mutually-exclusive -- in the event that it would otherwise be entitled to receive both the break-up fee and the expense reimbursement under the Agreement, the Purchaser shall only be entitled to receive the larger of the two and in no case shall be entitled to receive payment of both. Moreover, the amount of the proposed Break-Up Fee is within the range of breakup fees typically approved by courts in this district. See, e.g., In re Allegiance Telecom, Inc., Case No. 03-13057 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004) (allowing 2.8% break-up fee and expense reimbursement provision in asset sale agreement); In re Enron Corp., Case No. 01-16034 (AJG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004) (approving 3% break-up fee if debtor closes on a superior transaction); In re Loral Space & Communications Ltd., Case Nos. 03-41710 and 03-41709 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (allowing 2% for break-up fee and .8% for expense reimbursement allowed only if court enters order approving alternative transaction).

63. Further, MobileAria submits that the Bidding Procedures and the Bid Protections have encouraged competitive bidding in that the Purchaser would not have entered into the Agreement without such provisions. The Bidding Procedures and the Bid Protections have thus induced a bid that otherwise would not have been made and without which bidding would be limited. Finally, the mere existence of the Bidding Procedures and Bid Protections permits MobileAria to insist that competing bids be materially higher or otherwise better than the Agreement, a clear benefit to MobileAria, its estate, its creditors, and all other parties in interest.

G. Waiver Of The Ten-Day Stays Provided By Bankruptcy Rules 6004 And 6006

64. Bankruptcy Rule 6004(g) provides: "An order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 10 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise." Similarly, Bankruptcy Rule 6006(d) provides: "An order authorizing the trustee to assign an executory contract or unexpired lease under § 365(f) is stayed until the expiration of 10 days after the entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise."

65. Courts in this district have waived these ten-day stays upon a showing of business need. See In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., 327 B.R. 143, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2005)

("As I find that the required business need for a waiver has been shown, the order may provide for a waiver of the 10-day waiting period under Fed. R. Bankr.P. 6004(g)."); In re PSINet Inc., 268 B.R. 358, 379 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001) (requiring a demonstration of "a business exigency" for a waiver of the ten-day stays under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d)). In general, courts will grant waivers when doing so is important to the Debtor's financial health. See In re Second Grand Traverse School, 100 Fed.Appx. 430, 434-35 (6th Cir. 2004) (affirming decision waiving ten-day stay because "time was of the essence"); In re Decora Industries, Inc., Case No. 00-4459 (JJF), 2002 WL 32332749, at *9 (D. Del. May 20, 2002) ("[T]he Court understands that an immediate closing is required to remedy Debtors' precarious financial and business position. Accordingly, the Court will waive the Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d), allowing the parties to close.").

66. As described above, MobileAria's growth requires current cash contributions that the Debtors' current financial position and the Debtors' focus on investments on its business lines that are more likely to comprise their restructured product portfolio do not allow the Debtors to make. By delaying the time in which the Sale may be completed, there is a risk that MobileAria will suffer business deterioration. Moreover, a delay in the ability of a Successful Bidder to close the Sale could chill prospective bidders from entering the sale process out of a reluctance to keep bids open for an extended period of time and thus could prevent MobileAria from maximizing the value of its assets. Finally, the Purchaser has insisted upon the ability to close the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, assuming that MobileAria does not receive a higher or otherwise better bid at the auction, quickly following entry of the Sale Order and has therefore required that the Sale Order include a waiver of the ten-day stays provided under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d) by the terms of the Agreement.

67. Because MobileAria has demonstrated a business need requiring closing within ten days, this Court should exercise its authority under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d) and waive the ten-day stays.

H. Conclusion

68. MobileAria submits that the granting of the Bidding Procedures, Bid Protections, and Notice Procedures, the setting of the Sale Hearing, and an order approving the Sale of the Acquired Assets free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances to the Purchaser or to the Successful Bidder, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder, and the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities by the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder are in the best interests of MobileAria's estate and will maximize value for all creditors as described above.

On June __, 2006, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") entered an Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 And 9014 Approving (i) Bidding Procedures, (ii) Certain Bid Protections, (iii) Form And Manner Of Sale Notices, And (iv) Sale Hearing Date (the "Bidding Procedures Order") approving the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures Order set July __, 2006 as the date the Bankruptcy Court will conduct a hearing (the "Sale Hearing") to authorize the Seller to enter into the Agreement. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

The Bidding Procedures set forth herein describe, among other things, the assets available for sale, the manner in which bidders and bids become Qualified, the coordination of diligence efforts among bidders, the receipt and negotiation of bids received, the conduct of any subsequent Auction (as defined herein), the ultimate selection of the Successful Bidder(s) (as defined herein) and the Bankruptcy Court's approval thereof (collectively, the "Bidding Process"). The Bidding Procedures were developed following consultation with, among others, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee") and the Seller intends to continue to consult with such constituents throughout the Bidding Process. In the event that the Seller and any such constituent disagree as to the interpretation or application of these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and resolve such dispute.

Assets To Be Sold

The Assets proposed to be sold include substantially all of the assets owned by the Seller.

"As Is, Where Is"

The sale of the Assets shall be on an "as is, where is" basis and without representations or warranties of any kind, nature, or description by the Seller, its agents, or estate, except, with respect to the Purchaser, to the extent set forth in the Agreement and, with respect to a Successful Bidder, to the extent set forth in the relevant purchase agreement of such Successful Bidder approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

Free Of Any And All Claims And Interests

Except, with respect to the Purchaser, to the extent otherwise set forth in the Agreement and, with respect to a Successful Bidder, to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant purchase agreement of such Successful Bidder, all of the Seller's right, title, and interest in and to the Assets, or any portion thereof, to be acquired shall be sold free and clear of all pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options, and interests thereon and there against (collectively, the "Claims and Interests"), such Claims and Interests to attach to the net proceeds of the sale of such Assets.

Participation Requirements

Any person who wishes to participate in the Bidding Process (a "Potential Bidder") must become a Qualified Bidder. As a prerequisite to becoming a Qualified Bidder, a Potential Bidder, other than the Purchaser, must deliver (unless previously delivered) to the Seller:

- (a) An executed confidentiality agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (or in such other form acceptable to the Seller);
- (b) Current audited financial statements of the Potential Bidder, or, if the Potential Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Assets, current audited financial statements of the equity holders of the Potential Bidder who shall guarantee the obligations of the Potential Bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and credit-quality support or enhancement acceptable to the Seller and its financial advisors; and
- (c) A preliminary (non-binding) written proposal regarding (i) the purchase price range, (ii) any Assets expected to be excluded, (iii) the structure and financing of the transaction (including, but not limited to, the sources of financing of the Purchase Price (as defined in the Agreement) and the requisite Good Faith Deposit), (iv) any anticipated regulatory approvals required to close the transaction, the anticipated time frame and any anticipated impediments for obtaining such approvals, (v) any conditions to closing that it may wish to impose in addition to those set forth in the Agreement, and (vi) the nature and extent of additional due diligence it may wish to conduct and the date by which such due diligence will be completed.

A Potential Bidder who delivers the documents described in the previous subparagraphs above and whose financial information and credit-quality support or enhancement demonstrate the financial capability of such Potential Bidder to consummate the Sale, if selected as a successful bidder, and who the Seller determines in its sole discretion is likely (based on availability of financing, experience, and other considerations) to be able to consummate the Sale within the time frame provided by the Agreement shall be deemed a "Qualified Bidder." As promptly as practicable, after a Potential Bidder delivers all of the materials required above, the Seller shall determine, and shall notify the Potential Bidder, whether such Potential Bidder is a Qualified Bidder. At the same time that the Seller notifies the Potential Bidder that it is a Qualified Bidder, the Seller shall allow the Qualified Bidder to begin to conduct due diligence with respect to the Assets and the Business as provided below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder for purposes of the Bidding Process.

Due Diligence

The Seller shall afford each Qualified Bidder due diligence access to the Assets and the Business. Due diligence access may include management presentations as may be scheduled by the Seller, access to data rooms, on-site inspections, and such other matters which a Qualified Bidder may request and as to which the Seller, in its sole discretion, may agree. The Seller shall designate an employee or other representative to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from Qualified Bidders. Any additional due diligence shall not continue after the Bid Deadline. The Seller may, in its discretion, coordinate diligence efforts such that multiple Qualified Bidders have simultaneous access to due diligence materials and/or simultaneous attendance at management presentations or site inspections. Neither the Seller nor any of its affiliates (or any of their respective representatives) shall be obligated to furnish any information relating to Assets and the Business to any person other than to Qualified Bidders who make an acceptable preliminary proposal.

Each Qualified Bidder shall be deemed to acknowledge and represent that it has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Assets and the Business prior to making its offer, that it has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Assets and the Business in making its bid, and that it did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the Business, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith, the Bidding Process or the Auction (as defined herein), except, as to the Successful Bidder, as expressly stated in the definitive agreement with such Successful Bidder approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

Bid Deadline

A Qualified Bidder (other than the Purchaser) who desires to make a bid shall deliver written copies of its bid to: MobileAria, Inc., 800 West El Camino Real, Suite 240, Mountain View, California 94040, Attention: Richard Lind, with copies to: (i) Delphi Automotive Systems LLC, 5725 Delphi Drive, Troy, Michigan 48098, Attention: Stephen H. Ziman, and (viii) the debtors' prepetition lenders' financial advisor, Alvarez & Marsal, 600 Lexington Avenue, 6th Floor, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Andrew Hede, so as to be received not later than 11:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on June 29, 2006 (the "Bid Deadline"). As soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of each Qualified Bid, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser and its counsel complete copies of all items and information enumerated in the section below entitled "Bid Requirements."

Bid Requirements

All bids must include the following documents (the "Required Bid Documents"):

- (a) A letter stating that the bidder's offer is irrevocable until the earlier of (i) two Business Days after the closing of the Sale of the Assets or (ii) August 31, 2006.
- (b) An executed copy of the Agreement, together with all schedules (a "Marked Agreement") marked to show those amendments and modifications to such agreement and schedules that the Qualified Bidder proposes, including the Purchase Price.
- (c) A good faith deposit (the "Good Faith Deposit") in the form of a certified bank check from a U.S. bank or by wire transfer (or other form acceptable to the Seller in its sole discretion) payable to the order of the Seller (or such other party as the Seller may determine) in an amount equal to $500,000.00.
- (d) Written evidence of a commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the proposed transaction satisfactory to the Seller and its advisors.

Qualified Bids

A bid will be considered only if the bid:

- (a) is on terms and conditions (other than the amount of the consideration and the particular liabilities being assumed) that are substantially similar to, and are not materially more burdensome or conditional to the Seller than, those contained in the Agreement;
- (b) is not conditioned on obtaining financing or on the outcome of unperformed due diligence by the bidder;
- (c) proposes a transaction that the Seller determines, in its sole discretion, is not materially more burdensome or conditional than the terms of the Agreement and has a value, either individually or, when evaluated in conjunction with any other Qualified Bid, greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus (i) in the case of the initial Qualified Bid, $400,000.00, and (ii) in the case of any subsequent Qualified Bids, $100,000.00 over the immediately-preceding highest Qualified Bid;

- (d) is not conditioned upon any bid protections, such as a break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment;
- (e) an acknowledgement and representation that the bidder: (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to making its offer, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Assets in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith or the Auction, except as expressly stated in the Agreement or the Marked Agreement;
- (f) includes a commitment to consummate the purchase of the Assets (including the receipt of any required governmental or regulatory approvals) within not more than 15 days after entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving such purchase, subject to the receipt of any governmental or regulatory approvals which must be obtained within 20 days after entry of such order; and
- (g) is received by the Bid Deadline.

A bid received from a Qualified Bidder will constitute a "Qualified Bid" only if it includes all of the Required Bid Documents and meets all of the above requirements; provided, however, that the Seller shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to entertain bids for the Assets that do not conform to one or more of the requirements specified herein and deem such bids to be Qualified Bids; provided, further, however, that no bid shall be deemed by Seller to be a Qualified Bid unless such bid proposes a transaction that the Seller determines, in its sole discretion, has a value greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price, plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus $400,000.00, taking into account all material terms of any such bid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder, and the Agreement shall be deemed a Qualified Bid, for all purposes in connection with the Bidding Process, the Auction, and the Sale. A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon factors such as the net value provided by such bid and the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction. Each Qualified Bid other than that of the Purchaser is referred to as a "Subsequent Bid."

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids other than the Agreement received from the Purchaser, the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court and will proceed with the Sale pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

Bid Protection

Recognizing the Purchaser's expenditure of time, energy, and resources, the Seller has agreed to provide certain bidding protections to the Purchaser. Specifically, the Seller has determined that the Agreement will further the goals of the Bidding Procedures by setting a floor which all other Qualified Bids must exceed and, therefore, is entitled to be selected as the Purchaser. As a result, the Seller has agreed that if the Seller sells the Assets to a Successful Bidder other than the Purchaser, the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, pay to the Purchaser a Break-Up Fee. In the event the Agreement is terminated pursuant to certain other provisions thereof, then the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, be obligated to pay the Purchasers' Expense Reimbursement. The payment of the Break-Up Fee or the Expense Reimbursement (as applicable) shall be governed by the provisions of the Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order.

Auction

If the Seller receives at least one Qualified Bid in addition to the Agreement, the Seller will conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Assets and the Business upon notice to all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on or before July 10, 2006, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Four Times Square, New York, New York 10036 in accordance with the following procedures:

- (a) Only the Seller, the Purchaser, any representative of the Creditors' Committee, any representative of the secured lenders (and the legal and financial advisers to each of the foregoing), and any Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid shall be entitled to attend the Auction, and only the Purchaser and Qualified Bidders will be entitled to make any subsequent Qualified Bids at the Auction.
- (b) At least two Business Days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid must inform the Seller whether it intends to participate in the Auction and at least one Business Day prior to the Auction, the Seller shall provide copies of the Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids which the Seller believes is the highest or otherwise best offer to all Qualified Bidders who have informed the Seller of their intent to participate in the Auction. Should an Auction take place, the Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the Auction. The Purchaser's election not to participate in an Auction shall in no way impair its entitlement to receive the Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement, as applicable.
- (c) All Qualified Bidders shall be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids with the understanding that the true identity of each bidder shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders and that all material terms of each Subsequent Bid shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders throughout the entire Auction.
- (d) The Seller may employ and announce at the Auction additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances (e.g., the amount of time allotted to make Subsequent Bids) for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules are not inconsistent with these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith.
- (e) Bidding at the Auction shall begin with the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids and continue in minimum increments of at least $100,000.00 higher than the previous bid or bids. The Auction shall continue in one or more rounds of bidding and shall conclude after each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit one or more additional Subsequent Bids with full knowledge and written confirmation of the then-existing highest bid or bids. For the purpose of evaluating the value of the consideration provided by Subsequent Bids (including any Subsequent Bid by the Purchaser), the Seller shall give the Purchaser a credit in an amount equal to the greater of any Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement that may be payable to the Purchaser under the Agreement and shall give effect to any assets and/or equity interests to be retained by the Seller.

Selection Of Successful Bid

At the conclusion of the Auction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Seller, in consultation with its financial advisors, shall: (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the sale, and (ii) identify the highest or otherwise best offer(s) for the Assets and the Business received at the Auction (the "Successful Bid" and the bidder(s) making such bid, the "Successful Bidder(s)").

Seller shall sell the Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid to the Successful Bidder upon the approval of such Qualified Bid by the Bankruptcy Court after the hearing (the "Sale Hearing"). If, after an Auction in which the Purchaser: (i) shall have bid an amount in excess of the consideration presently provided for in the Agreement with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Agreement, and (ii) is the Successful Bidder, it shall, at the Closing under the Agreement, pay, in full satisfaction of the Successful Bid, an amount equal to: (a) the amount of the Successful Bid, less (b) the Break-Up Fee.

The Sale Hearing

The Sale Hearing is currently scheduled to take place before the Honorable Robert D. Drain, United States Bankruptcy Judge, on July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, Room 610, New York, New York 10004. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled by the Seller without notice other than by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing.

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid of the Purchaser), the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing and will proceed with a sale of the Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the Sale Order. If Seller does receive additional Qualified Bids, then, at the Sale Hearing, Seller shall seek approval of the Successful Bid(s), as well as the second highest or best Qualified Bid(s) (the "Alternate Bid(s)" and such bidder(s), the "Alternate Bidder(s)"). The Seller's presentation to the Bankruptcy Court of the Successful Bid(s) and Alternate Bid(s) shall not constitute the Seller's acceptance of either or any such bid(s), which acceptance shall only occur upon approval of such bid(s) by the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing. Following approval of the sale to the Successful Bidder(s), if the Successful Bidder(s) fail(s) to consummate the sale because of: (i) failure of a condition precedent beyond the control of either the Seller or the Successful Bidder, or (ii) a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder(s), then the Alternate Bid(s) shall be deemed to be the Successful Bid(s) and the Seller shall effectuate a sale to the Alternate Bidder(s) subject to the terms of the Alternate Bid(s) of such Alternate Bidder(s) without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Return Of Good Faith Deposits

Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders (except for the Successful Bidder) shall be held in an interest-bearing escrow account and all Qualified Bids shall remain open (notwithstanding Bankruptcy Court approval of a sale pursuant to the terms of one or more Successful Bids by one or more Qualified Bidders), until two Business Days following the closing of the Sale (the "Return Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Good Faith Deposit, if any, submitted by the Successful Bidder(s), together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the Purchase Price upon closing of the Sale to the Successful Bidder(s). If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, the Seller shall not have any obligation to return the Good Faith Deposit deposited by such Successful Bidder, and such Good Faith Deposit shall irrevocably become property of the Seller. On the Return Date, the Seller shall return the Good Faith Deposits of all other Qualified Bidders, together with the accrued interest thereon.

Reservation Of Rights

Seller, after consultation with the agent for the debtors' prepetition secured lenders and the Creditors' Committee: (i) may determine which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer and (ii) may reject at any time, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) that is: (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Seller, its estate, and creditors as determined by Seller in its sole discretion.

Exhibit 1 – Form of Nondisclosure Agreement

NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Nondisclosure Agreement (this “Agreement”) by and between _____, a _____ corporation (the “Recipient”), and MobileAria, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Provider”) (each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”), is dated as of the latest date set forth on the signature page hereto.

1. General. In connection with the consideration of a possible negotiated transaction (a “Possible Transaction”) between the Parties and/or their respective subsidiaries (each such Party being hereinafter referred to, collectively with its subsidiaries and affiliates, as a “Company”), Provider is prepared to make available to the Recipient certain “Evaluation Material” (as defined in Section 2 below) in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and both Parties agree to take or abstain from taking certain other actions as hereinafter set forth.

2. Definitions.

(a) The term “Evaluation Material” means information concerning the Provider which has been or is furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives in connection with the Recipient’s evaluation of a Possible Transaction, including its business, financial condition, operations, assets and liabilities, and includes all notes, analyses, compilations, studies, interpretations or other documents prepared by the Recipient or its Representatives which contain or are based upon, in whole or in part, the information furnished by the Recipient hereunder. The term Evaluation Material does not include information which (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the Recipient or its Representatives in breach of this Agreement, (ii) was within the Recipient’s possession prior to its being furnished to the Recipient by or on behalf of the Provider, provided that the source of such information was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information, or (iii) is or becomes available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Provider or its Representatives, provided that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information.

(b) The term “Representatives” shall include the directors, officers, employees, agents, partners or advisors (including, without limitation, attorneys, accountants, consultants, bankers and financial advisors) of the Recipient or the Provider, as applicable.

The Recipient agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of the Recipient's Representatives. This Agreement does not grant the Recipient or any of its Representatives any license to use the Provider's Evaluation Material except as provided herein.

4. Non-Disclosure of Discussions. Subject to Section 5, each Company agrees that, without the prior written consent of the other Company, such Company will not, and it will cause its Representatives not to, disclose to any other Person (i) that Evaluation Material has been provided by Provider to Recipient, (ii) that discussions or negotiations are taking place between the Companies concerning a Possible Transaction or (iii) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect thereto (including the status thereof).

5. Legally Required Disclosure. If the Recipient or its Representatives are requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, other requests for information or documents in legal proceedings, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process) to disclose any of the Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 above, the Recipient shall provide the Provider with prompt written notice of any such request or requirement together with copies of the material proposed to be disclosed so that the Provider may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. If, in the absence of a protective order or other remedy or the receipt of a waiver by the Provider, the Recipient or its Representatives are nonetheless legally compelled to disclose Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 or otherwise be liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty, the Recipient or its Representatives may, without liability hereunder, disclose to such requiring Person only that portion of such Evaluation Material or any such facts which the Recipient or its Representatives is legally required to disclose, provided that the Recipient and/or its Representatives cooperate with the Provider to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Evaluation Material or such facts by the Person receiving the material.

6. Return or Destruction of Evaluation Material. If either Company decides that it does not wish to proceed with a Possible Transaction, it will promptly inform the other Company of that decision. In that case, or at any time upon the request of the Provider for any reason, the Recipient will, and will cause its Representatives to, within five business days of receipt of such notice, destroy or return all Evaluation Material in any way relating to the Provider or its products, services, employees or other assets or liabilities, and no copy or extract thereof (including electronic copies) shall be retained, except that Recipient's outside counsel may retain one copy to be kept confidential and used solely for archival purposes. The Recipient shall provide to the Provider a certificate of compliance with the previous sentence signed by an executive officer of the Recipient. Notwithstanding the return or destruction of the Evaluation Material, the Recipient and its Representatives will continue to be bound by the Recipient's obligations hereunder with respect to such Evaluation Material.

7. No Solicitation/Employment. The Recipient will not, within one year from the date of this Agreement, directly or indirectly solicit the employment or consulting services of or employ or engage as a consultant any of the officers or employees of the Provider, so long as they are employed by the Provider and for three months after they cease to be employed by Provider. The Recipient is not prohibited from soliciting by means of a general advertisement not directed at (i) any particular individual or (ii) the employees of the Provider generally.

8. Maintaining Privilege. If any Evaluation Material includes materials or information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, each Company understands and agrees that the Companies have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters and it is the desire, intention and mutual understanding of the Companies that the sharing of such material by Recipient is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege. All Evaluation Material provided by the Recipient that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges, this Agreement, and under the joint defense doctrine.

9. Not a Transaction Agreement. Each Company understands and agrees that no contract or agreement providing for a Possible Transaction exists between the Companies unless and until a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, and each Company hereby waives, in advance, any claims (including, without limitation, breach of contract) relating to the existence of a Possible Transaction unless and until both Companies shall have entered into a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction. Each Company also agrees that, unless and until a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, neither Company will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever with respect to such Possible Transaction by virtue of this Agreement except for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Neither Company is under any obligation to accept any proposal regarding a Possible Transaction and either Company may terminate discussions and negotiations with the other Company at any time.

10. No Representations or Warranties; No Obligation to Disclose. The Recipient understands and acknowledges that neither the Provider nor its Representatives makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Evaluation Material furnished by or on behalf of the Provider and shall have no liability to the Recipient, its Representatives or any other Person relating to or resulting from the use of the Evaluation Material furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives or any errors therein or omissions therefrom. As to the information delivered to the Recipient, the Provider will only be liable for those representations or warranties which are made in a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction, when, as and if executed, and subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be specified therein. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as obligating a the Provider to provide, or to continue to provide, any information to any Person.

11. Third Party Beneficiaries. Delphi Automotive Systems LLC and its affiliates are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement with same rights and powers as if they had executed this Agreement.

12. Modifications and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement can be waived or amended in favor of either Party except by written consent of the other Party, which consent shall specifically refer to such provision and explicitly make such waiver or amendment. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder.

13. Remedies. Each Company understands and agrees that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by either Company or any of its Representatives and that the Company against which such breach is committed shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as a remedy for any such breach or threat thereof. Such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for a breach by either Company of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to the Company against which such breach is committed.

14. Legal Fees. In the event of litigation relating to this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that either Company or its Representatives has breached this Agreement, then the Company which is, or the Company whose Representatives are, determined to have so breached shall be liable and pay to the other Company the reasonable legal fees and costs incurred by the other Company in connection with such litigation, including any appeal therefrom.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement is for the benefit of each Company and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such State.

16. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants or restrictions contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and if a covenant or provision is determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Companies intend and hereby request that the court or other authority making that determination shall only modify such extent, duration, scope or other provision to the extent necessary to make it enforceable and enforce them in their modified form for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Construction. The Companies have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Companies and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring either Company by virtue of the authorship at any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Term. This Agreement shall terminate one year after the date of this Agreement.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Companies regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements and discussions between the Companies regarding such subject matter.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall be deemed to constitute a single instrument.

ORDER UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) AND FED. R. BANKR. P. 2002
AND 9014 APPROVING (I) BIDDING PROCEDURES, (II) CERTAIN BID PROTECTIONS, (III) FORM AND MANNER OF SALE NOTICES, AND (IV) SETTING OF A SALE HEARING

("MOBILEARIA BIDDING PROCEDURES ORDER")

Upon the motion, dated June 6, 2006 (the "Motion"), of Delphi Corporation ("Delphi") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, debtors and debtors-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), for orders pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and 365 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014 approving (i) the bidding procedures set forth herein and attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (the "Bidding Procedures"), (ii) the granting of certain bid protections, (iii) the form and manner of sale notices, and (iv) the setting of a sale hearing (the "Sale Hearing") and (b) authorizing and approving (i) the sale (the "Sale") of certain of the Debtors' assets (the "Acquired Assets") comprising substantially all of the assets of MobileAria, Inc. ("MobileAria") free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances to Wireless Matrix USA, Inc. (the "Purchaser") pursuant to the Asset Sale and Purchase Agreement dated June 6, 2006 by and between MobileAria and the Purchaser (the "Agreement")¹ or to the

Successful Bidder (as hereinafter defined) submitting a higher or otherwise better bid, (ii) the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumed Contracts") to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder, and (iii) the assumption of certain liabilities (the "Assumed Liabilities") by the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder; and the Court having reviewed the Motion; and the Court having considered the arguments of counsel at the hearing held on June 16, 2006 (the "Hearing"); and upon the record of the Hearing; and after due deliberation thereon, and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:²

A. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter and over the property of the Debtors and their respective bankruptcy estates pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334.

B. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (N), and (O).

C. The relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of MobileAria, its estate, its creditors, and other parties-in-interest.

D. The notice given by the Debtors of the Motion and the Hearing constitutes due and sufficient notice thereof.

E. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient reasons for approving (i) the Bidding Procedures, (ii) the granting of certain bid protections as provided in the Agreement, (iii) the manner of notice of the Motion, the Sale Hearing, and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, (iv) the form of notice of the Motion and the Sale Hearing to be distributed to creditors and other parties in interest, including prospective bidders, (v) the form of notice of the Cure Amounts and the assumption of the Assumed Contracts to be filed with the Court and served on parties to each Assumed Contract, and (vi) the setting of the Sale Hearing.

F. MobileAria's payment to the Purchaser (as set forth in the Agreement), of the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement (collectively, the "Bid Protections") (i) is an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving MobileAria's estate, within the meaning of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) is of substantial benefit to MobileAria's estate, (iii) is reasonable and appropriate, including in light of the size and nature of the Sale and the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Purchaser notwithstanding that the proposed Sale is subject to higher or better offers for the Acquired Assets, (iv) was negotiated by the parties at arms' length and in good faith, and (v) is necessary to ensure that the Purchaser will continue to pursue its proposed acquisition of the Acquired Assets. The Bid Protections were a material inducement for, and condition of, the Purchaser's entry into the Agreement. The Purchaser is unwilling to commit to hold open its offer to purchase the Acquired Assets under the terms of the Agreement unless it is assured of payment of the Bid Protections. Thus, assurance to the Purchaser of payment of the Bid Protections has promoted more competitive bidding by inducing the Purchaser's bid that otherwise would not have been made, and without which bidding would have been limited. Further, because the Bid Protections induced the Purchaser to research the value of the Acquired Assets and submit a bid that will serve as a minimum or floor bid on which other bidders can rely, the Purchaser has provided a benefit to MobileAria's estate by increasing the likelihood that the price at which the Acquired Assets are sold will reflect their true worth. Finally, absent authorization of the Bid Protections, MobileAria may lose the opportunity to obtain the highest or otherwise best available offer for the Acquired Assets.

G. The Bidding Procedures are reasonable and appropriate and represent the best method for maximizing the realizable value of the Acquired Assets.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

Bidding Procedures

1. The Bidding Procedures, as set forth on Exhibit 1 attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth in this Order, are hereby approved and shall govern all proceedings relating to the Agreement and any subsequent bids for the Acquired Assets in these cases.

2. MobileAria may: (a) determine, in its business judgment, which Qualified Bid is the highest or otherwise best offer, (b) consult with the representative of any official committee or significant constituent in connection with the Bidding Procedures, and (c) reject at any time before entry of an order of the Court approving a Qualified Bid, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) which, in MobileAria's sole discretion, is (i) inadequate or insufficient, (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of sale, or (iii) contrary to the best interests of MobileAria, its estate, and its creditors. MobileAria is authorized (i) to terminate the Bidding Process or the Auction at any time if it determines, in its business judgment, that the Bidding Process will not maximize the value of the Acquired Assets to be realized by MobileAria's estate and (ii) seek Bankruptcy Court Approval of the Agreement with Purchaser.

Sale Hearing

3. The Sale Hearing shall be held before the undersigned United States Bankruptcy Judge on July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, One Bowling Green, Room 610, New York, New York 10004, at which time the Court shall consider the Motion, the Successful Bidder, and confirm the results of the Auction, if any. Objections to the Motion shall be filed and served no later than 4:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on July 12, 2006 (the "Objection Deadline").

4. The failure of any objecting person or entity to timely file its objection by the Objection Deadline shall be a bar to the assertion, at the Sale Hearing or thereafter, of any objection to the Motion, the Sale, or MobileAria's consummation and performance of the Agreement (including the transfer of the Acquired Assets and Assumed Contracts free and clear of all Interests and Claims), if authorized by the Court.

5. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice to creditors or parties in interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or on the Court's calendar on the date scheduled for the Sale Hearing or any adjourned date.

Bid Protections

6. The Bid Protections, as more fully described in the Motion and the Agreement, are hereby approved. MobileAria's obligation to pay the Bid Protections, as provided by the Agreement, shall survive termination of the Agreement and, until paid, shall constitute a superpriority administrative expense pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 507(b) and MobileAria shall be authorized to pay the Bid Protections to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without further order of this Court.

Notice

7. Notice of (a) the Motion, (b) the Sale Hearing, and (c) the proposed assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement or to a Successful Bidder shall be good and sufficient, and no other or further notice shall be required, if given as follows:

(a) Notice Of Sale Hearing. Within five days after entry of this Order (the "Mailing Date"), MobileAria (or its agent) shall serve the Motion, the Agreement, the proposed Sale Order, the Bidding Procedures, and a copy of the Bidding Procedures Order by first-class mail, postage prepaid, upon (i) all entities known to have expressed an interest in a transaction with respect to the Acquired Assets during the past six months; (ii) all entities known to have asserted any lien, claim, interest, or encumbrance in or upon the Acquired Assets; (iii) all federal, state, and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by the Motion; (iv) all parties to the Assumed Contracts; (v) all parties to post-petition contracts of MobileAria; (vi) the United States Attorney's office; (vii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (viii) the Internal Revenue Service; (ix) all entities on the 2002 List; and (x) counsel to the Creditors' Committee and the Equityholders' Committee.

(b) Sale Notice. On or before the Mailing Date, MobileAria (or its agent) shall serve by first-class mail, postage prepaid, a notice of the Sale (the "Sale Notice"), substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 2, upon all other known creditors of MobileAria.

(c) Cure Notice. No later than ten days after the entry of this Order, MobileAria shall file with the Court and serve on all nondebtor parties to the Assumed Contracts a notice (the "Cure Notice"), substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 3, of the cure amount necessary to assume the Assumed Contract (the "Cure Amount"). The nondebtor party to the Assumed Contract shall have ten days from the service of the Cure Notice to object to the Cure Amount and must state in its objection with specificity what Cure is required (with appropriate documentation in support thereof). If no objection is timely received, the Cure Amount set forth in the Cure Notice shall be controlling, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Assumed Contract or any other document, and the nondebtor party to the Assumed Contract shall be forever barred from asserting any other claims against the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Successful Bidder (as appropriate), or the property of either of them, as to such Assumed Contract.

(d) Assumption Notice. Within two business days of the conclusion of the Auction, MobileAria shall cause a notice, substantially in the form of the notice attached hereto as Exhibit 4, to be sent to each nondebtor party to an Assumed Contract identifying the Successful Bidder. Any objection to the assumption and assignment of any Assumed Contract shall be filed no later than two business days prior to the Sale Hearing.

8. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Order.

9. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Motion.

- (f) includes a commitment to consummate the purchase of the Assets (including the receipt of any required governmental or regulatory approvals) within not more than 15 days after entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving such purchase, subject to the receipt of any governmental or regulatory approvals which must be obtained within 20 days after entry of such order; and
- (g) is received by the Bid Deadline.

A bid received from a Qualified Bidder will constitute a "Qualified Bid" only if it includes all of the Required Bid Documents and meets all of the above requirements; provided, however, that the Seller shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to entertain bids for the Assets that do not conform to one or more of the requirements specified herein and deem such bids to be Qualified Bids; provided, further, however, that no bid shall be deemed by Seller to be a Qualified Bid unless such bid proposes a transaction that the Seller determines, in its sole discretion, has a value greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price, plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus $400,000.00, taking into account all material terms of any such bid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder, and the Agreement shall be deemed a Qualified Bid, for all purposes in connection with the Bidding Process, the Auction, and the Sale. A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon factors such as the net value provided by such bid and the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction. Each Qualified Bid other than that of the Purchaser is referred to as a "Subsequent Bid."

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids other than the Agreement received from the Purchaser, the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court and will proceed with the Sale pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

Bid Protection

Recognizing the Purchaser's expenditure of time, energy, and resources, the Seller has agreed to provide certain bidding protections to the Purchaser. Specifically, the Seller has determined that the Agreement will further the goals of the Bidding Procedures by setting a floor which all other Qualified Bids must exceed and, therefore, is entitled to be selected as the Purchaser. As a result, the Seller has agreed that if the Seller sells the Assets to a Successful Bidder other than the Purchaser, the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, pay to the Purchaser a Break-Up Fee. In the event the Agreement is terminated pursuant to certain other provisions thereof, then the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, be obligated to pay the Purchasers' Expense Reimbursement. The payment of the Break-Up Fee or the Expense Reimbursement (as applicable) shall be governed by the provisions of the Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order.

Auction

If the Seller receives at least one Qualified Bid in addition to the Agreement, the Seller will conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Assets and the Business upon notice to all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on or before July 10, 2006, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Four Times Square, New York, New York 10036 in accordance with the following procedures:

- (a) Only the Seller, the Purchaser, any representative of the Creditors' Committee, any representative of the secured lenders (and the legal and financial advisers to each of the foregoing), and any Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid shall be entitled to attend the Auction, and only the Purchaser and Qualified Bidders will be entitled to make any subsequent Qualified Bids at the Auction.
- (b) At least two Business Days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid must inform the Seller whether it intends to participate in the Auction and at least one Business Day prior to the Auction, the Seller shall provide copies of the Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids which the Seller believes is the highest or otherwise best offer to all Qualified Bidders who have informed the Seller of their intent to participate in the Auction. Should an Auction take place, the Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the Auction. The Purchaser's election not to participate in an Auction shall in no way impair its entitlement to receive the Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement, as applicable.
- (c) All Qualified Bidders shall be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids with the understanding that the true identity of each bidder shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders and that all material terms of each Subsequent Bid shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders throughout the entire Auction.
- (d) The Seller may employ and announce at the Auction additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances (e.g., the amount of time allotted to make Subsequent Bids) for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules are not inconsistent with these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith.
- (e) Bidding at the Auction shall begin with the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids and continue in minimum increments of at least $100,000.00 higher than the previous bid or bids. The Auction shall continue in one or more rounds of bidding and shall conclude after each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit one or more additional Subsequent Bids with full knowledge and written confirmation of the then-existing highest bid or bids. For the purpose of evaluating the value of the consideration provided by Subsequent Bids (including any Subsequent Bid by the Purchaser), the Seller shall give the Purchaser a credit in an amount equal to the greater of any Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement that may be payable to the Purchaser under the Agreement and shall give effect to any assets and/or equity interests to be retained by the Seller.

Selection Of Successful Bid

At the conclusion of the Auction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Seller, in consultation with its financial advisors, shall: (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the sale, and (ii) identify the highest or otherwise best offer(s) for the Assets and the Business received at the Auction (the "Successful Bid" and the bidder(s) making such bid, the "Successful Bidder(s)").

Seller shall sell the Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid to the Successful Bidder upon the approval of such Qualified Bid by the Bankruptcy Court after the hearing (the "Sale Hearing"). If, after an Auction in which the Purchaser: (i) shall have bid an amount in excess of the consideration presently provided for in the Agreement with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Agreement, and (ii) is the Successful Bidder, it shall, at the Closing under the Agreement, pay, in full satisfaction of the Successful Bid, an amount equal to: (a) the amount of the Successful Bid, less (b) the Break-Up Fee.

The Sale Hearing

The Sale Hearing is currently scheduled to take place before the Honorable Robert D. Drain, United States Bankruptcy Judge, on July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, Room 610, New York, New York 10004. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled by the Seller without notice other than by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing.

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid of the Purchaser), the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing and will proceed with a sale of the Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the Sale Order. If Seller does receive additional Qualified Bids, then, at the Sale Hearing, Seller shall seek approval of the Successful Bid(s), as well as the second highest or best Qualified Bid(s) (the "Alternate Bid(s)" and such bidder(s), the "Alternate Bidder(s)"). The Seller's presentation to the Bankruptcy Court of the Successful Bid(s) and Alternate Bid(s) shall not constitute the Seller's acceptance of either or any such bid(s), which acceptance shall only occur upon approval of such bid(s) by the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing. Following approval of the sale to the Successful Bidder(s), if the Successful Bidder(s) fail(s) to consummate the sale because of: (i) failure of a condition precedent beyond the control of either the Seller or the Successful Bidder, or (ii) a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder(s), then the Alternate Bid(s) shall be deemed to be the Successful Bid(s) and the Seller shall effectuate a sale to the Alternate Bidder(s) subject to the terms of the Alternate Bid(s) of such Alternate Bidder(s) without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Return Of Good Faith Deposits

Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders (except for the Successful Bidder) shall be held in an interest-bearing escrow account and all Qualified Bids shall remain open (notwithstanding Bankruptcy Court approval of a sale pursuant to the terms of one or more Successful Bids by one or more Qualified Bidders), until two Business Days following the closing of the Sale (the "Return Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Good Faith Deposit, if any, submitted by the Successful Bidder(s), together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the Purchase Price upon closing of the Sale to the Successful Bidder(s). If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, the Seller shall not have any obligation to return the Good Faith Deposit deposited by such Successful Bidder, and such Good Faith Deposit shall irrevocably become property of the Seller. On the Return Date, the Seller shall return the Good Faith Deposits of all other Qualified Bidders, together with the accrued interest thereon.

Reservation Of Rights

Seller, after consultation with the agent for the debtors' prepetition secured lenders and the Creditors' Committee: (i) may determine which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer and (ii) may reject at any time, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) that is: (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Seller, its estate, and creditors as determined by Seller in its sole discretion.

Exhibit 1 – Form of Nondisclosure Agreement

NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Nondisclosure Agreement (this “Agreement”) by and between _____, a _____ corporation (the “Recipient”), and MobileAria, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Provider”) (each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”), is dated as of the latest date set forth on the signature page hereto.

1. General. In connection with the consideration of a possible negotiated transaction (a “Possible Transaction”) between the Parties and/or their respective subsidiaries (each such Party being hereinafter referred to, collectively with its subsidiaries and affiliates, as a “Company”), Provider is prepared to make available to the Recipient certain “Evaluation Material” (as defined in Section 2 below) in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and both Parties agree to take or abstain from taking certain other actions as hereinafter set forth.

2. Definitions.

(a) The term “Evaluation Material” means information concerning the Provider which has been or is furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives in connection with the Recipient’s evaluation of a Possible Transaction, including its business, financial condition, operations, assets and liabilities, and includes all notes, analyses, compilations, studies, interpretations or other documents prepared by the Recipient or its Representatives which contain or are based upon, in whole or in part, the information furnished by the Recipient hereunder. The term Evaluation Material does not include information which (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the Recipient or its Representatives in breach of this Agreement, (ii) was within the Recipient’s possession prior to its being furnished to the Recipient by or on behalf of the Provider, provided that the source of such information was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information, or (iii) is or becomes available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Provider or its Representatives, provided that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information.

(b) The term “Representatives” shall include the directors, officers, employees, agents, partners or advisors (including, without limitation, attorneys, accountants, consultants, bankers and financial advisors) of the Recipient or the Provider, as applicable.

(c) The term “Person” includes the media and any corporation, partnership, group, individual or other entity.

3. Use of Evaluation Material. The Recipient shall, and it shall cause its Representatives to, use the Evaluation Material solely for the purpose of evaluating a Possible Transaction, keep the Evaluation Material confidential, and, subject to Section 5, will not, and will cause its Representatives not to, disclose any of the Evaluation Material in any manner whatsoever; provided, however, that any of such information may be disclosed to the Recipient’s Representatives who need to know such information for the sole purpose of helping the Recipient evaluate a Possible Transaction. The Recipient agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of the Recipient's Representatives. This Agreement does not grant the Recipient or any of its Representatives any license to use the Provider's Evaluation Material except as provided herein.

4. Non-Disclosure of Discussions. Subject to Section 5, each Company agrees that, without the prior written consent of the other Company, such Company will not, and it will cause its Representatives not to, disclose to any other Person (i) that Evaluation Material has been provided by Provider to Recipient, (ii) that discussions or negotiations are taking place between the Companies concerning a Possible Transaction or (iii) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect thereto (including the status thereof).

5. Legally Required Disclosure. If the Recipient or its Representatives are requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, other requests for information or documents in legal proceedings, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process) to disclose any of the Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 above, the Recipient shall provide the Provider with prompt written notice of any such request or requirement together with copies of the material proposed to be disclosed so that the Provider may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. If, in the absence of a protective order or other remedy or the receipt of a waiver by the Provider, the Recipient or its Representatives are nonetheless legally compelled to disclose Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 or otherwise be liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty, the Recipient or its Representatives may, without liability hereunder, disclose to such requiring Person only that portion of such Evaluation Material or any such facts which the Recipient or its Representatives is legally required to disclose, provided that the Recipient and/or its Representatives cooperate with the Provider to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Evaluation Material or such facts by the Person receiving the material.

6. Return or Destruction of Evaluation Material. If either Company decides that it does not wish to proceed with a Possible Transaction, it will promptly inform the other Company of that decision. In that case, or at any time upon the request of the Provider for any reason, the Recipient will, and will cause its Representatives to, within five business days of receipt of such notice, destroy or return all Evaluation Material in any way relating to the Provider or its products, services, employees or other assets or liabilities, and no copy or extract thereof (including electronic copies) shall be retained, except that Recipient's outside counsel may retain one copy to be kept confidential and used solely for archival purposes. The Recipient shall provide to the Provider a certificate of compliance with the previous sentence signed by an executive officer of the Recipient. Notwithstanding the return or destruction of the Evaluation Material, the Recipient and its Representatives will continue to be bound by the Recipient's obligations hereunder with respect to such Evaluation Material.

7. No Solicitation/Employment. The Recipient will not, within one year from the date of this Agreement, directly or indirectly solicit the employment or consulting services of or employ or engage as a consultant any of the officers or employees of the Provider, so long as they are employed by the Provider and for three months after they cease to be employed by Provider. The Recipient is not prohibited from soliciting by means of a general advertisement not directed at (i) any particular individual or (ii) the employees of the Provider generally.

8. Maintaining Privilege. If any Evaluation Material includes materials or information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, each Company understands and agrees that the Companies have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters and it is the desire, intention and mutual understanding of the Companies that the sharing of such material by Recipient is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege. All Evaluation Material provided by the Recipient that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges, this Agreement, and under the joint defense doctrine.

9. Not a Transaction Agreement. Each Company understands and agrees that no contract or agreement providing for a Possible Transaction exists between the Companies unless and until a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, and each Company hereby waives, in advance, any claims (including, without limitation, breach of contract) relating to the existence of a Possible Transaction unless and until both Companies shall have entered into a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction. Each Company also agrees that, unless and until a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, neither Company will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever with respect to such Possible Transaction by virtue of this Agreement except for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Neither Company is under any obligation to accept any proposal regarding a Possible Transaction and either Company may terminate discussions and negotiations with the other Company at any time.

10. No Representations or Warranties; No Obligation to Disclose. The Recipient understands and acknowledges that neither the Provider nor its Representatives makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Evaluation Material furnished by or on behalf of the Provider and shall have no liability to the Recipient, its Representatives or any other Person relating to or resulting from the use of the Evaluation Material furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives or any errors therein or omissions therefrom. As to the information delivered to the Recipient, the Provider will only be liable for those representations or warranties which are made in a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction, when, as and if executed, and subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be specified therein. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as obligating a the Provider to provide, or to continue to provide, any information to any Person.

11. Third Party Beneficiaries. Delphi Automotive Systems LLC and its affiliates are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement with same rights and powers as if they had executed this Agreement.

12. Modifications and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement can be waived or amended in favor of either Party except by written consent of the other Party, which consent shall specifically refer to such provision and explicitly make such waiver or amendment. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder.

13. Remedies. Each Company understands and agrees that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by either Company or any of its Representatives and that the Company against which such breach is committed shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as a remedy for any such breach or threat thereof. Such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for a breach by either Company of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to the Company against which such breach is committed.

14. Legal Fees. In the event of litigation relating to this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that either Company or its Representatives has breached this Agreement, then the Company which is, or the Company whose Representatives are, determined to have so breached shall be liable and pay to the other Company the reasonable legal fees and costs incurred by the other Company in connection with such litigation, including any appeal therefrom.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement is for the benefit of each Company and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such State.

16. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants or restrictions contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and if a covenant or provision is determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Companies intend and hereby request that the court or other authority making that determination shall only modify such extent, duration, scope or other provision to the extent necessary to make it enforceable and enforce them in their modified form for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Construction. The Companies have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Companies and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring either Company by virtue of the authorship at any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Term. This Agreement shall terminate one year after the date of this Agreement.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Companies regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements and discussions between the Companies regarding such subject matter.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall be deemed to constitute a single instrument.

Kleiner), and (ix) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, 33 Whitehall Street, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10004 (Att'n: Alicia M. Leonhard).

4. If an objection to the Cure Amount is timely filed, a hearing with respect to the objection will be held before the Honorable Robert D. Drain, United States Bankruptcy Judge, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, One Bowling Green, Room 610, New York, New York 10004, at such date and time as the Court may schedule. A hearing regarding the Cure Amount, if any, may be continued at the sole discretion of MobileAria until after the Closing Date.

5. The failure of any objecting person or entity to timely file its objection shall be a bar to the assertion, at the Sale Hearing or thereafter, of any objection to the Sale Motion, the Sale, or MobileAria's consummation and performance of the Agreement (including the transfer of the Assets and the Assumed Contracts free and clear of all Interests), if authorized by the Court.

6. Prior to the Closing Date, MobileAria may amend its decision with respect to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract and provide a new notice amending the information provided in this Notice.

above-captioned cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), for orders pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and of MobileAria, Inc. ("MobileAria") free and clear of liens, claims and encumbrances to Wireless Matrix USA, Inc. (the "Purchaser") pursuant to the Asset Sale and Purchase Agreement dated

June __, 2006 by and between MobileAria and the Purchaser (the "Agreement"),¹ (ii) the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Assumed Contracts") to the Purchaser, and (iii) the assumption of certain liabilities (the "Assumed Liabilities") by the Purchaser; and the Court having entered an order on June __, 2006 (the "Bidding Procedures Order") approving (i) bidding procedures, (ii) the granting of certain bid protections, (iii) the form and manner of sale notices, and (iv) the setting of the Sale Hearing; and the Sale Hearing having been held on July __, 2006, at which time all interested parties were offered an opportunity to be heard with respect to the Motion; and the Court having reviewed and considered (i) the Motion, (ii) the objections thereto, if any, (iii) the arguments of counsel made, and the evidence proffered or adduced, at the Sale Hearing; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of MobileAria, its estate, its creditors, and all other parties in interest; and the Court having considered the arguments of counsel at the Sale Hearing; and upon the record of the Sale Hearing; and after due deliberation thereon, and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:²

A. The court has jurisdiction over the Motion and the transactions contemplated by the Agreement pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and this matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (N). Venue of these cases and the Motion in this district is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

¹ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement. A true and correct copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as Schedule 1.

² Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact when appropriate. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052.

B. The statutory predicates for the relief sought in the Motion are sections 363 and 365 of 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014.

C. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with the Court, and based on the representations of counsel at the Sale Hearing, (i) proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Sale Hearing, the Sale, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, and the Cure Amounts has been provided in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(l), 363, and 365 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014, (ii) such notice was good and sufficient, and appropriate under the particular circumstances, and (iii) no other or further notice of the Motion, the Sale Hearing, or the Sale is or shall be required.

D. As demonstrated by (i) the testimony and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing and (ii) the representations of counsel made on the record at the Sale Hearing, MobileAria has marketed the Acquired Assets and conducted the sale process in compliance with the Bidding Procedures Order and the Auction was duly noticed and conducted in a non-collusive, fair, and good faith manner.

E. MobileAria (i) has full corporate power and authority to execute the Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, and the transfer and conveyance of the Acquired Assets by MobileAria has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action of MobileAria, (ii) has all of the corporate power and authority necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, and (iii) has taken all corporate action necessary to authorize and approve the Agreement and the consummation by MobileAria of the transactions contemplated thereby, and no consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for in the Agreement, are required for MobileAria to consummate such transactions.

F. MobileAria has demonstrated both (i) good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for the Sale because, among other things, MobileAria and its advisors diligently and in good faith analyzed all other available options in connection with the disposition of the Acquired Assets and determined that the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, and the transfer to Purchaser of the Acquired Assets pursuant thereto, represent a fair and reasonable purchase price and constitute the highest or otherwise best value obtainable for the Acquired Assets and (ii) compelling circumstances for the Sale pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) prior to, and outside of, a plan of reorganization in that, among other things, absent the Sale the value of the Acquired Assets will be harmed.

G. A reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the Motion and the relief requested therein has been afforded to all interested persons and entities, including without limitation: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, (ii) counsel for the Purchaser, (iii) counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors appointed in these chapter 11 cases (the "Creditors' Committee"), (iv) counsel for the Official Committee of Equity Security Holders appointed in these chapter 11 cases, (v) all entities known to have expressed an interest in a transaction with respect to the Acquired Assets during the past six months, (vi) all entities known to have asserted any Interests or Claims (as defined below) in or upon the Acquired Assets, (vii) all federal, state, and local regulatory or taxing authorities or recording offices, including but not limited to environmental regulatory authorities, which have a reasonably known interest in the relief requested by the Motion, (viii) all parties to Assumed Contracts, (ix) the United States Attorney's office, (x) the United States Department of Justice, (xi) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (xii) the Internal Revenue Service, (xiii) all entities on the Master Service List (as defined by the Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) And 105 And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002(M), 9006, 9007, And 9014 Establishing Omnibus Hearing Dates And Certain Notice, Case Management, And Administrative Procedures (Docket No. 2883) (the "Supplemental Case Management Order")) and such other entities that are required to be served with notices under the Supplemental Case Management Order.

H. The Purchaser is not an "insider" of any of the Debtors, as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(31).

I. The Agreement was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by MobileAria and the Purchaser without collusion, in good faith, and from arm's-length bargaining positions. Neither MobileAria nor the Purchaser has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Sale to be avoidable under 11 U.S.C. § 363(n).

J. The Purchaser is a good faith purchaser under 11 U.S.C. § 363(m) and, as such, is entitled to all of the protections afforded thereby. The Purchaser will be acting in good faith within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 363(m) in closing the transactions contemplated by the Agreement at all times after the entry of this Sale Order.

K. The consideration provided by the Purchaser for the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Agreement (i) is fair and reasonable, (ii) is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, (iii) will provide a greater recovery for MobileAria's creditors than would be provided by any other practical available alternative, and (iv) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

L. The Sale must be approved and consummated promptly to preserve the viability of MobileAria as a going concern.

M. With the exception of the Assumed Liabilities, the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser will be a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, and will vest the Purchaser with all right, title, and interest of MobileAria to the Acquired Assets free and clear of any and all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances of any type whatsoever (whether known or unknown, choate or inchoate, filed or unfiled, scheduled or unscheduled, noticed or unnoticed, recorded or unrecorded, perfected or unperfected, allowed or disallowed, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, material or non-material, disputed or undisputed, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the Petition Date, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity, or otherwise, including claims otherwise arising under doctrines of successor liability), including, but not limited to those (i) that purport to give to any party a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, right of first refusal, or termination of MobileAria's or the Purchaser's interest in the Acquired Assets, or any similar rights, and (ii) relating to taxes arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of MobileAria's business prior to the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser (collectively, the "Interests or Claims").

N. If the Sale of the Acquired Assets were not free and clear of all Interests or Claims as set forth in the Agreement and this Sale Order, or if the Purchaser would, or in the future could, be liable for any of the Interests or Claims as set forth in the Agreement and this Sale Order, the Purchaser would not have entered into the Agreement and would not consummate the Sale or the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, thus adversely affecting MobileAria, its estate, and its creditors.

O. MobileAria may sell its interests in the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Interests or Claims because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(1)-(5) has been satisfied. All holders of Interests or Claims who did not object, or withdrew their objections to the Sale, are deemed to have consented to the Sale, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(2). Those holders of Interests or Claims who did object fall within one or more of the other subsections of 11 U.S.C. § 363(f) and are adequately protected by having their Interests or Claims, if any, attach to the cash proceeds of the Sale ultimately attributable to the property against or in which they claim an Interest or Claim.

P. The (i) transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser and (ii) assumption and assignment to the Purchaser of the Assumed Contracts and Assumed Liabilities will not subject the Purchaser to any liability whatsoever with respect to the operation of MobileAria's business prior to the Closing of the Sale or by reason of such transfer under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, or possession thereof, or the District of Columbia based, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of law or equity, including, without limitation, any theory of equitable law, including, without limitation, any theory of antitrust or successor or transferee liability.

Q. MobileAria has demonstrated that it is an exercise of its sound business judgment to assume and assign the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser in connection with the consummation of the Sale, and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts is in the best interests of MobileAria, its estate, and its creditors. The Assumed Contracts being assigned to, and the liabilities being assumed by, the Purchaser are an integral part of Acquired Assets being purchased by the Purchaser and, accordingly, such assumption and assignment of Assumed Contracts and liabilities are reasonable, enhance the value of MobileAria's estate, and do not constitute unfair discrimination.

R. MobileAria has (i) cured, or has provided adequate assurance of cure, of any default existing prior to the Closing of the Sale under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1)(A), by payment of the amounts provided on Schedule 2 hereto and (ii) provided compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any party for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the date hereof under any of the Assumed Contracts, with the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1)(B), and the Purchaser has provided adequate assurance of their future performance of and under the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §§ 365(b)(1)(C) and 365(f)(2)(B). The Court hereby finds that the Assumed Contracts to be assumed and assigned under the Agreement shall be assigned and transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of Purchaser notwithstanding any provision in the contracts or other restrictions prohibiting their assignment or transfer, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365(f).

S. Approval of the Agreement and consummation of the Sale of the Acquired Assets at this time are in the best interests of MobileAria, its creditors, its estate, and other parties-in-interest.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

General Provisions

1. The Motion is GRANTED.

Approval Of The Agreement

2. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b), the Agreement and all of the terms and conditions thereof are hereby approved.

3. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b), MobileAria is authorized to perform its obligations under the Agreement and comply with the terms thereof and consummate the Sale in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

4. Each of the signatories to the Agreement is directed to take all actions necessary or appropriate to effectuate the terms of this Sale Order.

5. MobileAria is authorized and directed to execute and deliver, and empowered to perform under, consummate, and implement, the Agreement, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Agreement, and to take all further actions as may be requested by the Purchaser for the purpose of assigning, transferring, granting, conveying, and conferring to the Purchaser or reducing to possession, the Acquired Assets, or as may be necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by the Agreement.

6. This Sale Order and the Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon all creditors (whether known or unknown) of MobileAria, the Purchaser, all successors and assigns of the Purchaser and MobileAria, all affiliates and subsidiaries of the Purchaser and MobileAria, and any subsequent trustees appointed in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code and shall not be subject to rejection. To the extent any provision of this Sale Order is inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement, this Sale Order shall govern.

7. The Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment, or supplement is not material.

Sale And Transfer Of The Acquired Assets

8. Except as expressly permitted or otherwise specifically provided for in the Agreement or this Sale Order, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 363(b) and 363(f), upon the consummation of the Agreement, the Acquired Assets shall be transferred to the Purchaser free and clear of all Interests or Claims, with all such Interests or Claims to attach to the cash proceeds of the Sale in the order of their priority, with the same validity, force, and effect which they now have as against the Acquired Assets, subject to any claims and defenses MobileAria may possess with respect thereto.

9. The transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement constitutes a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, and shall vest the Purchaser with all right, title, and interest of MobileAria in and to the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever.

10. If any person or entity which has filed financing statements, mortgages, mechanic's liens, lis pendens, or other documents or agreements evidencing Interests or Claims against or in the Acquired Assets shall not have delivered the foregoing to MobileAria prior to the Closing of the Sale, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfactions, releases of all Interests or Claims that the person or entity has with respect to the Acquired Assets, or otherwise, then (a) MobileAria is hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases, and other documents on behalf of the person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets and (b) the Purchaser is hereby authorized to file, register, or otherwise record a certified copy of this Sale Order, which, once filed, registered, or otherwise recorded, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all Interests or Claims in the Acquired Assets of any kind or nature whatsoever.

11. This Sale Order (a) shall be effective as a determination that, upon the Closing of the Sale, all Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to MobileAria or the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing of the Sale have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated (other than any surviving obligations), and that the conveyances described herein have been effected and (b) shall be binding upon and shall govern the acts of all entities including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any of the Acquired Assets.

12. Except as expressly permitted or otherwise specifically provided by the Agreement or this Sale Order, all persons and entities, including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax, and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade, and other creditors, holding Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in MobileAria or the Acquired Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, senior or subordinated), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, MobileAria, the Acquired Assets, the operation of MobileAria's business prior to the Closing of the Sale, or the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser, hereby are forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Purchaser, its successor or assign, its property, or the Acquired Assets, such persons' or entities' Interests or Claims.

13. Upon the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement, the Purchaser shall not be deemed to (a) be the successor of MobileAria, (b) have, de facto, or otherwise, merged with or into MobileAria, (c) be a mere continuation or substantial continuation of MobileAria or the enterprise(s) of MobileAria, or (d) be liable for any acts or omissions of MobileAria in the conduct of MobileAria's business.

Assumption And Assignment To The Purchaser Of The Assumed Contracts

14. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 365, and subject to and conditioned upon the Closing of the Sale, MobileAria's assumption and assignment to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser's assumption on the terms set forth in the Agreement, of the Assumed Contracts is hereby approved, and the requirements of 11 U.S.C. §§ 365(b)(1) and 365(f) with respect thereto are hereby deemed satisfied.

15. MobileAria is hereby authorized in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 365 to (a) assume and assign to the Purchaser, effective upon the Closing of the Sale, the Assumed Contracts free and clear of all Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever and (b) execute and deliver to the Purchaser such documents or other instruments as may be necessary to assign and transfer the Assumed Contracts and Assumed Liabilities to the Purchaser. The Post-Petition Contracts, effective upon the Closing of the Sale, shall be assigned to the Purchaser clear of all Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever.

16. The Assumed Contracts shall be transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of, the Purchaser in accordance with their respective terms, notwithstanding any provision in any such Assumed Contract (including those of the type described in sections 365(b)(2) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such assignment or transfer and, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 365(k), MobileAria shall be relieved from any further liability with respect to the Assumed Contracts after such assignment to and assumption by the Purchaser.

17. All defaults or other obligations of MobileAria under the Assumed Contracts and the Post-Petition Contracts arising or accruing prior to the Closing of the Sale (without giving effect to any acceleration clauses or any default provisions of the kind specified in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) shall be cured by MobileAria at the Closing of the Sale or as soon thereafter as practicable, and the Purchaser shall have no liability or obligation arising or accruing prior to the date of the Closing of the Sale, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Agreement. Each non-debtor party to any Assumed Contracts is deemed to have consented to the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to Purchaser and is forever barred from asserting any default existing as of the date of the Closing or any purported written or oral modification to the Assumed Contracts. The failure of the MobileAria, the Debtors or Purchaser to enforce prior to the Closing of the Sale one or more terms or conditions of any Assumed Contracts shall not be a waiver of such terms or conditions, or of MobileAria's, the Debtors' or Purchaser's rights to enforce every term and condition of any such Assumed Contracts.

18. Each non-Debtor party to an Assumed Contract hereby is forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against MobileAria or the Purchaser, or the property of either of them, any default existing, arising or accruing as of the Closing the Sale.

Additional Provisions

19. The consideration provided by the Purchaser for the Acquired Assets under the Agreement is hereby deemed to constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, and under the laws of the United States, and any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

20. Upon the Closing of the Sale, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Acquired Assets or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in such Acquired Assets to the Purchaser on pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

21. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement, upon the Closing of the Sale, each of MobileAria's creditors is authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be necessary to release their respective Interests or Claims against the Acquired Assets, if any, as may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

22. This Sale Order (a) shall be effective as a determination that, upon the Closing of the Sale, all Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to MobileAria or the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing have been unconditionally released, discharged and terminated (other than any surviving obligations), and that the conveyances described herein have been effected, and (b) shall be binding upon and shall govern the acts of all entities including without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any of the Acquired Assets.

23. Each and every federal, state, and governmental agency or department, and any other person or entity, is hereby directed to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

24. All entities who are currently, or as of the Closing of the Sale may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets to be sold, transferred, or conveyed pursuant to the Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser upon the Closing of the Sale.

25. The Purchaser shall have no liability or responsibility for any liability or other obligation of MobileAria arising under or related to the Acquired Assets other than for the Assumed Liabilities. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except as otherwise specifically provided herein and in the Agreement, the Purchaser shall not be liable for any claims against MobileAria or any of its predecessors or affiliates, and the Purchaser shall have no successor or vicarious liabilities of any kind or character whether known or unknown as of the Closing of the Sale, now existing or hereafter arising, whether fixed or contingent, with respect to MobileAria or any obligations of MobileAria arising prior to the Closing of the Sale, including, but not limited to, liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of MobileAria's business prior to the Closing of the Sale.

26. Under no circumstances shall the Purchaser be deemed a successor of or to MobileAria for any Interest or Claim against or in MobileAria or the Acquired Assets of any kind or nature whatsoever. The sale, transfer, assignment, and delivery of the Acquired Assets shall not be subject to any Interests or Claims, and Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever shall remain with, and continue to be obligations of, MobileAria. All persons holding Interests or Claims against or in MobileAria or the Acquired Assets of any kind or nature whatsoever shall be, and hereby are, forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting, prosecuting, or otherwise pursuing such Interests or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Purchaser, its property, its successors and assigns, or the Acquired Assets with respect to any Interest or Claim of any kind or nature whatsoever such person or entity had, has, or may have against or in MobileAria, its estate, its officers, its directors, its shareholders, or the Acquired Assets. Following the Closing of the Sale, no holder of an Interest or Claims in MobileAria shall interfere with the Purchaser's title to or use and enjoyment of the Acquired Assets based on or related to such Interest or Claim, or any actions that MobileAria may take in its chapter 11 case.

27. The transactions contemplated by the Agreement are undertaken by the Purchaser in good faith, as that term is used in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the sale of the Acquired Assets shall not affect the validity of the Sale to the Purchaser, unless such authorization is duly stayed pending such appeal. The Purchaser is a purchaser in good faith of the Acquired Assets, and is entitled to all of the protections afforded by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. The consideration provided by the Purchaser for the Acquired Assets under the Agreement is fair and reasonable and the Sale may not be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

29. MobileAria, including, but not limited to, its officers, employees, and agents, is hereby authorized to execute such documents and do such acts as are necessary or desirable to carry out the transactions contemplated by the terms and conditions of the Agreement and this Sale Order. MobileAria shall be, and it hereby is, authorized to take all such actions as may be necessary to effectuate the terms of this Sale Order.

30. The terms and provisions of the Agreement and this Sale Order shall be binding in all respects upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, MobileAria, its estates, and its creditors, the Purchaser, and their respective affiliates, successors, and assigns, and any affected third parties, including, but not limited to, all persons asserting an Interest or Claim in the Acquired Assets to be sold to the Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement, notwithstanding any subsequent appointment of any trustee, party, entity, or other fiduciary under any section of any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, as to which trustee, party, entity, or other fiduciary such terms and provisions likewise shall be binding.

31. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the term "Acquired Assets" as defined herein does not include property that is not property of MobileAria's estate, such as funds that are trust funds under any applicable state lien laws.

32. To the extent permitted by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any permit or license relating to the operation of the Acquired Assets sold, transferred, or conveyed to the Purchaser on account of the filing or pendency of these chapter 11 cases or the consummation of the Sale.

33. The failure specifically to include or to reference any particular provision of the Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

34. The Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment, or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on MobileAria's estate.

35. The provisions of this Sale Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

36. Nothing in this Sale Order shall alter or amend the Agreement and the obligations of MobileAria and the Purchaser thereunder.

37. This Court retains jurisdiction to enforce and implement the terms and provisions of the Agreement, all amendments thereto, any waivers and consents thereunder, and of each of the agreements executed in connection therewith in all respects, including, but not limited to, retaining jurisdiction to (a) compel delivery of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser, (b) compel delivery of the purchase price or performance of other obligations owed to MobileAria pursuant to the Agreement, (c) resolve any disputes arising under or related to the Agreement, except as otherwise provided therein, (d) interpret, implement, and enforce the provisions of this Sale Order, and (e) protect the Purchaser against any Interests or Claims against MobileAria or the Acquired Assets, of any kind or nature whatsoever, attaching to the proceeds of the Sale.

38. Notwithstanding Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or any other Bankruptcy Rule, this Sale Order shall take effect immediately upon its entry.

39. The requirement under Rule 9013-1(b) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Motion.

B. While the restrictions contained in this Section 8.5.1 are considered by the parties to be reasonable in all the circumstances, it is recognized that restrictions of the nature in question may fail for technical reasons and, accordingly, it is hereby agreed and declared that if any of such restrictions shall be adjudged to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of Purchaser and/or the Business but would be valid if part of the wording thereof were deleted or the periods thereof reduced or the range of activities or area dealt with thereby reduced in scope the said restriction shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to make it valid and effective.

C. Seller will cooperate with Purchaser to transition the letter of credit arrangement set forth in Section 4.3 as of the Closing Date.

8.5.2. Technical Documentation. Seller has delivered, or will deliver on or before the Closing, to the Purchaser, a copy of all Technical Documentation included in the Acquired Assets. For a period of not less than one (1) year commencing at Closing, Purchaser and its Affiliates shall use reasonable efforts to maintain all Technical Documentation applicable to product design, test, release, validation and manufacture it acquires from Seller and its Affiliates in connection with the purchase of the Acquired Assets under Article 1 of this Agreement at a location at which they shall be reasonably accessible to Seller and its Affiliates upon reasonable request and with reasonable advance notice. During such one (1) year period, Purchaser shall not intentionally destroy or give up possession of its final copy of such documentation without offering Seller the opportunity, at Seller's expense but without any payment to Purchaser, to obtain a copy of such documentation.

8.5.3. Books and Records and Litigation Assistance From and After Closing:

A. Purchaser and its Affiliates shall use reasonable efforts to preserve and keep all books, records, computer files, software programs and any data processing files delivered to Purchaser by Seller and its Affiliates pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement for a period of not less than one (1) year from the Closing Date, or for any longer period as may be required of the Business by any government agency, law, regulation, audit or appeal of Taxes, or Tax examination at Purchaser's sole cost and expense. If and when Seller believes that such records are no longer legally required, it will notify Purchaser. During such period, Purchaser shall: (i) provide Seller or its Affiliates with such documents and information as necessary, consistent with past practice, to complete the accounting books and records of the Business as of December 31, 2006; and (ii) make such books and records available to Seller and its Affiliates as may be reasonably required by Seller and its Affiliates in connection with any legal proceedings against or governmental investigations of Seller and its Affiliates or in connection with any Tax examination, audit or appeal of Taxes of Seller and its Affiliates, the Business or the Acquired Assets during such period. Seller or its Affiliates shall reimburse Purchaser for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with any request by Seller to make available records pursuant to the foregoing sentence. In the event Purchaser wishes to destroy or dispose of such books and records after one (1) year from the Closing Date, it shall first give not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Seller or its Affiliates, and Seller or its Affiliates shall have the right, at its option, upon prior written notice given to Purchaser within twenty (20) days of receipt of Purchaser's notice, to take possession of said records within thirty (30) days after the date of Purchaser's notice to Seller hereunder.

B. Purchaser, for itself and on behalf of its Affiliates, agrees to: (i) retain all documents required to be maintained by federal, state, national or local legislation or regulations; (ii) make available documents and records delivered to it by Seller reasonably necessary in connection with any pursuit, contest or defense related to the Business, including documents that may be considered to be "confidential" or subject to trade secret protection (except that: (a) no documents or records protected by the attorney client privilege in favor of Purchaser must be made available if making these documents or records available would cause the loss of this privilege (in any case, however, Purchaser must notify Seller of the existence of such privileged documents); and (b) Seller and its Affiliates will agree to keep confidential and not use for any other purpose documents and records that are confidential or are subject to trade secret protection); (iii) make available, as may be reasonably necessary and upon reasonable advance notice and for reasonable periods so as not to significantly interfere with Purchaser's business, mutually acceptable engineers, technicians or other knowledgeable individuals to assist Seller and its Affiliates in connection with such claim.

8.5.4. Payment and Collections. Seller shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to segregate payments made or collections received on behalf of Purchaser after Closing, and Purchaser shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to segregate payments made or collections received on behalf of Seller after Closing, in order to ensure that the cost of the related liability or the benefits of the related assets accrue to the appropriate Party in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. To the extent that any such collections are received after Closing in the form of checks or other negotiable instruments payable to the other Party, Seller or Purchaser, as appropriate, shall promptly take all necessary action to endorse such checks or instruments to permit the appropriate Party to collect the proceeds of such checks and instruments. Seller shall promptly send Purchaser copies of all remittance advices and checks related to payments received by Seller with respect to such items. Purchaser shall notify the Business' customers of the change in address of the owner of the Acquired Assets as may be required in order for such customers to properly remit any payments required under any applicable Acquired Asset and Seller shall cooperate with Purchaser as is reasonably necessary to so notify such customers, including providing appropriate contact information for each such customer.

8.5.5. Intellectual Property Transition Rights. Seller will have the right to continue to use the MobileAria corporate name and office materials of the Business in existence at the Closing and bearing any trademark, service mark, trade name or related corporate name of MobileAria, but only in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases and the dissolution and wind down of Seller.

8.6. Further Assurances. If at any time after the Closing any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, each of the Parties will take such further action (including the execution and delivery of such further instructions and documents) as any other Party reasonably may request, all at the sole cost and expense of the requesting Party (unless the requesting Party is entitled to indemnification therefor under this Agreement).

8.7. [Reserved]

8.8. Certain Transactions. Purchaser shall not acquire or agree to acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial portion of the assets of or equity in, or by any other manner, any business or any corporation, partnership, association or other business organization or division thereof, or otherwise acquire or agree to acquire any assets if the entering into of a definitive agreement relating to or the consummation of such acquisition, merger or consolidation would reasonably be expected to: (i) impose any material delay in the obtaining of, or significantly increase the risk of not obtaining, any authorizations, consents, orders, declarations or approvals of any Governmental Entity necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements or the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period; (ii) significantly increase the risk of any Governmental Entity entering an order prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements; (iii) significantly increase the risk of not being able to remove any such order on appeal or otherwise; or (iv) materially delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Agreements.

8.9. Communications with Customers and Suppliers. Prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and representatives not to, contact, engage in any discussions or otherwise communicate with any of the Business' customers, suppliers and others with whom it has material commercial dealings without obtaining the prior written consent of Seller (which may be conditioned on Seller having the right to participate in any meetings or discussion with any such customers, suppliers or others); provided, that Purchaser and Seller shall work together in good faith to arrange for an orderly transition of customer, supplier, and other third party relationships, including, without limitation, at the request of Purchaser, meetings and other correspondence with such customers, suppliers, and other third parties to ensure such orderly transition. Purchaser may contact Verizon Services Corp. to: (i) ensure orderly transition of the Verizon Contract to Purchaser; and (ii) reduce and assess the likelihood of termination of the Verizon Contract by Verizon Services Corp. or material reduction of the amount of business conducted pursuant to the Verizon Contract, provided that Purchaser provides at least twenty-four (24) hour prior notice to Seller and permits Seller to supervise such correspondence at Seller's election.

9. TERMINATION:

9.1. Termination. Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, this Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby abandoned at any time prior to the Closing Date:

9.1.1. By Either Party:

A. By mutual written consent of Seller and Purchaser.

B. Provided the terminating Party is not in default of its obligations under this Agreement, if consummation of the Sale would violate any non-appealable Final Order of any regulatory Governmental Entity, other than the Bankruptcy Court.

C. If Seller consummates an Alternative Transaction.

D. Provided the terminating Party is not in default of its obligations under this Agreement, by either Seller or Purchaser if the Closing shall not have occurred by July 31, 2006.

E. If the Bankruptcy Court has not entered the Sale Approval Order, on or before July 26, 2006 (the "Termination Date") or such Sale Approval Order is subject to a stay or injunction; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1.1.E shall not be available to Purchaser if Purchaser shall have failed to perform, or caused any of its respective Affiliates to perform, any of its respective material obligations under this Agreement.

9.1.2. By Purchaser. By Purchaser (provided that Purchaser is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) (i) at any time prior to Closing, if a Material Adverse Effect shall have occurred, Purchaser may terminate within ten (10) Business Days after receiving written notice of such event, so long as such event is continuing at the time of any such termination; (ii) if Verizon Services Corp. has terminated, threatened to terminate, or Verizon otherwise evidences an intent to terminate the Verizon Contract or materially reduce the amount of business conducted pursuant to the Verizon Contract or (iii) on or after July 27, 2006, if Seller accepts a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids at the Auction other than that of the Purchaser, solely if each of the following conditions precedent are met: (a) Purchaser does not submit a Subsequent Bid at the Auction; and (b) Seller does not provide notice on or before 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) on July 26, 2006 that, notwithstanding Seller's acceptance of a Qualified Bid or Qualified Bids other than that of the Purchaser at the Auction, it intends to close the transactions contemplated hereby on or before July 31, 2006. Should Purchaser submit a Subsequent Bid at the Auction, Purchaser shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement under (iii) above and Purchaser's Subsequent Bid shall be irrevocable until the earlier of: (y) two (2) Business Days after the closing of the Sale of the Acquired Assets; or (z) August 31, 2006.

In addition, Purchaser may conduct a due diligence investigation (i) in connection with the matters described in Schedule 5.1.7.E. and (ii) in order to confirm the accuracy of Item 19 on Schedule 5.1.7.A.2 and the effect on the Business of such license. In the event that Purchaser notifies Seller in writing prior to 6:00 p.m. EDT on June 9, 2006 (or such later date as the parties may mutually agree) that the results of such further due diligence investigation are not reasonably acceptable to Purchaser and Seller and Purchaser are not able to agree upon a mutually acceptable resolution to such concerns, then Purchaser may, in such written notice, terminate this Agreement. In the event of such termination, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be the prompt return of the Deposit Amount, and Seller shall have no other liability to Purchaser whatsoever, whether a Break-Up Fee, Expense Reimbursement or otherwise .

9.1.3. By Seller. If Seller accepts or is about to accept a Qualified Bid at the Auction other than that of Purchaser, provided that such termination shall be of no effect if Seller does not: (i) enter into an agreement with respect to such Qualified Bid within two (2) Business Days after termination hereunder; and (ii) subsequently complete the Sale pursuant to an Alternative Transaction.

9.2. Notice of Termination. In the event of any termination pursuant to this Article 9, written notice thereof setting forth the reasons therefor shall promptly be given to the other Party and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be terminated, without further action by any Party.

9.3. Break-Up Fee; Expense Reimbursement:

9.3.1. Break-Up Fee. Subject to Section 9.3.4, in the event that: (i) Seller sells, transfers, leases or otherwise disposes, directly or indirectly, including through an asset sale, stock sale, merger or other similar transaction, all or substantially all or a material portion of the Business or the Acquired Assets in a transaction or a series of transactions with one or more parties other than Purchaser (such event being an "Alternative Transaction"); or (ii) Purchaser rightfully terminates the Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1.2(iii) hereof, Seller shall, within two (2) Business Days after the consummation of an Alternative Transaction(s), pay to Purchaser an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the Purchase Price (the "Break-Up Fee"), unless the Agreement is then terminated under Sections 9.1.1.B; in which case no Break-Up Fee shall be payable. The claim of Purchaser for a Break-up Fee shall be paid to Purchaser from the sale proceeds of an Alternative Transaction and, until paid in full, shall constitute a superpriority administrative expense claim under Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9.3.2. Expense Reimbursement. In the event this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 9.1.1.D or 9.1.1.E, and provided that Purchaser is not then in breach of this Agreement for which Seller had previously notified Purchaser, and, in the case of Section 9.1.1.D, the failure or occurrence of the event giving rise to any such termination results solely from the status of Seller or any action or conduct of Seller and not from the status of Purchaser or any intentional action or conduct of Purchaser, then Seller shall be obligated to pay Purchaser an amount equal to Purchaser's reasonable, actual out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses of its financial advisors, and expenses of other consultants) incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Expense Reimbursement") up to a maximum of $120,000. Any Expense Reimbursement payable upon termination of this Agreement shall be immediately earned upon such termination and payable by Seller to Purchaser promptly upon the delivery of an invoice related to such Expense Reimbursement to Seller by Purchaser to be delivered to Seller within ten (10) Business days of termination of this Agreement. The claim of Purchaser for an Expense Reimbursement shall constitute a superpriority administrative expense under Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9.3.3. Payments to Purchaser pursuant to this Section 9.3 shall be by wire transfer of immediately available funds in U.S. Dollars, to such account or accounts as Purchaser shall designate in writing.

9.3.4. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, in the event that it terminates this Agreement or Seller terminates this Agreement and Purchaser becomes entitled to receive or receives any Expense Reimbursement, Purchaser shall not be entitled to receive nor shall it receive the Break-Up Fee or any portion thereof, and, conversely, that in the event that Purchaser becomes entitled to receive or receives any Break-Up Fee, it shall not be entitled to receive nor shall it receive the Expense Reimbursement or any portion thereof. In the event that Purchaser would be entitled to receive both the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement but for the operation of this Section 9.3.4, Purchaser shall be entitled to receive the greater of such amounts.

9.4. Procedure and Effect of Termination. In the event of termination and abandonment of the transactions contemplated hereby pursuant to Section 9.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other Parties to this Agreement, and this Agreement shall terminate (subject to the provisions of this Article 9) and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be abandoned, without further action by any of the parties hereto. If this Agreement is terminated as provided herein no Party shall have any liability or further obligation to any other Party resulting from such termination except for the provisions of: (i)(a) Purchasers' obligations under that certain confidentiality agreement between the Parties dated April 10, 2006; (b) Article 9 (Termination); and (c) Sections 4.1.1 (Deposit Amount), 13.2 (Notice), 13.3 (Assignment), 13.4 (Entire Agreement), 13.5 (Waiver), 13.8 (Expenses), 13.12 (Governing Law), 13.13 (Public Announcements), 13.15 (Venue and Retention of Jurisdiction) and 13.18 (Dispute Resolution), all of which shall remain in full force and effect; and (ii) no party waives any claim or right against a breaching party in respect of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement occurring prior to such termination; provided, however, that in the event Purchaser is entitled to receive the Break-Up Fee, the right of Purchaser to receive such amount shall constitute Purchaser's sole remedy for (and such amount shall constitute liquidated damages in respect of) any breach by Seller of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement, and provided, further, that in the event Seller is entitled to receive the Deposit Amount, the right of Seller to receive such amount shall constitute Seller's sole remedy for (and such amount shall constitute liquidated damages in respect of) any breach by Purchaser of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement. In connection with any termination of this Agreement, all filings, applications and other submissions made pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be withdrawn from the agency or Person to which made.

10. OTHER TAX MATTERS:

10.1. Seller will be responsible for the preparation and filing of all Tax Returns for the Business for all periods for which Tax Returns are due prior to the Closing, including amended returns, applications for loss carryback refunds and applications for estimated tax refunds. Purchaser shall make available to Seller (and to Seller's accountants and attorneys) any and all books and records and other documents and information in its possession or control reasonably requested by Seller to prepare these Tax Returns. Seller will make all payments required with respect to any such Tax Return.

10.2. Purchaser will be responsible for the preparation and filing of all Tax Returns for the Business for all periods for which Tax Returns are due after the Closing (other than for Taxes with respect to periods for which the consolidated, unitary and Tax Returns of Seller will include the operations of the Business). Purchaser shall be responsible for and shall pay when due all Taxes attributable, levied or imposed upon or incurred in connection with the Acquired Assets and the Business pertaining to: (a) any period ending after the Closing Date; and (b) the portion of any Taxes for which Purchaser is liable as determined in accordance with Section 10.3 below.

10.3. For purposes of this Article 10 and Section 2.3, whenever it is necessary to allocate the liability for Taxes for a Straddle Period, the determination of the Taxes of the Business for the portion of the Straddle Period ending at the end of the Closing Date (the "Pre-Closing Portion") and the portion of the Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date (the "Post-Closing Portion") will be determined by assuming that the Straddle Period consisted of two taxable years or periods, one of which ended at the close of business on the Closing Date and the other of which began at the beginning of the day after the Closing Date, and items of income, gain, deduction, loss or credit related to the Acquired Assets and the Business for the Straddle Period will be allocated between such two (2) taxable years or periods on a "closing of the books basis" by assuming that the books associated with the Business were closed at the end of the Closing Date; provided, however, that all real property taxes, personal property taxes, ad valorem obligations and similar taxes imposed on a periodic basis, in each case levied with respect to the Acquired Assets (other than Taxes resulting from the transactions described herein as provided for in Section 10.1) for a Straddle Period shall be apportioned between Seller and Purchaser as of the Closing Date based on the number of days of such taxable period up to and including the Closing Date and the number of days of such taxable period following the Closing Date. Seller shall be liable for the proportionate amount of such taxes that is attributable to the period up to and including the Closing Date; Purchaser shall be liable for the proportionate amount of such taxes that is attributable to the period following the Closing Date.

10.4. Seller and Purchaser will cooperate in connection with: (i) the preparation of filing of any Tax Return, Tax election, Tax consent or certification or any claim for a Tax refund; (ii) any determination of liability for Taxes; and (iii) any audit, examination or other proceeding in respect of Taxes related to the Business or the Acquired Assets. Such cooperation includes a reasonable amount of direct access to accounting, engineering and contracting personnel, subject to availability, which shall not be unreasonably restricted, and advance notice to Purchaser's chief financial officer.

10.5. Seller shall not, and shall not cause the Business to make, revoke or amend any tax election, execute any waiver of restrictions or tax assessments or collections or extensions if there will be any impact on Purchaser as a result of doing so.

11. BIDDING PROCEDURES:

11.1. MobileAria Initial Bankruptcy Actions. This Article 11 sets forth the bidding procedures (the "Bidding Procedures") to be employed with respect to the Agreement and the sale (the "Sale") of the Acquired Assets. The Sale is subject to competitive bidding as set forth herein and approval by the Bankruptcy Court in the Sale Approval Order. The following overbid provisions and related bid protections are designed to compensate the Purchaser for its efforts and agreements to date and to facilitate a full and fair process (the "Bidding Process") designed to maximize the value of the Acquired Assets for the benefit of Seller and its Affiliates' creditors, shareholders and bankruptcy estate.

11.2. Court Approval. Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, Seller shall file the Sale Motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking: (i) entry of the Bidding Procedures Order approving the Bidding Procedures, the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement; and (ii) subject to the competitive bidding process provided under the Bidding Procedures, entry of the Sale Approval Order approving this Agreement and the transaction specified herein. It is a material inducement to Purchaser to be able to acquire the Acquired Assets pursuant to the provisions of Sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, including in particular free and clear of Liens pursuant to Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any and all obligations of Purchaser under this Agreement are subject to the entry of the Sale Approval Order approving this Agreement and the transaction specified herein, and ordering, finding or concluding that, among other things: (a) notice of the Sale Motion and the transactions contemplated hereunder was proper and sufficient to all parties entitled to such notice; (b) the sale of the Acquired Assets to Purchaser is approved pursuant to Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Purchaser is approved pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and that the Cure Amounts to be paid by the Seller on the Closing Date to the non-debtor parties to the Assumed Contracts satisfy all monetary obligations and defaults of the Seller to those non-debtor third parties required to be cured pursuant to Section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; (d) the sale of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement will be free and clear of all known and unknown Liens pursuant to Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code; (e) Purchaser is not a continuation of Seller or its estate, there is no continuity of enterprise between Seller and Purchaser, Purchaser is not a successor to Seller or its estate and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement do not amount to, or otherwise constitute a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of Purchaser and Seller or its estate; (f) Purchaser has acted in good faith within the context of and is entitled to the protections of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code; (g) the transactions contemplated hereunder are not avoidable pursuant to Section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code; (h) Purchaser is not assuming or acquiring any of Seller's liabilities except as specifically provided in this Agreement; and (i) the Sale Approval Order shall be effective immediately notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(g) and 6006(d). Seller shall be responsible for making all appropriate filings relating thereto with the Bankruptcy Court, which filings shall be submitted to the Purchaser as far prior to their filing with the Bankruptcy Court as reasonably practicable for the Purchaser's prior review and, solely with respect to the Bidding Procedures Order and the Sale Approval Order, approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Should Seller not have received Purchaser's approval of the Bidding Procedures Order and the Sale Approval Order prior to Seller's deadline for filing with the Bankruptcy Court, Seller may file such documents with the Bankruptcy Court and may submit a revised Bidding Procedures Order and/or Sale Approval Order reflecting agreed modifications thereto, if any, to the Bankruptcy Court prior to the hearing thereon.

11.3. Qualified Bidder. Unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, for cause shown, or as otherwise determined by the Seller, in order to participate in the bidding process, each person (a "Potential Bidder"), other than the Purchaser, must deliver (unless previously delivered) to Seller:

11.3.1. An executed confidentiality agreement in form and substance satisfactory to Seller.

11.3.2. Current audited financial statements of the Potential Bidder, or, if the Potential Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Acquired Assets and the Business, current audited financial statements of the equity holders of the Potential Bidder who shall guarantee the obligations of the Potential Bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and credit-quality support or enhancement acceptable to Seller and its financial advisors; and 11.3.3. A preliminary (non-binding) written proposal regarding: (i) the purchase price; (ii) any assets and/or equity interests expected to be excluded; (iii) the structure and financing of the transaction (including, but not limited to, the sources of financing for the Purchase Price and the requisite Financial Assurance); (iv) any anticipated regulatory approvals required to close the transaction, the anticipated time frame and any anticipated impediments for obtaining such approvals; (v) any conditions to closing that it may wish to impose in addition to those set forth in this Agreement; and (vi) the nature and extent of additional due diligence it may wish to conduct and the date by which such due diligence will be completed.

A Potential Bidder that delivers the documents described in the previous subparagraphs above and whose financial information and credit-quality support or enhancement demonstrate the financial capability of the Potential Bidder to consummate the Sale, if selected as a successful bidder, and that the Seller determines in its sole discretion is likely (based on availability of financing, experience and other considerations) to be able to consummate the Sale within the time frame provided by this Agreement shall be deemed a "Qualified Bidder". As promptly as practicable, after a Potential Bidder delivers all of the materials required above, Seller shall determine, and shall notify the Potential Bidder, if such Potential Bidder is a Qualified Bidder. At the same time that Seller notifies the Potential Bidder that it is a Qualified Bidder, Seller shall allow the Qualified Bidder to begin to conduct due diligence with respect to the Acquired Assets and the Business as provided in Section 11.5 below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder for purposes of the Bidding Process.

11.4. Bid Deadline. A Qualified Bidder (other than Purchaser) that desires to make a bid shall deliver written copies of its bid to: MobileAria, Inc., 800 West El Camino Real, Suite 240, Mountain View, California 94040, Attention: Richard Lind with copies to: (i) Delphi Automotive Systems LLC, 5725 Delphi Drive, Troy, Michigan, 48098, Attention: Stephen H. Olsen; (ii) the Seller's restructuring counsel, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, at 333 West Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60601-1285, Attention: John K. Lyons and Randall G. Reese; (iii) the Seller's financial advisor, Pagemill Partners, LLC, 2475 Hanover Street, Palo Alto, California 94304, Attention: Milledge A. Hart; (iv) the Seller's corporate counsel, DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP, 2000 University Avenue, East Palo Alto, California 94303, Attention: James M. Koshland; (v) counsel to the Creditors' Committee), Latham & Watkins LLP, at 885 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Mark A. Brode; (vi) the Creditors' Committee's financial advisor, Mesirow Financial Consulting LLC, 666 Third Avenue, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10017, Attention: Ben Pickering; (vii) counsel to the debtors' prepetition lenders, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 25 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Attention: Kenneth S. Ziman; and (viii) the debtors' pre-petition lenders' financial advisor, Alvarez & Marsal, 600 Lexington Avenue, 6th Floor, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Andrew Hede so as to be received not later than 11:00 A.M. (New York Time), on June 29, 2006 (the "Bid Deadline"). As soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of each Qualified Bid, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser and its counsel complete copies of all items and information enumerated in Section 11.6 of this Agreement.

11.5. Due Diligence. Seller shall afford each Qualified Bidder due diligence access to the Acquired Assets and the Business. Due diligence access may include management presentations as may be scheduled by Seller, access to data rooms, on site inspections and such other matters which a Qualified Bidder may request and as to which Seller, in its sole discretion, may agree to. Seller shall designate an employee or other representative to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from Qualified Bidders. Any additional due diligence shall not continue after the Bid Deadline. Seller may, in its discretion, coordinate diligence efforts such that multiple Qualified Bidders have simultaneous access to due diligence materials and/or simultaneous attendance at management presentations or site inspections. Neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates (or any of their respective representatives) shall be obligated to furnish any information relating to Acquired Assets and the Business to any Person other than to Qualified Bidders who make an acceptable preliminary proposal.

11.6. Bid Requirements. All bids must include the following documents (the "Required Bid Documents");

11.6.1. A letter stating that the bidder's offer is irrevocable until the earlier of: (i) two (2) Business Days after the closing of the Sale of the Acquired Assets; or (ii) August 31, 2006.

11.6.2. An executed copy of the Agreement, together with all schedules a ("Marked Agreement") marked to show those amendments and modifications to such agreement and schedules that the Qualified Bidder proposes, including the Purchase Price.

11.6.3. A good faith deposit (the "Good Faith Deposit") in the form of a certified bank check from a U.S. bank or by wire transfer (or other form acceptable to Seller in its sole discretion) payable to the order of Seller (or such other party as Seller may determine) in an amount equal to US$500,000.

11.6.4. Written evidence of a commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the proposed transaction satisfactory to Seller and its advisors.

11.7. Qualified Bids. A bid will be considered only if the bid:

11.7.1. Is on terms and conditions (other than the amount of the consideration and the particular liabilities being assumed) that are substantially similar to, and are not materially more burdensome or conditional to Seller than, those contained in the Agreement.

11.7.2. Is not conditioned on obtaining financing or on the outcome of unperformed due diligence by the bidder.

11.7.3. Proposes a transaction that Seller determines, in its sole discretion, is not materially more burdensome or conditional than the terms of the Agreement and has a value, either individually or, when evaluated in conjunction with any other Qualified Bid, greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus (i) in the case of the initial Qualified Bid, $ 400,000; and (ii) $100,000 in the case of any subsequent Qualified Bids, over the immediately preceding highest Qualified Bid.

11.7.4. Is not conditioned upon any bid protections, such as a break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement or similar type of payment.

11.7.5. An acknowledgement and representation that the bidder: (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Acquired Assets prior to making its offer; (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Acquired Assets in making its bid; and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Acquired Assets, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith or the Auction, except as expressly stated in the Agreement or the Marked Agreement.

11.7.6. Includes a commitment to consummate the purchase of the Acquired Assets (including the receipt of any required governmental or regulatory approvals) within not more than fifteen (15) days after entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving such purchase, subject to the receipt of any governmental or regulatory approvals which must be obtained within twenty (20) days after entry of such order.

11.7.7. Is received by the Bid Deadline.

A bid received from a Qualified Bidder will constitute a "Qualified Bid" only if it includes all of the Required Bid Documents and meets all of the above requirements; provided, however, that Seller shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to entertain bids for the Acquired Assets that do not conform to one or more of the requirements specified herein and deem such bids to be Qualified Bids; provided, further, however, that no bid shall be deemed by Seller to be a Qualified Bid unless such bid proposes a transaction that Seller determines, in its sole discretion, has a value, greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price, plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus $400,000, taking into account all material terms of any such bid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder, and the Agreement shall be deemed a Qualified Bid, for all purposes in connection with the bidding process, the Auction, and the Sale. A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon factors such as the net value provided by such bid and the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction. Each Qualified Bid other than that of the Purchaser is referred to as a "Subsequent Bid".

If Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids other than the Agreement received from the Purchaser, Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court and will proceed with the Sale pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

11.8. Bid Protection. [Reserved]

11.9. Auction, Bidding Increments and Bids Remaining Open. If Seller receives at least one (1) Qualified Bid in addition to the Agreement, Seller will conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Acquired Assets and the Business upon notice to all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids at 10:00 a.m. EST on or before July 10, 2006, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Four Times Square, New York, New York 10036, in accordance with the following procedures:

11.9.1. Only Seller, Delphi, Purchaser, any representative of the Committee, any representative of the secured lenders (and the legal and financial advisers to each of the foregoing), and any Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid shall be entitled to attend the Auction, and only Purchaser and Qualified Bidders will be entitled to make any subsequent Qualified Bids at the Auction.

11.9.2. At least two (2) Business Days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid must inform Seller whether it intends to participate in the Auction and at least one (1) Business Day prior to the Auction, Seller shall provide copies of the Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids which Seller believes is the highest or otherwise best offer to all Qualified Bidders who have informed Seller of their intent to participate in the Auction. Should an Auction take place, Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the Auction. Purchaser's election not to participate in an Auction shall in no way impair its entitlement to receive the Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement, as applicable.

11.9.3. All bidders shall be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids with the understanding that the true identity of each bidder shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders and that all material terms of each Subsequent Bid will be fully disclosed to all other bidders throughout the entire Auction.

11.9.4. Seller may employ and announce at the Auction additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances (e.g., the amount of time allotted to make Subsequent Bids) for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules are not inconsistent with these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith.

11.9.5. Bidding at the Auction shall begin with the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids and continue in minimum increments of at least $100,000 higher than the previous bid or bids. The Auction shall continue in one or more rounds of bidding and shall conclude after each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit an additional Subsequent Bid with full knowledge and written confirmation of the then-existing highest bid or bids. For the purpose of evaluating the value of the consideration provided by Subsequent Bids (including any Subsequent Bid by the Purchaser), Seller shall give Purchaser a credit in an amount equal to the greater of any Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement that may be payable to Purchaser under this Agreement and shall give effect to any assets and/or equity interests to be retained by Seller.

11.9.6. At the conclusion of the Auction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, Seller, in consultation with its financial advisors, shall: (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the sale; and (ii) identify the highest or otherwise best offer(s) for the Acquired Assets and the Business received at the Auction (the "Successful Bid(s)" and the bidder(s) making such bid, the "Successful Bidder(s)").

11.10. Acceptance of Qualified Bids. Seller shall sell the Acquired Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid upon the approval of such Qualified Bid by the Bankruptcy Court after the hearing (the "Sale Hearing"). If, after an Auction in which the Purchaser: (i) shall have bid an amount in excess of the consideration presently provided for in the Agreement with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Agreement; and (ii) is the Successful Bidder, it shall, at the Closing under the Agreement, pay, in full satisfaction of the Successful Bid, an amount equal to: (a) the amount of the Successful Bid; less (b) the Break-Up Fee.

11.11. Sale Hearing. The Sale Hearing will be held before the Honorable Robert Drain on July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (New York City time) at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located in New York, New York, but may be adjourned or rescheduled without further notice by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing. If Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid of the Purchaser), Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing and will proceed with a sale of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the Sale Order. If Seller does receive additional Qualified Bids, then, at the Sale Hearing, Seller shall seek approval of the Successful Bid(s), as well as the second highest or best Qualified Bid(s) (the "Alternate Bid(s)" and such bidder(s), the "Alternate Bidder(s)"). Seller's presentation to the Bankruptcy Court of the Successful Bid(s) and Alternate Bid(s) shall not constitute Seller's acceptance of either or any such bid(s), which acceptance shall only occur upon approval of such bid(s) by the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing. Following approval of the sale to the Successful Bidder(s), if the Successful Bidder(s) fail(s) to consummate the sale because of: (i) failure of a condition precedent beyond the control of either Seller or the Successful Bidder; or (ii) a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder(s), then the Alternate Bid(s) shall be deemed to be the Successful Bid(s) and Seller shall effectuate a sale to the Alternate Bidder(s) without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

11.12. Return of Good Faith Deposit. Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders (except for the Successful Bidder) shall be held in an interest-bearing escrow account and all Qualified Bids shall remain open (notwithstanding Bankruptcy Court approval of a sale pursuant to the terms of one or more Successful Bids by one or more Qualified Bidders), until two (2) Business Days following the closing of the Sale (the "Return Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Good Faith Deposit, if any, submitted by the Successful Bidder(s), together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the Purchase Price upon closing of the Sale to the Successful Bidder(s). If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, Seller will not have any obligation to return the Good Faith Deposit deposited by such Successful Bidder, and such Good Faith Deposit shall irrevocably become property of Seller. On the Return Date, Seller shall return the Good Faith Deposits of all other Qualified Bidders, together with the accrued interest thereon.

11.13. Reservation of Rights. Seller, after consultation with the agents for its secured lenders and the Committee: (i) may determine, which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer; and (ii) may reject at any time, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) that is: (a) inadequate or insufficient; (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures or the terms and conditions of the Sale; or (c) contrary to the best interests of Seller, its estate and creditors as determined by Seller in its sole discretion

12. INDEMNIFICATION:

12.1. Seller's Agreement to Indemnify. If the Closing occurs and Purchaser makes a written claim for indemnification against Seller in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article 12 prior to the Expiration Date, then Seller agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser subject to the terms of this Article 12, from and after the Closing, from and against all out-of-pocket liabilities, claims, assessments, losses, judgments, settlements, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (collectively, the "Purchaser Damages") incurred by Purchaser as a result of or arising out of: (i) those Retained Liabilities and those Excluded Assets that are retained at Closing by Seller; (ii) a breach of any representation or warranty in this Agreement; (iii) any covenant to be performed on or before Closing; or (iv) a breach of any agreement or covenant of Seller in this Agreement to be performed after Closing; and the sole source to satisfy any remedy with respect to (i) and (ii) above shall be the Escrow Amount, and the limit of Seller's obligation with respect to clauses (i) and (ii) above, shall be $975,000.00. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any claim based on clause (iii) must be made within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Closing Date. As soon as possible after the Expiration Date, the Escrow Amount, including all cash, interest accrued thereon and other property retained by the Escrow Agent, will be delivered to Seller by the Escrow Agent, less an amount necessary to satisfy the amount of all then outstanding claims by Purchaser for Purchaser Damages in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement.

12.2. Purchaser's Agreement to Indemnify. If the Closing occurs and Seller makes a written claim for indemnification against Purchaser in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article 12, then, from and after the Closing, Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller from and against all out-of-pocket liabilities, claims, assessments, losses, judgments, settlements, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (collectively, the "Seller Damages") incurred by Seller as a result of or arising out of: (i) the Assumed Liabilities; (ii) a breach of any representation or warranty of Purchaser contained herein; (iii) any covenant to be performed on or before Closing; (iv) a breach of any agreement or covenant of Purchaser contained herein to be performed after Closing; or (v) the use, operation or ownership of the Business or any of the Acquired Assets after the Closing unless such matters are of a nature also subject to indemnification pursuant to Section 12.1. The maximum amount of Purchaser's obligations under clauses (i), (ii) and (v) above shall be $975,000.00. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any claim based on clause (iii) must be made within one hundred eighty (180) days after the Closing Date.

12.3. Limitations on Agreements to Indemnify. The obligations of either Party to indemnify the other pursuant to this Article 12 are subject to the following limitations:

12.3.1. Each Party agrees that, from and after the Closing, the indemnification provided in this Article 12 is the exclusive remedy for a breach by the other Party of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in this Agreement, and that there shall be no other remedy for any breach by a party in respect of any claim for monetary damages arising out of or under this Agreement;

12.3.2. In calculating amounts payable to an indemnified party, the amount of any indemnified Purchaser Damages or Seller Damages, as the case may be, shall be determined without duplication of any other damages for which a claim has been made or could be made under any other representation, warranty, covenant or agreement included herein;

12.3.3. Any written notice delivered by an indemnified party to an indemnifying party seeking indemnification pursuant to this Agreement shall set forth, with as much specificity as is reasonably practicable, the basis of the claim, the sections of this Agreement which form the basis for the claim, and, to the extent reasonably practicable, a reasonable estimate of the amount of the Purchaser Damages or Seller Damages, as the case may be, that have been or may be sustained by such indemnified party; and 12.3.4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event shall an indemnified party be entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement to the extent any Purchaser Damages or Seller Damages, as the case may be, were attributable solely to the indemnified party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

12.3.5. No indemnifying party shall be liable to an indemnified party until the amount of all indemnifiable damages of such indemnified party in the aggregate exceeds USD $20,000.00, after which point the indemnifying party will be obligated to the indemnified party for all damages (and not just the amount in excess of such amount).

To the extent an indemnifying party makes any indemnification payment pursuant this Article 12 for which the indemnified party has a right to recover against a third party (including an insurance company), the indemnifying party shall be subrogated to the right of the indemnified party to seek and obtain recovery from such third party.

12.4. Third Party Indemnification Procedures. The obligations of any indemnifying party to indemnify any indemnified party under Sections 12.1 or 12.2 with respect to Purchaser Damages or Seller Damages, as the case may be, resulting from the assertion of liability by third parties (including Governmental Entities) (an "Indemnification Claim"), shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

12.4.1. Any party against whom any Indemnification Claim is asserted shall give the party required to provide indemnity hereunder written notice of any such Indemnification Claim promptly after learning of such Indemnification Claim (with such notice satisfying the requirements of Section 12.3.3), and, to the extent such matter involves a third party claim, the indemnifying party may, at its option, undertake the defense thereof by representatives of its own choosing and shall provide written notice of any such undertaking to the indemnified party. Failure to give prompt written notice of a Indemnification Claim hereunder shall not affect the indemnifying party's obligations under this Article 12, except to the extent that the indemnifying party is actually prejudiced by such failure to give prompt written notice. The indemnified party, at the indemnifying party's expense, shall, and shall cause its employees and representatives to, reasonably cooperate with the indemnifying party in connection with the settlement or defense of such Indemnification Claim and shall provide the indemnifying party with all available information and documents concerning such Indemnification Claim. If the indemnifying party, within thirty (30) days after written notice of any such Indemnification Claim, fails to assume the defense of such Indemnification Claim, the indemnified party against whom such claim has been made shall (upon further written notice to the indemnifying party) have the right to undertake the defense, compromise or settlement of such claim on behalf of and for the account and risk, and at the expense, of the indemnifying party.

12.4.2. Anything in this Section 12.4 to the contrary notwithstanding: (i) the indemnified party shall not settle a claim for which it is indemnified without the prior written consent of the indemnifying party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; and (ii) the indemnifying party shall not enter into any settlement or compromise of any action, suit or proceeding, or consent to the entry of any judgment for relief other than monetary damages to be borne exclusively by the indemnifying party, without the prior written consent of the indemnified party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

13. MISCELLANEOUS:

13.1. Bulk Sales Laws. Seller and Purchaser hereby waive compliance by Seller with the provisions of the bulk sales Law of any state or foreign jurisdiction.

13.2. Notices. All notices, requests, consents or other communications permitted or required under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given when personally delivered, or when sent if sent via facsimile (with receipt confirmed), or on the first business day after sent by reputable overnight carrier, or on the third business day after sent by registered or certified first class mail (with receipt confirmed), to the following:

This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements, covenants, representations or warranties, written or oral, by any officer, employee or representative of either Party dealing with the subject matter hereof.

13.5. Waiver. Any waiver by Seller or Purchaser of any breach or of a failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement: (i) shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed by the Party to be bound; and (ii) shall not constitute, or be construed as, a continuing waiver of such provision, or a waiver of any other breach of, or failure to comply with, any provision of this Agreement. At any time prior to the Closing Date, the Parties may: (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other Parties hereto; (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto; and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, any agreement on the part of a Party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Party.

13.6. Severability. Should any provision, or any portion thereof, of this Agreement for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, such decision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any of the other provisions, or portions thereof, of this Agreement, which other provisions, and portions, shall remain in full force and effect, and the application of such invalid or unenforceable provision, or portion thereof, to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by Law.

13.7. Amendment. This Agreement may only be amended only in writing by duly authorized representatives or officers of the Parties.

13.8. Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 9.3 of this Agreement or an Ancillary Agreement, each Party shall be responsible for its own expenses incurred in connection with the preparation of this Agreement, the performance of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

13.9. Third Parties. Nothing contained in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person, firm, corporation, association, labor union or trust (other than the Parties, their Affiliates and their respective permitted successors and assigns), any claims, rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

13.10. Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not be deemed to constitute a part of this Agreement.

13.11. Counterparts. More than one counterpart of this Agreement may be executed by the Parties, and each fully executed counterpart shall be deemed an original.

13.12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and, to the extent applicable the Bankruptcy Code, without giving effect to rules governing the conflict of laws.

13.13. Public Announcements. Seller and Purchaser will consult with each other before issuing any press releases or otherwise making any public statements with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and shall not issue any press release or make any public statement without mutual consent, except as may be required by Law and then only with such prior consultation.

13.14. Sales or Transfer Taxes. All sales taxes, documentary and stamp taxes, transfer taxes, use taxes, gross receipts taxes, excise taxes, value-added gross receipt taxes or similar charges and all charges for filing and recording documents in connection with the transfer of the Acquired Assets (including intellectual property filing and recording fees) shall be paid by Purchaser.

13.15. Venue and Retention of Jurisdiction. All actions brought, arising out of or related to the transactions contemplated in this Agreement shall be brought in the Bankruptcy Court, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to determine any and all such actions.

13.16. Risk of Loss. Prior to the Closing, all risk of loss, damage or destruction to all or any part of the Acquired Assets or the Business shall be borne exclusively by the Seller.

13.17. Enforcement of Agreement. The Parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any provision of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, this being in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity.

13.18. Dispute Resolution. Seller and Purchaser will, in the first instance, attempt to settle any and all claims or disputes arising in connection with this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement by good faith negotiations by senior management of each party. If the dispute is not resolved by senior management within thirty (30) days after delivery of a written request for such negotiation by either party to the other, either party may make a written demand (the "Demanding Party") for formal dispute resolution (the "Notice") and specify therein in reasonable detail the nature of the dispute. Within fifteen (15) business days after receipt of the Notice, the receiving party (the "Defending Party") shall submit to the other a written response. The Notice and the response shall include: (i) a statement of the respective party's position and a summary of arguments supporting that position; and (ii) the name and title of the executive who will represent that party and of any other person who will accompany the executive to meetings of the parties. Within fifteen (15) business days after such written notification, the executives (and others named in the Notice or response) will meet at a mutually acceptable time and place, and thereafter as often as they reasonably deem necessary, to attempt to resolve the dispute. All reasonable requests for information made by one party to the other will be honored promptly. All negotiations pursuant to this Section 13.18 are confidential and shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations for purposes of applicable rules of evidence. In any case, the Parties agree not to commence any litigation actions until the expiration of ninety (90) days after the date of the Notice, and all such actions are subject to Section 13.15 above.

13.19. No Right of Setoff. Neither party hereto nor any Affiliate thereof may deduct from, set off, holdback or otherwise reduce in any manner whatsoever any amount owed to it hereunder or pursuant to any Ancillary Agreement against any amounts owed hereunder or pursuant to any Ancillary Agreement by such Persons to the other party hereto or any of such other party's Affiliates.

13.20. Limitation on Damages. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING ARTICLE 12, IN NO EVENT SHALL PURCHASER OR SELLER BE LIABLE FOR, OR BEAR ANY OBLIGATION IN RESPECT OF, ANY PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND OR CHARACTER OR ANY DAMAGES RELATING TO, OR ARISING OUT OF, DIMINUTION IN VALUE, LOST PROFITS OR CHANGES IN RESTRICTIONS ON BUSINESS PRACTICES.

MOBILEARIA, INC. BIDDING PROCEDURES

Set forth below are the bidding procedures (the "Bidding Procedures") to be employed with respect to the proposed sale (the "Sale") of all or substantially all of the assets (the "Assets") comprising the entire business (the "Business") of MobileAria, Inc. (the "Seller"). On June 6, 2006, the Seller executed that certain Asset Sale and Purchase Agreement by and between Wireless Matrix USA, Inc. (the "Purchaser") and the Seller (the "Agreement"). The transaction contemplated by the Agreement is subject to competitive bidding as set forth herein and approval by the Bankruptcy Court (as defined herein) pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code").

On June 6, 2006, the Seller filed a Motion For Orders Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 And 365 And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, 6006 And 9014 (a) Approving (i) Bidding Procedures, (ii) Certain Bid Protections, (iii) Form And Manner Of Sale Notices, And (iv) Sale Hearing Date And (b) Authorizing And Approving (i) Sale Of Certain Of Debtors' Assets Comprising Substantially All Assets Of MobileAria, Inc. Free And Clear Of Liens, Claims, And Encumbrances, (ii) Assumption And Assignment Of Certain Executory Contracts And Unexpired Leases, And (iii) Assumption Of Certain Liabilities (the "Sale Motion"). On June __, 2006, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") entered an Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) And Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002 And 9014 Approving (i) Bidding Procedures, (ii) Certain Bid Protections, (iii) Form And Manner Of Sale Notices, And (iv) Sale Hearing Date (the "Bidding Procedures Order") approving the Bidding Procedures. The Bidding Procedures Order set July __, 2006 as the date the Bankruptcy Court will conduct a hearing (the "Sale Hearing") to authorize the Seller to enter into the Agreement. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

The Bidding Procedures set forth herein describe, among other things, the assets available for sale, the manner in which bidders and bids become Qualified, the coordination of diligence efforts among bidders, the receipt and negotiation of bids received, the conduct of any subsequent Auction (as defined herein), the ultimate selection of the Successful Bidder(s) (as defined herein) and the Bankruptcy Court's approval thereof (collectively, the "Bidding Process"). The Bidding Procedures were developed following consultation with, among others, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee") and the Seller intends to continue to consult with such constituents throughout the Bidding Process. In the event that the Seller and any such constituent disagree as to the interpretation or application of these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and resolve such dispute.

Assets To Be Sold

"As Is, Where Is"

The sale of the Assets shall be on an "as is, where is" basis and without representations or warranties of any kind, nature, or description by the Seller, its agents, or estate, except, with respect to the Purchaser, to the extent set forth in the Agreement and, with respect to a Successful Bidder, to the extent set forth in the relevant purchase agreement of such Successful Bidder approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

Free Of Any And All Claims And Interests

Except, with respect to the Purchaser, to the extent otherwise set forth in the Agreement and, with respect to a Successful Bidder, to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant purchase agreement of such Successful Bidder, all of the Seller's right, title, and interest in and to the Assets, or any portion thereof, to be acquired shall be sold free and clear of all pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options, and interests thereon and there against (collectively, the "Claims and Interests"), such Claims and Interests to attach to the net proceeds of the sale of such Assets.

Participation Requirements

Any person who wishes to participate in the Bidding Process (a "Potential Bidder") must become a Qualified Bidder. As a prerequisite to becoming a Qualified Bidder, a Potential Bidder, other than the Purchaser, must deliver (unless previously delivered) to the Seller:

- (a) An executed confidentiality agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (or in such other form acceptable to the Seller);
- (b) Current audited financial statements of the Potential Bidder, or, if the Potential Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the Assets, current audited financial statements of the equity holders of the Potential Bidder who shall guarantee the obligations of the Potential Bidder, or such other form of financial disclosure and credit-quality support or enhancement acceptable to the Seller and its financial advisors; and
- (c) A preliminary (non-binding) written proposal regarding (i) the purchase price range, (ii) any Assets expected to be excluded, (iii) the structure and financing of the transaction (including, but not limited to, the sources of financing of the Purchase Price (as defined in the Agreement) and the requisite Good Faith Deposit), (iv) any anticipated regulatory approvals required to close the transaction, the anticipated time frame and any anticipated impediments for obtaining such approvals, (v) any conditions to closing that it may wish to impose in addition to those set forth in the Agreement, and (vi) the nature and extent of additional due diligence it may wish to conduct and the date by which such due diligence will be completed.

A Potential Bidder who delivers the documents described in the previous subparagraphs above and whose financial information and credit-quality support or enhancement demonstrate the financial capability of such Potential Bidder to consummate the Sale, if selected as a successful bidder, and who the Seller determines in its sole discretion is likely (based on availability of financing, experience, and other considerations) to be able to consummate the Sale within the time frame provided by the Agreement shall be deemed a "Qualified Bidder." As promptly as practicable, after a Potential Bidder delivers all of the materials required above, the Seller shall determine, and shall notify the Potential Bidder, whether such Potential Bidder is a Qualified Bidder. At the same time that the Seller notifies the Potential Bidder that it is a Qualified Bidder, the Seller shall allow the Qualified Bidder to begin to conduct due diligence with respect to the Assets and the Business as provided below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder for purposes of the Bidding Process.

Due Diligence

The Seller shall afford each Qualified Bidder due diligence access to the Assets and the Business. Due diligence access may include management presentations as may be scheduled by the Seller, access to data rooms, on-site inspections, and such other matters which a Qualified Bidder may request and as to which the Seller, in its sole discretion, may agree. The Seller shall designate an employee or other representative to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from Qualified Bidders. Any additional due diligence shall not continue after the Bid Deadline. The Seller may, in its discretion, coordinate diligence efforts such that multiple Qualified Bidders have simultaneous access to due diligence materials and/or simultaneous attendance at management presentations or site inspections. Neither the Seller nor any of its affiliates (or any of their respective representatives) shall be obligated to furnish any information relating to Assets and the Business to any person other than to Qualified Bidders who make an acceptable preliminary proposal.

Each Qualified Bidder shall be deemed to acknowledge and represent that it has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Assets and the Business prior to making its offer, that it has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Assets and the Business in making its bid, and that it did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets or the Business, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith, the Bidding Process or the Auction (as defined herein), except, as to the Successful Bidder, as expressly stated in the definitive agreement with such Successful Bidder approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

Bid Deadline

A Qualified Bidder (other than the Purchaser) who desires to make a bid shall deliver written copies of its bid to: MobileAria, Inc., 800 West El Camino Real, Suite 240, Mountain View, California 94040, Attention: Richard Lind, with copies to: (i) Delphi Automotive Systems LLC, 5725 Delphi Drive, Troy, Michigan 48098, Attention: Stephen H. Reese, (iii) the Seller's financial advisor, Pagemill Partners, LLC, 2475 Hanover Street, Palo Alto, California 94304, Attention: Milledge A. Hart, (iv) the Seller's corporate counsel, DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP, 2000 University Avenue, East Palo Alto, California 94303, Attention: James M.

Koshland, (v) counsel to the Creditors' Committee, Latham & Watkins LLP, at 885 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Mark A. Broude, (vi) the Creditors' Committee's financial advisor, Mesirrow Financial Consulting LLC, 666 Third Avenue, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10017, Attention: Ben Pickering, (vii) counsel to the debtors' prepetition lenders, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 425 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Attention: Kenneth S. Ziman, and (viii) the debtors' prepetition lenders' financial advisor, Alvarez & Marsal, 600 Lexington Avenue, 6th Floor, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Andrew Hede, so as to be received not later than 11:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on June 29, 2006 (the "Bid Deadline"). As soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of each Qualified Bid, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser and its counsel complete copies of all items and information enumerated in the section below entitled "Bid Requirements."

Bid Requirements

All bids must include the following documents (the "Required Bid Documents"):

- (a) A letter stating that the bidder's offer is irrevocable until the earlier of (i) two Business Days after the closing of the Sale of the Assets or (ii) August 31, 2006.
- (b) An executed copy of the Agreement, together with all schedules (a "Marked Agreement") marked to show those amendments and modifications to such agreement and schedules that the Qualified Bidder proposes, including the Purchase Price.
- (c) A good faith deposit (the "Good Faith Deposit") in the form of a certified bank check from a U.S. bank or by wire transfer (or other form acceptable to the Seller in its sole discretion) payable to the order of the Seller (or such other party as the Seller may determine) in an amount equal to $500,000.00.
- (d) Written evidence of a commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the proposed transaction satisfactory to the Seller and its advisors.

Qualified Bids

A bid will be considered only if the bid:

- (a) is on terms and conditions (other than the amount of the consideration and the particular liabilities being assumed) that are substantially similar to, and are not materially more burdensome or conditional to the Seller than, those contained in the Agreement;
- (b) is not conditioned on obtaining financing or on the outcome of unperformed due diligence by the bidder;
- (c) proposes a transaction that the Seller determines, in its sole discretion, is not materially more burdensome or conditional than the terms of the Agreement and has a value, either individually or, when evaluated in conjunction with any other Qualified Bid, greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus (i) in the case of the initial Qualified Bid, $400,000.00, and (ii) in the case of any subsequent Qualified Bids, $100,000.00 over the immediately-preceding highest Qualified Bid;

- (d) is not conditioned upon any bid protections, such as a break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment;
- (e) an acknowledgement and representation that the bidder: (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Assets prior to making its offer, (ii) has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Assets in making its bid, and (iii) did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Assets, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith or the Auction, except as expressly stated in the Agreement or the Marked Agreement;
- (f) includes a commitment to consummate the purchase of the Assets (including the receipt of any required governmental or regulatory approvals) within not more than 15 days after entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving such purchase, subject to the receipt of any governmental or regulatory approvals which must be obtained within 20 days after entry of such order; and
- (g) is received by the Bid Deadline.

A bid received from a Qualified Bidder will constitute a "Qualified Bid" only if it includes all of the Required Bid Documents and meets all of the above requirements; provided, however, that the Seller shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to entertain bids for the Assets that do not conform to one or more of the requirements specified herein and deem such bids to be Qualified Bids; provided, further, however, that no bid shall be deemed by Seller to be a Qualified Bid unless such bid proposes a transaction that the Seller determines, in its sole discretion, has a value greater than or equal to the sum of the Purchase Price, plus the amount of the Break-Up Fee, plus $400,000.00, taking into account all material terms of any such bid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder, and the Agreement shall be deemed a Qualified Bid, for all purposes in connection with the Bidding Process, the Auction, and the Sale. A Qualified Bid will be valued based upon factors such as the net value provided by such bid and the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction. Each Qualified Bid other than that of the Purchaser is referred to as a "Subsequent Bid."

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids other than the Agreement received from the Purchaser, the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court and will proceed with the Sale pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

Bid Protection

Recognizing the Purchaser's expenditure of time, energy, and resources, the Seller has agreed to provide certain bidding protections to the Purchaser. Specifically, the Seller has determined that the Agreement will further the goals of the Bidding Procedures by setting a floor which all other Qualified Bids must exceed and, therefore, is entitled to be selected as the Purchaser. As a result, the Seller has agreed that if the Seller sells the Assets to a Successful Bidder other than the Purchaser, the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, pay to the Purchaser a Break-Up Fee. In the event the Agreement is terminated pursuant to certain other provisions thereof, then the Seller shall, in certain circumstances, be obligated to pay the Purchasers' Expense Reimbursement. The payment of the Break-Up Fee or the Expense Reimbursement (as applicable) shall be governed by the provisions of the Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order.

Auction

If the Seller receives at least one Qualified Bid in addition to the Agreement, the Seller will conduct an auction (the "Auction") of the Assets and the Business upon notice to all Qualified Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) on or before July 10, 2006, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Four Times Square, New York, New York 10036 in accordance with the following procedures:

- (a) Only the Seller, the Purchaser, any representative of the Creditors' Committee, any representative of the secured lenders (and the legal and financial advisers to each of the foregoing), and any Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid shall be entitled to attend the Auction, and only the Purchaser and Qualified Bidders will be entitled to make any subsequent Qualified Bids at the Auction.
- (b) At least two Business Days prior to the Auction, each Qualified Bidder who has timely submitted a Qualified Bid must inform the Seller whether it intends to participate in the Auction and at least one Business Day prior to the Auction, the Seller shall provide copies of the Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids which the Seller believes is the highest or otherwise best offer to all Qualified Bidders who have informed the Seller of their intent to participate in the Auction. Should an Auction take place, the Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the Auction. The Purchaser's election not to participate in an Auction shall in no way impair its entitlement to receive the Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement, as applicable.
- (c) All Qualified Bidders shall be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids with the understanding that the true identity of each bidder shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders and that all material terms of each Subsequent Bid shall be fully disclosed to all other bidders throughout the entire Auction.
- (d) The Seller may employ and announce at the Auction additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances (e.g., the amount of time allotted to make Subsequent Bids) for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules are not inconsistent with these Bidding Procedures, the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered in connection herewith.
- (e) Bidding at the Auction shall begin with the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid or combination of Qualified Bids and continue in minimum increments of at least $100,000.00 higher than the previous bid or bids. The Auction shall continue in one or more rounds of bidding and shall conclude after each participating bidder has had the opportunity to submit one or more additional Subsequent Bids with full knowledge and written confirmation of the then-existing highest bid or bids. For the purpose of evaluating the value of the consideration provided by Subsequent Bids (including any Subsequent Bid by the Purchaser), the Seller shall give the Purchaser a credit in an amount equal to the greater of any Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement that may be payable to the Purchaser under the Agreement and shall give effect to any assets and/or equity interests to be retained by the Seller.

Selection Of Successful Bid

At the conclusion of the Auction, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Seller, in consultation with its financial advisors, shall: (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the sale, and (ii) identify the highest or otherwise best offer(s) for the Assets and the Business received at the Auction (the "Successful Bid" and the bidder(s) making such bid, the "Successful Bidder(s)").

Seller shall sell the Assets for the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid to the Successful Bidder upon the approval of such Qualified Bid by the Bankruptcy Court after the hearing (the "Sale Hearing"). If, after an Auction in which the Purchaser: (i) shall have bid an amount in excess of the consideration presently provided for in the Agreement with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Agreement, and (ii) is the Successful Bidder, it shall, at the Closing under the Agreement, pay, in full satisfaction of the Successful Bid, an amount equal to: (a) the amount of the Successful Bid, less (b) the Break-Up Fee.

The Sale Hearing

The Sale Hearing is currently scheduled to take place before the Honorable Robert D. Drain, United States Bankruptcy Judge, on July 19, 2006 at 10:00 a.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, Room 610, New York, New York 10004. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled by the Seller without notice other than by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing.

If the Seller does not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid of the Purchaser), the Seller will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing and will proceed with a sale of the Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the Sale Order. If Seller does receive additional Qualified Bids, then, at the Sale Hearing, Seller shall seek approval of the Successful Bid(s), as well as the second highest or best Qualified Bid(s) (the "Alternate Bid(s)" and such bidder(s), the "Alternate Bidder(s)"). The Seller's presentation to the Bankruptcy Court of the Successful Bid(s) and Alternate Bid(s) shall not constitute the Seller's acceptance of either or any such bid(s), which acceptance shall only occur upon approval of such bid(s) by the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing. Following approval of the sale to the Successful Bidder(s), if the Successful Bidder(s) fail(s) to consummate the sale because of: (i) failure of a condition precedent beyond the control of either the Seller or the Successful Bidder, or (ii) a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder(s), then the Alternate Bid(s) shall be deemed to be the Successful Bid(s) and the Seller shall effectuate a sale to the Alternate Bidder(s) subject to the terms of the Alternate Bid(s) of such Alternate Bidder(s) without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Return Of Good Faith Deposits

Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders (except for the Successful Bidder) shall be held in an interest-bearing escrow account and all Qualified Bids shall remain open (notwithstanding Bankruptcy Court approval of a sale pursuant to the terms of one or more Successful Bids by one or more Qualified Bidders), until two Business Days following the closing of the Sale (the "Return Date"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Good Faith Deposit, if any, submitted by the Successful Bidder(s), together with interest thereon, shall be applied against the payment of the Purchase Price upon closing of the Sale to the Successful Bidder(s). If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, the Seller shall not have any obligation to return the Good Faith Deposit deposited by such Successful Bidder, and such Good Faith Deposit shall irrevocably become property of the Seller. On the Return Date, the Seller shall return the Good Faith Deposits of all other Qualified Bidders, together with the accrued interest thereon.

Reservation Of Rights

Seller, after consultation with the agent for the debtors' prepetition secured lenders and the Creditors' Committee: (i) may determine which Qualified Bid, if any, is the highest or otherwise best offer and (ii) may reject at any time, any bid (other than the Purchaser's bid) that is: (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Seller, its estate, and creditors as determined by Seller in its sole discretion.

Exhibit 1 – Form of Nondisclosure Agreement

NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Nondisclosure Agreement (this “Agreement”) by and between _____, a _____ corporation (the “Recipient”), and MobileAria, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Provider”) (each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”), is dated as of the latest date set forth on the signature page hereto.

1. General. In connection with the consideration of a possible negotiated transaction (a “Possible Transaction”) between the Parties and/or their respective subsidiaries (each such Party being hereinafter referred to, collectively with its subsidiaries and affiliates, as a “Company”), Provider is prepared to make available to the Recipient certain “Evaluation Material” (as defined in Section 2 below) in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and both Parties agree to take or abstain from taking certain other actions as hereinafter set forth.

2. Definitions.

(a) The term “Evaluation Material” means information concerning the Provider which has been or is furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives in connection with the Recipient’s evaluation of a Possible Transaction, including its business, financial condition, operations, assets and liabilities, and includes all notes, analyses, compilations, studies, interpretations or other documents prepared by the Recipient or its Representatives which contain or are based upon, in whole or in part, the information furnished by the Recipient hereunder. The term Evaluation Material does not include information which (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the Recipient or its Representatives in breach of this Agreement, (ii) was within the Recipient’s possession prior to its being furnished to the Recipient by or on behalf of the Provider, provided that the source of such information was not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information, or (iii) is or becomes available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Provider or its Representatives, provided that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation of confidentiality to, the Provider with respect to such information.

(b) The term “Representatives” shall include the directors, officers, employees, agents, partners or advisors (including, without limitation, attorneys, accountants, consultants, bankers and financial advisors) of the Recipient or the Provider, as applicable.

(c) The term “Person” includes the media and any corporation, partnership, group, individual or other entity.

3. Use of Evaluation Material. The Recipient shall, and it shall cause its Representatives to, use the Evaluation Material solely for the purpose of evaluating a Possible Transaction, keep the Evaluation Material confidential, and, subject to Section 5, will not, and will cause its Representatives not to, disclose any of the Evaluation Material in any manner whatsoever; provided, however, that any of such information may be disclosed to the Recipient’s Representatives who need to know such information for the sole purpose of helping the Recipient evaluate a Possible Transaction. The Recipient agrees to be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of the Recipient's Representatives. This Agreement does not grant the Recipient or any of its Representatives any license to use the Provider's Evaluation Material except as provided herein.

4. Non-Disclosure of Discussions. Subject to Section 5, each Company agrees that, without the prior written consent of the other Company, such Company will not, and it will cause its Representatives not to, disclose to any other Person (i) that Evaluation Material has been provided by Provider to Recipient, (ii) that discussions or negotiations are taking place between the Companies concerning a Possible Transaction or (iii) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect thereto (including the status thereof).

5. Legally Required Disclosure. If the Recipient or its Representatives are requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, other requests for information or documents in legal proceedings, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process) to disclose any of the Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 above, the Recipient shall provide the Provider with prompt written notice of any such request or requirement together with copies of the material proposed to be disclosed so that the Provider may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. If, in the absence of a protective order or other remedy or the receipt of a waiver by the Provider, the Recipient or its Representatives are nonetheless legally compelled to disclose Evaluation Material or any of the facts disclosure of which is prohibited under Section 4 or otherwise be liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty, the Recipient or its Representatives may, without liability hereunder, disclose to such requiring Person only that portion of such Evaluation Material or any such facts which the Recipient or its Representatives is legally required to disclose, provided that the Recipient and/or its Representatives cooperate with the Provider to obtain an appropriate protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Evaluation Material or such facts by the Person receiving the material.

6. Return or Destruction of Evaluation Material. If either Company decides that it does not wish to proceed with a Possible Transaction, it will promptly inform the other Company of that decision. In that case, or at any time upon the request of the Provider for any reason, the Recipient will, and will cause its Representatives to, within five business days of receipt of such notice, destroy or return all Evaluation Material in any way relating to the Provider or its products, services, employees or other assets or liabilities, and no copy or extract thereof (including electronic copies) shall be retained, except that Recipient's outside counsel may retain one copy to be kept confidential and used solely for archival purposes. The Recipient shall provide to the Provider a certificate of compliance with the previous sentence signed by an executive officer of the Recipient. Notwithstanding the return or destruction of the Evaluation Material, the Recipient and its Representatives will continue to be bound by the Recipient's obligations hereunder with respect to such Evaluation Material.

7. No Solicitation/Employment. The Recipient will not, within one year from the date of this Agreement, directly or indirectly solicit the employment or consulting services of or employ or engage as a consultant any of the officers or employees of the Provider, so long as they are employed by the Provider and for three months after they cease to be employed by Provider. The Recipient is not prohibited from soliciting by means of a general advertisement not directed at (i) any particular individual or (ii) the employees of the Provider generally.

8. Maintaining Privilege. If any Evaluation Material includes materials or information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, each Company understands and agrees that the Companies have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters and it is the desire, intention and mutual understanding of the Companies that the sharing of such material by Recipient is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege. All Evaluation Material provided by the Recipient that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges, this Agreement, and under the joint defense doctrine.

9. Not a Transaction Agreement. Each Company understands and agrees that no contract or agreement providing for a Possible Transaction exists between the Companies unless and until a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, and each Company hereby waives, in advance, any claims (including, without limitation, breach of contract) relating to the existence of a Possible Transaction unless and until both Companies shall have entered into a final definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction. Each Company also agrees that, unless and until a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction has been executed and delivered, neither Company will be under any legal obligation of any kind whatsoever with respect to such Possible Transaction by virtue of this Agreement except for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Neither Company is under any obligation to accept any proposal regarding a Possible Transaction and either Company may terminate discussions and negotiations with the other Company at any time.

10. No Representations or Warranties; No Obligation to Disclose. The Recipient understands and acknowledges that neither the Provider nor its Representatives makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Evaluation Material furnished by or on behalf of the Provider and shall have no liability to the Recipient, its Representatives or any other Person relating to or resulting from the use of the Evaluation Material furnished to the Recipient or its Representatives or any errors therein or omissions therefrom. As to the information delivered to the Recipient, the Provider will only be liable for those representations or warranties which are made in a final definitive agreement regarding a Possible Transaction, when, as and if executed, and subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be specified therein. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as obligating a the Provider to provide, or to continue to provide, any information to any Person.

11. Third Party Beneficiaries. Delphi Automotive Systems LLC and its affiliates are intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement with same rights and powers as if they had executed this Agreement.

12. Modifications and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement can be waived or amended in favor of either Party except by written consent of the other Party, which consent shall specifically refer to such provision and explicitly make such waiver or amendment. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder.

13. Remedies. Each Company understands and agrees that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by either Company or any of its Representatives and that the Company against which such breach is committed shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as a remedy for any such breach or threat thereof. Such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for a breach by either Company of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity to the Company against which such breach is committed.

14. Legal Fees. In the event of litigation relating to this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that either Company or its Representatives has breached this Agreement, then the Company which is, or the Company whose Representatives are, determined to have so breached shall be liable and pay to the other Company the reasonable legal fees and costs incurred by the other Company in connection with such litigation, including any appeal therefrom.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement is for the benefit of each Company and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such State.

16. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction contained in this Agreement is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants or restrictions contained in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and if a covenant or provision is determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Companies intend and hereby request that the court or other authority making that determination shall only modify such extent, duration, scope or other provision to the extent necessary to make it enforceable and enforce them in their modified form for all purposes of this Agreement.

17. Construction. The Companies have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Companies and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring either Company by virtue of the authorship at any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Term. This Agreement shall terminate one year after the date of this Agreement.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Companies regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, arrangements and discussions between the Companies regarding such subject matter.

20. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which shall be deemed to constitute a single instrument.

1. On January 6, 2006, this Court entered an order granting the Debtors' motion for an Order Approving Procedures For Rejecting Unexpired Real Property Leases And Authorizing Debtors To Abandon Certain Furniture, Fixture, And Equipment (the "Lease Rejection Order") (Docket No. 1776). Pursuant to the Lease Rejection Order, on April 13, 2006, the Debtors filed their notice to reject the lease of property located at 7601 East 88th Place, Indianapolis, Indiana 46256 (the "Lease") by April 30, 2006 (Docket No. 3222).¹ On April 27, 2006, UTE filed the Objection, stating that it does not "object to the rejection of the Lease" but has "serious concerns" regarding (a) "possible unremediated environmental issues" at the Lease site and (b) "the abandonment of hazardous and/or burdensome property" at the Lease premises by the Debtors after April 30, 2006, the effective date of the Lease rejection. (Objection ¶ 5) (Docket No. 3462). The Debtors' respectfully submit that neither concern prevents the Debtors from rejecting the Lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

¹ Prior to surrendering the property to Universal Tool & Engineering ("UTE"), the Debtors spent approximately $250,000 to clean the premises. Included in those costs were sums expended on site clean-up and dust and waste removal.

2. The Debtors' rejection of the Lease under 11 U.S.C. §365 is appropriately reviewed according to the business judgment test applicable to decisions regarding executory contracts under that provision. Section 365 gives UTE a claim for any costs it may incur for any environmental contamination that may actually exist at the Lease site. The right to assert a claim is UTE's only remedy in these circumstances.

3. UTE's second basis for its Objection, premised on the Debtors' failure to remove abandoned property, is equally flawed. There is no case law in this jurisdiction, or elsewhere, that would preclude the Debtors from rejecting the Lease on the grounds that not all of the Debtors' property was removed from the Lease premises. Indeed, a debtor's fundamental right to reject contracts would be eviscerated if the debtor were required, as a condition to rejection, to comply with burdensome contract conditions such as the requirement to remove abandoned property. Thus, UTE's "concerns" are nothing more than contract rejection claims that should be raised in a proof of claim and resolved in the claims reconciliation process. They are not grounds for opposing the Debtors' rejection of the Lease.²

Argument

A. The Debtors' Authority To Reject The Lease Is Not Limited By Unspecified Environmental Hazards

4. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a trustee, or debtor-in-possession, subject to the court's approval, to assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor. In deciding whether to grant such approval,

² The Objection also asserts that the Lease premises would not be vacated by April 30, 2006. The Debtors have confirmed that the Lease premises were in fact vacated as of April 30, 2006 and that the Debtors conducted a "walk-through" with UTE upon vacating the Lease premises.

bankruptcy courts usually apply the business judgment test. Generally, absent a showing of bad faith or abuse of a debtor's business discretion, a debtor's exercise of business judgment in determining that rejection will benefit the estate will not be disturbed.

Westbury Real Estate Ventures v. Bradless, Inc. (In re Bradlees Stores, Inc.), 194 B.R. 555, 558 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996); In re G Survivor Corp. 171 B.R. 755, 757-58 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994), aff'd sub nom. John Forsyth Co. v. G Licensing, Ltd., 187 B.R. 111 (S.D.N.Y. 1995). Thus, in reviewing a motion seeking authorization to reject an unexpired lease, the court only needs to determine that the debtor's decision to reject is a reasonable business judgment.

5. Here, UTE does not question the Debtors' exercise of their business judgment or present any facts or argument demonstrating that rejection of the Lease is not in the best interests of the Debtors. Instead, UTE raises unspecified, hypothetical environmental concerns, implicitly raising the narrow exception to a debtor's authority to abandon property under a different section of the Bankruptcy Code. In Midlantic National Bank v. New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, 474 U.S. 494 (1986), the Supreme Court carved out a limited exception to the trustee's broad power to abandon owned property under section 554(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, holding that "a trustee may not abandon property in contravention of a state statute or regulation that is reasonably designed to protect the public health or safety from identified hazards." Id. at 507. The Supreme Court emphasized that this exception is "a narrow one," and that the power to abandon would only be limited by requirements "reasonably calculated to protect the public health or safety from imminent and identifiable harm." Id. at 507 n.9 (emphasis added). Implicit in the Supreme Court's decision in Midlantic is the concern that section 554 provides no mechanism for addressing imminent and identifiable hazards on abandoned property. No private party would have the obligation to correct those conditions and the burden of responding would rest by default with the government. Id. at 505-06.

6. Courts have generally not applied the Midlantic test to requests for approval of the rejection of unexpired leases such as the one at issue here.³ Differences between sections 365 and 554, as well as the policy concerns underlying the Supreme Court's decision, demonstrate that Midlantic should not be applied to the rejection of a lease. When a lease is rejected under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, there is a mechanism for addressing imminent hazards to public health or safety. The lessor, as the owner of the property, will be obligated by the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. §§ 6911a, 9601-9675 and other environmental laws to address those conditions. The lessor will, in turn, have a claim for damages against the debtor under section 365(g) of the Bankruptcy Code for damages resulting from the rejection of the lease, including environmental damages. Unlike the abandonment in Midlantic, in this case, imminent environmental hazards, if any, will not be left unaddressed or fall on the government.

7. Even if the Court were to determine that the Midlantic test for abandoning owned property under section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code is applicable in this case of the rejection of a lease under 11 U.S.C. §365, UTE has not met the requirements of that test either with respect to the Lease site as a whole or with respect to any items of personal property located on it that will be abandoned. Courts applying Midlantic have emphasized that its limitation on the power of abandonment based on environmental conditions is a narrow one, even allowing abandonment of contaminated property so long as there is no imminent and identifiable harm to public health or safety. See In re Unidigital, Inc., 262 B.R. 283, 286 (Bankr. D. Del. 2001) ("Since the Midlantic decision, the majority of courts have read the exception to abandonment narrowly by disallowing abandonment only where there is an imminent and identifiable harm to the public health or safety."); In re McCrory Corp., 188 B.R. 763, 768 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1995). The Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, for instance, held that the trustee cannot abandon property only "where there is a serious health risk," not "where the hazards are speculative or may await appropriate action by an environmental agency." Borden, Inc. v. Wells-Fargo Bus. Credit (In re Smith-Douglass), 856 F.2d 12, 16 (4th Cir. 1988); see also N.M. Env't Dept. v. Foulston (In re L.F. Jennings Oil Co.), 4 F.3d 887 (10th Cir. 1993) (allowing abandonment when site posed no imminent threat to public safety); In re Anthony Ferrante & Sons, Inc., 119 B.R. 45, 49 (D.N.J. 1990) (finding that abandonment of contaminated drinking water system could not be prevented without showing of imminent and identifiable danger to public).

8. Moreover, the burden lies directly on the party opposing abandonment on grounds of environmental problems to show that the abandonment is "in contravention of a state law or regulation." In re Franklin Signal Corp., 65 B.R. 268, 272 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1986) (citation omitted); see also In re Unidigital, Inc., 262 B.R. at 287 (allowing abandonment, court found that "in order to fit into the Midlantic exception, the debtor must be attempting to abandon property in contravention of state or local laws or regulations designed to protect the public").

9. In this case, UTE's "evidence" amounts only to an equivocal yet conclusory statement that "environmental contamination may exist" and that the Debtors' rejection of the Lease and vacation of the Leased Site "is in violation of federal, state, or local law" if they do not conduct any environmental testing. (Objection ¶ 6.) Stating that there may be violations of the law is not enough; there also "must be a showing that the violation constitutes an imminent and identifiable harm." In re Shore Co., 134 B.R. 572, 578 (Bankr. E.D. Tex. 1991); see also In re L.F. Jennings, 4 F.3d at 890 (arguing that "before abandonment of a property can violate Midlantic the property must represent an immediate and identifiable harm to public health or safety"). Moreover, the burden is on the parties "opposing abandonment under Midlantic to prove that the contamination on the property creates an imminent and identifiable harm to the public which will be aggravated by the abandonment." In re St. Lawrence Corp., 239 B.R. 720, 726-27 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1999), aff'd, 248 B.R. 734 (D.N.J. 2000). Because UTE has asserted only hypothetical claims of environmental contamination, it has failed to make any showing that would entitle it to relief under Midlantic either with respect to the property as a whole or with respect to any personal property located on it.

B. Failure To Remove Abandoned Property Is Not A Valid Ground For An Objection

10. UTE's Objection based on a concern that it will have to dispose of property abandoned by the Debtors is equally unsupported. The Debtors are unaware of any case law, and none is identified by UTE, that would support UTE's position. Nor does section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code identify any grounds to prohibit the Debtors' rejection of the Lease.

11. As noted above, under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code the debtor has the right to reject unexpired leases when, in its business judgment, rejection is in the best interests of the debtor. UTE does not contest that the Debtors have properly exercised their business judgment to reject the Leases and that the Lease is burdensome to the estate. Instead, the Objection asserts that the Debtors are nevertheless required to remove certain unidentified property from the Lease premises so that UTE would not be forced to incur the costs of cleaning out the premises.

12. UTE's Objection should be overruled because it is premised on a misunderstanding of bankruptcy law. The removal of any abandoned property that is ultimately identified by UTE would certainly burden the Debtors and provide no value to the Debtors' estate. The cost of removing the abandoned property by the Debtors, and complying with any other contractual obligations under the Lease, would also certainly exceed any contractual damage claim that may be asserted by UTE under sections 365(g) and 502(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, to impose such a requirement as a condition to rejection of the Lease would be tantamount to requiring the Debtors to cure alleged defaults under the Lease prior to its rejection. Nothing in the Bankruptcy Code or applicable bankruptcy law provides a party-in-interest with the administrative right to payment for the failure to cure lease defaults upon rejection or payment of alleged damages arising from the abandonment of property pursuant to section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code.

13. This exact conclusion was recently reached by Judge Gerber in In re Ames Department Stores, Inc., 306 B.R. 43 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004), when the landlord sought to impose similar obligations on the Debtor as a condition to rejecting the lease:

The Court necessarily must reject the Landlords' implicit contention that the Debtors' statutory right to reject can be qualified by requirements not in the Bankruptcy Code itself, and especially by an implied requirement of compliance with lease covenants that are burdensome to the debtor, and that may form part of the rationale for rejection in the first place. A rejection is a court-authorized breach of an executory contract. When the exercise of business judgment makes such advisable, the estate can, by rejection, be relieved of the duty of continuing post-petition performance on a contract, and the landlord's claim for any damages arising from the rejection is a pre-petition claim for breach of contract. The ability to reject provides the trustee or debtor-in-possession with the means to relieve the estate of the duty to perform on burdensome obligations at the expense of all of the estate's other creditors, and to avoid the incurrence of additional administrative expenses which lack a corresponding benefit to the estate.

Id. at 51-52 (footnotes omitted). In addition, the court went on to state that a debtor's decision to reject a contract "is one of the most fundamental rights of a trustee or debtor-in-possession" and that the right would be eviscerated if the debtor were required, as a condition to rejection, to comply with burdensome contract conditions such as the requirement to remove abandoned property. Id. at 52.

14. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors' rejection of the Lease, effective as of April 30, 2006, should be approved. The Debtors complied with all the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code in rejecting the Lease, and it should be of no consequence, for determining whether the rejection was proper, that certain abandoned property remained on the Lease premises. The Bankruptcy Code does not require the curing of defaults as a condition to rejection, which is essentially what UTE is requesting here. Any dispute that UTE may have with abandoned property or future environmental clean-up costs should be resolved through the claims reconciliation process. It should not be a condition or requirement to the Debtors' right to reject the Lease.

Notice

15. Notice of this Response has been provided in accordance with the Seventh Supplemental Order Under 11 U.S.C. §§ 102(1) And 105 And Fed. R. Bankr.
